Balkan Story Balkan Story Part One:

Balkan Life Courses. Part 1 Klaus Roth, Milena Benovska, 2018 The historical upheavals in Southeast Europe since the early 20th century brought about deep transformations of people's everyday lives and their life courses The concept of life course enables the understanding of human lives within their socio cultural and political contexts stressing agency and people's everyday experience Balkan contexts invite for analyses that bridge political and social changes and their influence on individual life courses The papers discuss problems such as family life and parenthood ages and ageing life cycle rituals and the artistic expressions devoted to them The authors present manifestations of the social differentiation and cultural multiplicity under post socialist or post colonial conditions from developing contemporary global life styles among the emerging urban middle class to the ghettoization of some social or age groups This volume focusses on developing family cultures on experiencing socialization and age on old and new life cycle rituals and their artistic representations in contemporary Southeast Europe Untold Stories of the Spanish Civil War Raanan Rein, Susanne Zepp-Zwirner, 2023-11-23 This is the first scholarly volume to offer an insight into the less known stories of women children and international volunteers in the Spanish Civil War Special attention is given to volunteers of different historical experiences especially Jews and voices from less researched countries in the context of the Spanish war such as Palestine and Turkey Of an interdisciplinary nature this volume brings together historians and literary scholars from different countries Their research is based on newly found primary sources in both national and private archives as well as on post essentialist methodological insights for women's history Jewish history and studies on belonging By bringing together a group of emerging and senior scholars from different countries we highlight the polyphony of voices of diverse individuals drawn into the Spanish Civil War Contributors to this volume have explored new or little researched primary sources found in archives and documentary centers including papers held by relatives of the people we study The volume is aimed at both scholarly and non scholarly public including any readers interested in the Spanish Civil War twentieth century European history Jewish studies women's history or anti fascism This volume can be used both in undergraduate college courses and in postgraduate university seminars Balkan Fascination Mirjana Laušević, 2015-10 In Balkan Fascination ethnomusicologist Mirjana Laušević a native of the Balkans investigates this remarkable phenomenon to explore why so many Americans actively participate in specific Balkan cultural practices to which they have no familial or ethnic connection Documents on the Balkans - History, Memory, Identity Margit Rohringer, 2020-06-01 This book explores historical discourses on the various forms of identity production in film that are based on memory and shows how these narratives get mediated by documentary film Most films about the Balkans produced in the last two decades were in fact made in response to immediate concerns about the economic crises and political conflicts that struck the region during the 1990s These new forms of communication about history mostly show a rather self critical approach The book's case studies give the reader a clear idea of how processes informing identity formations are directly launched and later on maintained in peoples real and everyday lives Thus the case studies principal objective is to integrate the study of private space with existing macro debates in politics as well as with dominant discourses within the academic community The included case studies focus on several topics i e migration the reproduction and protection of personal as well as collective identities in post socialist societies revolutionary processes towards the official end of the Cold War the re creation of politically constructed narratives generational conflicts in the post socialist period and the fate of women during the war The multifaceted view of the region under focus in this study shows that common grounds and differences co exist in the Balkan space be it on a cultural economic social or geo political level Apart from the field of film studies this work is a powerful contribution to cultural history as well as to the growing field of visual history

