Beyond The Limbo Silence:

Beyond The Limbo Silence Elizabeth Nunez, 2003-07-01 A haunting story Bears witness to the struggles of an African Caribbean woman as she seeks to find her place in America without selling her soul BEBE MOORE CAMPBELL Author of Your Blues Ain't Like Mine When Sara Edgehill is given a scholarship to leave Trinidad and attend a college in Wisconsin she is thrilled America the one she has seen in the movies is a land of dreams prosperity and equality Not like Trinidad where her parents cast disappointed glances her way because she wasn't born with lighter colored skin But when Sara leaves her island's brilliant green fields and warm sparkling waters for the pale cornfields of the Midwest the ties to her home and her past grip her as strongly as America's cold winter winds For as soon as Sara sets foot in her new home she must make tough decisions Wanting desperately to fit in she begins to understand that in America the color lines run deeper than they did even in Trinidad And as Sara forms ties with two other West Indian students the beguiling haunted Courtney and the passionate vivacious Sam she is irrevocably pulled into the very center of America's exploding civil rights movement Beyond the Limbo Silence Elizabeth Nunez, 1998 When Sara Edgehill leaves her home in Trinidad to attend college in Wisconsin she finds solace and friendship with Courtney another West Indian who covertly practices voodoo rituals and Sam a charismatic civil rights activist Alien-Nation and Repatriation Patricia Joan Saunders, 2007-12-24 Alien Nation and Repatriation examines the emergence and transformations in representations of national identity in Anglophone Caribbean literary traditions Beginning with the short fiction of C L R James Alfred Mendes and Albert Gomes this study examines the extent to which gender migration and female sexuality frame the earliest representations of Caribbean identity in literature by West Indian authors The study develops chronologically to examine the works of George Lamming Paule Marshall Erna Brodber M Nourbese Philip and Elizabeth Nunez Alien Nation and Repatriation emphasizes the processes of alienation that marginalize women from discourses of citizenship and belonging both of which are integral aspects of nationalist literature This text also argues that for Caribbean women writers engaged in discourses on citizenship return is not focused on reclaiming the nation state Instead Saunders argues that closer examinations of discourses on Caribbean identity reveal the ways in which the female body has been disciplined through form and content into silence in colonial and post colonial Caribbean literary traditions Urban Bush Women Nadine George-Graves, 2010-07-08 Provocative moving powerful explicit strong unapologetic These are a few words that have been used to describe the groundbreaking Brooklyn based dance troupe Urban Bush Women Their unique aesthetic borrows from classical and contemporary dance techniques and theater characterization exercises incorporates breath and vocalization and employs space and movement to instill their performances with emotion and purpose Urban Bush Women concerts are also deeply rooted in community activism using socially conscious performances in places around the country from the Kennedy Center the Lincoln Center and the Joyce to community centers and school auditoriums to inspire audience members to engage in neighborhood change and challenge stereotypes of gender race and class Nadine George Graves presents a comprehensive history of Urban Bush Women since their founding in 1984 She analyzes their complex work drawing on interviews with current and former dancers and her own observation of and participation in Urban Bush Women rehearsals This illustrated book captures the grace and power of the dancers in motion and provides an absorbing look at an innovative company that continues to raise the bar for socially conscious dance

