The Gender Knot Allan Johnson, 2014-10-19 New Third Edition The Gender Knot Allan Johnson's response to the pain and confusion that men and women experience by living with gender inequality explains what patriarchy is and isn't how it works and what gets in the way of understanding and doing something about it Johnson's simple yet powerful approach avoids the paralyzing trap of guilt blame anger and defensive denial that often results from conversations about gender This edition features Updated references data resources and examples especially in relation to issues of sexual orientation and gender identity e.g. gay marriage transgender cisgender A glossary of terms A new chapter What Changes and What Does Not Manhood and Violence that provides an extended analysis of the causes of men's violence as a patriarchal phenomenon

When Frankie Went to Hollywood Karen McNally, 2008-03-06 Illuminating the cinematic career of a male pop icon

No Less a Man Douglas Robinson, 1994 Through close readings of these three figures Robinson argues that more is going on among American men than meets the casual eye and that much of what is going on is reflected in the most popular of our art forms detective novels action movies and rock music

Men's Bodies, Men's Gods Bjorn Krondorfer, 1996 Men's Bodies Men's Gods explores the intersection of body religion and culture from the specific perspective of male identities How are male bodies constructed in different historical periods and contexts How do race ethnicity and sexual preference impact on the intersection of male bodies and religious identity Does

Christianity provide models to cope with the aging and ailing male body Does it provide models for intimacy between men and women Between men and men And how do men reflect the carnal dimensions of power abuse and justice The Changing Consumer Alison Anderson, Kevin Meethan, R Steven Miles, Steven Miles, 2005-07-08 In a world undergoing rapid change this essential collection discusses why consumption has become so important and what role if any it plays in underpinning social economic and political transformation Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour, Bob Pease, Sofia Strid, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention The Nature of Masculinity Steve Garlick, 2016-10-11 Social theorists have argued that as the complexity of our ecosystems becomes more apparent the line between nature and culture human and nonhuman and technology and bodies becomes less distinct Yet contemporary masculinity studies has generally failed to incorporate this new way of thinking In this penetrating analysis of the relationship between gender and nature Steve Garlick proposes that masculinity is best understood as a technology that shapes both our engagement with the natural world and how we define freedom Extending the work of the Frankfurt School and Heidegger's critique of modern technology The Nature of Masculinity draws on case studies and new materialist theories to argue that the essence of technology is not in mechanical devices but in a particular relationship to natural forces Within this critical framework masculinity is a technology of embodiment and freedom does not lie in the domination of nature but rather in fostering a new relation to it

Masculinities and Management in Agricultural Organizations Worldwide Professor Barbara Pini, 2012-11-28 Using contemporary gender theory to examine gender and rurality beyond that of simply women femininities this illuminating book accurately locates the subject of masculinities within the rural agricultural context While there has been a wealth of literature on men and masculinities published in recent years the climate of ideas has been typically experienced through an urban lens This book therefore investigates new conceptual territory Embedded in the literature on gender and rurality as well as the scholarship on gender and organizations management the book draws on an in depth ethnographic study of gender relations in Australian agricultural politics It will speak to academic audiences in rural social sciences gender studies and management organization studies Changing Men and Masculinities in Latin America Matthew C.
