diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today s students of intercultural communication

E-literature for Children Len Unsworth,2006 These practical ideas suggestions and real life experiences will help you to understand the differences and similarities of the literary experience for children through classic modern and leading edge narratives in both book and computer formats Cinematic Howling Hoi Cheu,2010-10-01 Cinematic Howling presents a refreshingly unorthodox framework for feminist film studies Instead of criticizing mainstream movies from feminist perspectives Hoi Cheu focuses on women s filmmaking itself Integrating systems theory and feminist aesthetics in his close readings of films and screenplays by women he considers how women engage the process of storytelling in cinema The importance of these films he argues is not merely that they reflect women s perceptions but that they have the power to reframe experiences and consequently to transform life A major contribution to feminist scholarship that will appeal to scholars of both gender and film Cinematic Howling is written in an approachable and inviting style full of vivid examples and attention to detail which will suit both undergraduate and graduate courses in gender film and cultural studies New Voices Literature Reader □ 8 Brinda Dutta, VIJAYA SUBRAMANIAM, 1 Literature Readers are from classes 1 to 8 2 The stories are an interesting mix of selections ranging from classics to contemporary covering the diversity of writers 3 Reading selections emphasise values of inclusivity gender neutrality equality cultural sensitivity and patriotism

Mulan's Legend and Legacy in China and the United States Lan Dong,2011 Heroic women warriors as reflections of social and moral values Women in the Chinese Enlightenment Zheng Wang,2023-11-15 Centering on five life stories by Chinese women activists born just after the turn of this century this first history of Chinese May Fourth feminism disrupts the Chinese Communist Party s master narrative of Chinese women s liberation reconfigures the history of the Chinese Enlightenment from a gender perspective and addresses the question of how feminism engendered social change cross culturally In this multilayered book the first person narratives are complemented by a history of the discursive process and the author s sophisticated intertextual readings Together the parts form a fascinating historical portrait of how educated Chinese men and women actively deployed and appropriated ideologies from the West in their pursuit of national salvation and self emancipation As Wang demonstrates feminism was embraced by men as instrumental to China s modernity and by women as pointing to a new way of life Centering on five life stories by Chinese women activists born just after the turn of this century this first history of Chinese May Fourth feminism disrupts the Chinese Communist Party's master narrative of Chinese women's liberation reconfigures the h

Using Internet Primary Sources to Teach Critical Thinking Skills in World Languages Kent Norsworthy, Grete Pasch, 2000-11-30 Language teachers social studies teachers and school library media specialists will find this resource invaluable for providing lessons and activities in critical thinking for students in grades 7-12. It is filled with over 200 primary source Internet sites covering the Chinese French German Spanish Japanese Russian and Latin languages. Each Web site will help reinforce language skills while providing students with interactive lessons on the unique culture of the peoples who speak the language. The next best thing to visiting the country itself. For each of the 56 primary Web sites a site summary is given describing its contents and usefulness to teachers and school library media specialists. Site subjects may include a country's radio or news program the history of a country and its visual arts including museums foods eaten by the people who speak this language and recipes on how to prepare them ceremonies customs and sports enjoyed geography of the countries who speak this language and sites to help practice the language itself. Following are a list of questions and activities which students can prepare orally or in written form and at least four more related Web sites are provided for further study. Using this book will not only help students increase their language skills but it will also open up the entire culture to enable students to experience it just as if they were visiting.

The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area. It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today: what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work. Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas.

New Discourse on Language Monika Bednarek, J. R. Martin, 2011-10-27 New Discourse on Language addresses the need for innovative analyses of multi-modal discourse identity and affiliation within functional linguistics. The chapters in this volume are connected by their common underlying theoretical approach Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL) and by their focus on semantic variation across modalities of communication and between speakers as well as the negotiation of identity and affiliation. The analyses focus on a diverse range of texts from very different contexts using analytic techniques that are based on the latest research in this field. They represent a wealth of exploratory innovative and challenging perspectives and are a key contribution to the extension of systemic functional theory to the analysis of multimodality identity and affiliation. The volume is of interest to linguists applied linguists semioticians and communication theorists.

The Medieval Horse Anastasija Ropa, 2025-10-20 A rich history of how the bonds between horses and people shaped the Middle Ages. This book explores the role of horses across the global medieval world. Covering the early medieval period to the late Middle Ages Anastasija Ropa examines how horses shaped societies warfare and culture.

as well as how their legacy persists in equestrian sports today Drawing on little known primary sources artifacts and the author s own experience with historical horsemanship the book offers a vivid account of the deep connection between medieval people and horses Combining scholarly insight with practical knowledge this is the most comprehensive study of medieval horses in Europe and Asia to date

Gender Hierarchy of Masculinity and Femininity during the Chinese Cultural Revolution Zhuying Li, 2020-11-25 Focusing on the influence of Maoist ideology and masculinist power on the representations of women in revolutionary opera films made during the Cultural Revolution this book considers the gendered hierarchy between masculinity and femininity in relation to the historic and cultural context in which they were made Using feminist methodology and epistemology to locate women s social identity this book explores the sociological connections between the masculinisation of women and masculinist domination in the context of the Cultural Revolution Through film analysis the author examines whether women rather than liberated were in fact re gendered and oppressed by masculinist power By critically evaluating gender hierarchy during the Chinese Cultural Revolution the book provides hitherto neglected insights into gender within its social and cultural context This an interdisciplinary book which should appeal to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including gender studies Asian studies China studies cultural studies and film studies

Houghton Mifflin Reading, 2003

Concise Reader of Chinese Literature History Yuejin Liu, 2023-10-26 This book includes the history of Chinese literature before 1949 It firstly outlines the development process of Chinese literature and basic features and then discusses them according to the literary genre for the literature of each era This book gathers established scholars in the field and presents their latest research in the Chinese literature history studies Moreover it has included the literature history of different nationalities in the history of

China and the records of folk literature history reflecting literature from different classes In the limited space of this book the writers who have been loved by the Chinese people for three thousand years are discussed such as Qu Yuan Tao Yuanming Li Bai Du Fu Su Shi Xin Qiji Yuan Haowen Nalan Xingde and so on Careful elaborations are made on each writer together with quotations and analysis of their work Not Just a Man's War Yihong Pan, 2024-09-01 In 1931 Japan began a brutal occupation of Manchuria and in 1937 China and Japan entered a full scale war that ended with Japan's defeat in 1945 The War of Resistance became the Chinese experience of the Second World War Yet women scarcely get a mention in most accounts of the fourteen year conflict Through interviews published reminiscences and oral histories Not Just a Man's War uncovers the extraordinary stories of ordinary Chinese women during the war Communist women speak of fighting as soldiers for a good war and contributing to the party's rise to power Nationalist women attribute their survival to the strength of the human spirit while acknowledging tremendous suffering Women from the working poor and the middle classes describe the hardships of Japanese aggression and in their narratives refuse to be ignored as passive beings In speaking up the victims of sexual violence become survivor activists demanding justice These women demonstrate a striking autonomy regardless of political association socioeconomic status or education By attending to their insights Not Just a Man's War produces a multi faceted inclusive narrative of China's War of Resistance Asian Folklore Studies ,1963