Narrating the Dragoman's Self in the Veneto-Ottoman Balkans, c. 1550-1650 Stefan Hanß, 2023-04-18 This microhistory of the Salvagos an Istanbul family of Venetian interpreters and spies travelling the sixteenth and seventeenth century Mediterranean is a remarkable feat of the historian s craft of storytelling With his father having been killed by secret order of Venice and his nephew to be publicly assassinated by Ottoman authorities Genesino Salvago and his brothers started writing self narratives When crossing the borders of words and worlds the Salvagos self narratives helped navigate at times beneficial other times unsettling entanglements of empire family and translation The discovery of an autobiographical text with rich information on Southeastern Europe edited here for the first time is the starting point of this extraordinary microbiography of a family s intense struggle for manoeuvring a changing world disrupted by competition betrayal and colonialism This volume recovers the Venetian life stories of Ottoman subjects and the crucial role of translation in negotiating a shared but fragile Mediterranean Stefan Han examines an interpreter s translational practices of the self and recovers the wider Mediterranean significance of the early modern Balkan contact zone Offering a novel conversation between translation studies Mediterranean studies and the history of life writing this volume argues that dragomans practices of translation border crossing and mobility were key to their experiences and performances of the self This book is an indispensable reading for the history of the early modern Mediterranean self narratives Venice the Ottoman Empire and Southeastern Europe as well as the history of translation Han presents a truly fascinating narrative a microhistory full of insights and rich perspectives

'Balkanization' and the Euro-Atlantic Processes of the (Western) Balkans Liridona Veliu Ashiku, 2024-08-30 This book explores how balkanization as a discourse underpins the policies of the European Union EU and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO toward the Western Balkans It shows how EU and NATO policies have emerged from and led to the constant reinvention of the unity of the West through balkanizing the region and illustrates how this dynamic is maintained by and instrumentalized for the political elites Through a genealogical analysis that stretches from the Balkans Wars to more recent events such as North Macedonia s change of name in 2018 the author shows how Western policies have aimed at recreating the united West on the back of the broken Balkans The book will appeal to

scholars and students of Southeast Europe International Relations Political Science Peace and Conflict Studies and History

The Spectator, 1896 The Statesman's Year-Book J. Scott-Keltie, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux, Ian Jeffries, 2006-04-10 A History of Eastern Europe Crisis and Change is a wide ranging single volume history of the lands between the lands which have lain between Germany Italy and the Tsarist and Soviet empires Bideleux and Jeffries examine the problems that have bedevilled this troubled region during its imperial past the interwar period under fascism under communism and since 1989 While mainly focusing on the modern era and on the effects of ethnic nationalism fascism and communism the book also offers original striking and revisionist coverage of ancient and medieval times the Hussite Revolution the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation the legacies of Byzantium the Ottoman Empire and the Hapsburg Empire the rise and decline of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the impact of the region's powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe the 1920s land reforms and the 1930s Depression Providing a thematic historical survey and analysis of the formative processes of change which have played the paramount roles in shaping the development of the region A History of Eastern Europe itself will play a paramount role in the studies of European historians Music in the Balkans Jim Samson, 2013-06-15 This book asks how a study of many different musics in South East Europe can help us understand the construction of cultural traditions East and West It crosses boundaries of many kinds political cultural repertorial and disciplinary Above all it seeks to elucidate the relationship between politics and musical practice in a region whose art music has been all but written out of the European story and whose traditional music has been subject to appropriation by one ideology after another South East Europe with its mix of ethnicities and religions presents an exceptionally rich field of study in this respect The book will be of value to anyone interested in intersections between pre modern and modern cultures between empires and nations and between culture and politics Riding with the Big Boys George Djuric, 2001-11-12 Riding With the Big Boys is a real life account of an aspiring novelist trying to support his family by driving an eighteen wheeler across the country while waiting for publishers response to his first U S novel It is written in the shape of a diary as a mixture of daily duties falling hopes financial stress and panoramic sceneries shifting one after another from Big Planes to the Rockies from Newark Airport to Columbia River It also reveals the parallel world of one of America's most impressive sub societies the life of the Big Boys long distance truckers who spend the best years of their lives living inside their sleepers Aspects of the Balkans: Continuity and Change Henrik Birnbaum, Speros Vryonis, 2018-11-05 No detailed description available for Aspects of the Balkans Continuity and Change Balkan Yearbook of European and International Law 2020 Zlatan Meškić, Ivana Kunda, Dušan V. Everyday Life in the Balkans David W. Montgomery, 2018-11-26 Everyday Life in the Balkans gathers the work of leading scholars across disciplines to provide a broad overview of the countries of Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia Greece Kosovo Macedonia Romania Serbia and Turkey This region has long been characterized as a place of instability and political turmoil from World War I through the Yugoslav Wars and even today as debate continues over issues such as the influx of refugees or the expansion of the European Union However the work gathered here moves beyond the images of war and post socialist stagnation which dominate Western media coverage of the region to instead focus on the lived experiences of the people in these countries Contributors consider a wide range of issues including family dynamics gay rights war memory religion cinema fashion and politics Using clear language and engaging examples Everyday Life in the Balkans provides the background context necessary for an enlightened conversation about the policies economics and culture of the region

