Balinese Discourses on Music and Modernization Brita Heimarck Renee, 2013-08-21 While many Western scholars have discussed the technical aspects of Balinese music or the traditional contexts for performance little has been written in Western languages about Balinese discourses on their music This dissertation seeks to understand the experience of music in Bali according to Balinese voices through an analysis of oral and written dialogues on music mainly by musicians and dalangs shadow play puppeteers from the village of Sukawati scholars teachers administrators and students from the Indonesian College of the Arts STSI in the City of Denpasar The study examines the influence of modernization on the traditional arts and their role in society A concentration on Balinese discourses enables individual performers and scholars to represent themselves to a greater extent than previously seen in ethnomusicological scholarship making this study more of a critical discussion among equals than a Western interpretation of others This approach permits a rare view into contemporary Balinese conceptions and practices of music     Indonesian

Bali and Beyond Shinji Yamashita, 2003 Based on field research carried out over two decades the author surveys the development of the anthropology of tourism and its significance using case studies drawn from Indonesia New Guinea and Japan He argues that tourism once seen as rather peripheral by anthropologists has to be treated as a phenomenon of major importance both because the size of the flows of people and capital involved and because it is one of the major sites in which the meeting and hybridization of culture takes place Tourism he suggests leads not to the destruction of local cultures as many critics have implied but rather to the emergence of new cultural forms The central part of the book presents a detailed case study of the island of Bali in Indonesia It traces the development of tourism there during the colonial period and the ways in which Balinese traditional culture was developed first by western artists and scholars in the colonial period and more recently by Balinese government officials in the guise of cultural tourism The general theme of the presentation of tradition is also discussed in relation to Toraja funerals in the Indonesian province of Sulawesi western visitors to the Sepik River in Papua New Guinea and the small city of Tono in northern Japan which has become a center for the study of folk lore Music As Episteme, Text, Sign, and Tool Zachar Laskewicz, 2003 The primary intention of this work is to present a set of alternative approaches to musicality where the object of analysis is the process of music making rather than the product or end result It uses as its source the concept of musicality as a way of comprehending reality rather than as a static reflection of it and Balinese music is the main cultural example Esoteric Buddhism in Mediaeval Maritime Asia Andrea Acri, 2016-09-05 This volume advocates a trans regional and maritime focused approach to studying the genesis development and circulation of Esoteric or Tantric Buddhism across Maritime Asia from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries ce The book lays emphasis on the mobile networks of human agents Masters textual sources Texts and images Icons through which Esoteric Buddhist traditions spread Capitalising on recent research and making use of both disciplinary and area focused perspectives this book highlights the role played by Esoteric Buddhist maritime networks in shaping intra Asian connectivity In doing so it reveals the limits of a historiography that is premised on land based transmission of Buddhism from a South Asian homeland and advances an alternative historical narrative that overturns the popular perception regarding Southeast Asia as a periphery that passively received overseas influences Thus a strong point is made for the appreciation of the region as both a crossroads and rightful terminus of Buddhist cults and for the re evaluation of the creative and transformative force of Southeast Asian agents in the transmission of Esoteric Buddhism across mediaeval Asia
