season and his interest in ecological succession While commenting on the inter reliance of species types of soil why weeds invade how foreign plants appear insects disease and frost he also speculates on gardeners their needs to landscape to purchase specialized tools to use chemicals to emotionally bond with trees shrubs flowers and vegetables The back story of Interwoven Wild is much more universal In it Gayton uses his experiences as a working field ecologist to place the garden in the larger context of our present natural world By interlocking artists such as Monet and Caravaggio writers such as Walt Whitman Thoreau Emily Dickenson and Ann Dowden park designer Frederick Law Olmstead and landscape architect Christopher Alexander Gayton reminds us that the garden has long held sway in the creative consciousness His brief excursions into history whether tracing the apple back to Kazakhstan explaining how the tulip made its way from Turkey to Holland or how the industrialist Baylock s introduction of a smuggled Asian cherry tree destroyed the BC cherry orchards fascinate as well as instruct For Gayton the garden is a primordial human urge a gift celebration and revelation buried in human psyche marked in our collective mythologies a kind of magical glue binding world culture science and economics