Assassination at Sarajevo Robin S. Doak, 2009 On June 28 1914 a nineteen year old Bosnian student named Gavrilo Princip stepped up to an open car on a Sarajevo street and fired two shots The bullets from Princip's gun killed Archduke Franz Ferdinand the heir to the throne of Austria Hungary and his wife Sofie The gunfire also set the stage for the most disastrous armed conflict the world had yet experienced Exactly one month after the assassination in Sarajevo Austria Hungary declared war on Serbia and World War I began

Intangible Cultural Heritage and Reconciliation in the Western Balkans Miloš Milenković, 2024-08-01 This book considers the sensitive heritage elements linked to the very issue of the origins of nations Beliefs rituals and traditional knowledge are examples of intangible cultural heritage ICH which communities globally regard as the core of their cultural identity When it is unclear which element of heritage belongs to whom like in the Western Balkans where the majority of heritage elements are shared ICH disputes exacerbate conflict Its mishandling is especially acute when minority heritage is excluded from governmental cultural policies With a focus on Serbia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina and Montenegro this book has a global thematic scope theoretical depth and policy relevance to the scholars of anthropology and heritage studies as well as to those interested in cultural diversity human rights and cultural and educational policies It will serve as a guide for those who professionally use cultural heritage or want to start doing so in the processes of reconciliation stabilization and development

Balkans and Islam Hamit Er, Ayşe Zişan Furat, 2012-11-15 In the growing body of literature about the evolution and the role of Islam in Europe as a whole and the Balkans in particular this volume holds a special place as it offers a multidisciplinary approach to the encounter transformation discontinuity continuity of Islam in the region Thus it provides excellent material for students of social and political studies history and even architecture at the bachelor and master level At the same time it aspires to attract the attention of researchers and academics who are interested in the evolution of Islam in the Balkans It should be noted that the style and the language of the articles in this volume would also make it easily accessible to the general interested reader who is not detached from the latest social and political developments in the Balkans In this regard the volume would also be useful for a number of think tank members and even politicians in the Balkans providing them with knowledge of the region s past and present with hope for an integrated future The Statesman's Year-book Frederick Martin,Sir John Scott Keltie,Isaac Parker Anderson Renwick,Mortimer Epstein,Sigfrid Henry Steinberg,John Paxton,Brian Hunter (Librarian),Barry Turner,1899 Forgotten Friendships Alexandra Perišić,2025-11-04 Forgotten Friendships Yugoslavia and the Anticolonial Francophone World examines transnational friendships and alliances between intellectuals from Yugoslavia and the Francophone African and Caribbean world during the mid twentieth century The book argues that transnational political friendships helped shape major intellectual movements like N gritude African socialism and global socialist feminisms which surged beyond national regional and even diasporic spaces Blending archival research literary analysis and biography the book fills a significant gap in our understanding of how intellectuals from the Global South and the socialist world collaborated on shared goals of decolonization anti racism and socialist worldmaking Forgotten Friendships emphasizes the ways in which writers intellectuals and activists envisioned alternative futures rooted in collaboration across peripheries Personal bonds of friendship were not mere footnotes to the anti colonial struggle but vital political tools for rethinking global solidarity History ,1984