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn,2016-04-01 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Literary Divas Heather Covington,2006 These divas represent the voices of past and future generations such as Tyra Banks Terry McMillan Harriette Cole Maya Angelou Iyanla Vanzant Nikki Giovanni Dawn Davis Adrienne Ingrum Carol Mackey Oprah Winfrey Rosa Parks Shirley Chisholm Coretta Scott King Zora Neal Hurston and Octavia Butler The Things That Fly in the Night Giselle Liza Anatol,2015-02-16 The Things That Fly in the Night explores images of vampirism in Caribbean and African diasporic folk traditions and in contemporary fiction Giselle Liza Anatol focuses on the figure of the soucouyant or Old Hag an aged woman by day who sheds her skin during night s darkest hours in order to fly about her community and suck the blood of her unwitting victims In contrast to the glitz glamour and seductiveness of conventional depictions of the European vampire the soucouyant triggers unease about old age and female power Tracing relevant folklore through the English and French speaking Caribbean the U S Deep South and parts of West Africa Anatol shows how tales of the nocturnal female bloodsuckers not only entertain and encourage obedience in pre adolescent listeners but also work to instill particular values about women s proper place and behaviors in society at large Alongside traditional legends Anatol considers the explosion of soucouyant and other vampire narratives among writers of Caribbean and African heritage who in the past twenty years have rejected the demonic image of the character and used her instead to urge for female mobility racial and cultural empowerment and anti colonial resistance Texts include work by authors as diverse as Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison U S National Book Award winner Edwidge Danticat and science fiction fantasy writers Octavia Butler and Nalo Hopkinson Writing African American Women Elizabeth A. Beaulieu,2006-04-30 Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page s Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other topics are included as well Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography African American culture is enormously diverse and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex Women were among the first African American writers and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike At the same time African American women have been oppressed and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways The first of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors In addition to covering male and female African American authors the encyclopedia also discusses themes major works and characters genres periods historical events places and other topics Included are entries on such authors as Maya Angelou James Baldwin Frederick Douglass Nikki Giovanni June Jordan Claude McKay Ishmael Reed Sojourner Truth Phillis Wheatley And many others In addition the many works discussed include Beloved Blanche on the Lam I know Why the Caged Bird Sings The Men of Brewster Place Quicksand The Street Waiting to Exhale And many more The many topical entries cover Black Feminism Black Nationalism Conjuring Children s and Young Adult Literature Detective Fiction Epistolary Novel Motherhood Sexuality Spirituality Stereotypes And many others Entries relate their topics to the experience of African American women and cite works for further reading Features and Benefits Includes hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries Draws on the work of numerous expert contributors Includes a selected general bibliography Offers a range of finding aids such as a list of entries a guide to related topics and an extensive index Supports the literature curriculum by helping students analyze major writers and works Supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to understand the experience of African American women Covers the full chronological range of African American literature Fosters a respect for cultural diversity Develops research skills by directing students to additional sources of information Builds bridges between African American history literature and Women s Studies

Grace Elizabeth Nunez,2008-12-18 Justin Peters is a Harvard educated professor of British and classic literature who reads Shakespeare to his four year old daughter Giselle A native of Trinidad and the product of a strict English style education Justin and his focus on the works of Dead White Men receive little professional respect at the public Brooklyn college where he teaches But whatever troubles he might have at work are eclipsed when he realizes his wife Sally has begun to pull away from him both physically and emotionally Harlem born Sally Peters a mother on the verge of turning forty is a primary school teacher who believes that joy is a learned skill and that it takes strength to be happy After a life of tragic losses Sally thought she had finally found that strength when she met Justin But now Sally wants something more And Justin is angered by her uncertainty about their life and frightened by the thought that perhaps Sally never stopped loving the ex boyfriend for whom she wrote fierce poems Is he Justin wonders responsible for helping Sally find meaning in her life a life that seems to him most fortunate If Sally and Justin s union is to survive both must face the crippling echoes of their own pasts before those memories forever cloud and alter their future Set in a snow covered Brooklyn Grace is a thoughtful and lovely meditation on trust redemption and family Elizabeth Nunez s delicate prose brings the struggles aches and tender moments of this contemporary urban love story into vivid focus From the Hardcover edition In the Life and in the Spirit

Marlon Rachquel Moore,2014-11-07 Examines a range of fiction that challenges widespread assumptions about what it means to be a black person of faith Taking up the perceived tensions between the LGBTQ community and religious African Americans Marlon Rachquel Moore examines how strategies of antihomophobic resistance dovetail into broader literary and cultural concerns In the Life and in the Spirit shows how creative writers integrate expressions of faith or the supernatural with sensuality desire and pleasure in a way that highlights a spectrum of black sexualities and gender expressions Through these fusions African American writers enact queer spiritualities that situate the well known work of James Baldwin into a broader community of artists including Bruce Nugent Ann Allen Shockley Alice Walker Langston Hughes Jewelle Gomez Becky Birtha and Octavia Butler In these texts from 1963 to 1999 Moore identifies a pervasive affirming stance toward LGBTQ people and culture in African American literary production
