Prison Architecture Leslie Fairweather, Sean McConville, 2013-05-13 Current and future prison designs are examined in this book within the government's prison building programme and the confines of current penal philosophies and legislation America has led the way in prison design with two main types of architecture predominating radial layouts outside cells with windows and linear blocks inside cells with grilles Now new generation prisons central association surrounded by small groups of cells look set to become the fashion But are they a better answer and should they be copied worldwide before we know Architects and administrators show in this book the designs of these new generation prisons and assess their impact Most countries in central Europe also have a rising crime rate and a demand for new prisons Contributions from significant architects from the UK Europe and America comment on these issues Other topics within the book are setting current prison architecture and design against an historical setting looking at penal ideas and prison architecture and design in the post war period the psychological effects of the prison environment the influence of technology and design on security management and how prison architecture and design can be more flexible and innovative Alternatives to Incarceration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform. Subcommittee on Criminal Justice, Drug Policy, and Human Resources, 2001 Who Speaks for You? Leo Wise, 2023-04-04 This book is on the investigation and prosecution of Baltimore Police Department's Gun Trace Task Force GTTF a group of detectives who were both cops and robbers at the same time The GTTF was supposed to trace guns back to the criminals responsible for Baltimore's stubbornly high rate of violent crime Instead federal authorities traced dozens of robberies burglaries and even an armed home invasion to the members of the GTTF In 2015 and 2016 Baltimore was reeling from the death of Freddie Gray the unrest that followed it and an explosion of violent crime that followed the unrest Selection And Application Guide To Personal Body Armor, November 2001, 2002 Serving Two Masters Troy Perkins, 2007-03 Serving Two Masters examine the reality of living separate lives from God You would either love the things of the world or you will love our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ The story is full with lies deceit immortunities and greed which are works of the flesh It also exposes the love that some share as well injustices we sometime experience Troy has plans to lecture and become a counselor someday Cop in the Hood Peter Moskos, 2009-08-03 When Harvard trained sociologist Peter Moskos left the classroom to become a cop in Baltimore's Eastern District he was thrust deep into police culture and the ways of the street the nerve rattling patrols the thriving drug corners and a world of poverty and violence that outsiders never see In Cop in the Hood Moskos reveals the truths he learned on the midnight shift Through Moskos's eyes we see police academy graduates unprepared for the realities of the street success measured by number of arrests and the ultimate failure of the war on drugs In addition to telling an explosive insider's story of what it is really like to be a police officer he makes a passionate argument for drug legalization as the only realistic way to end drug violence and let cops once again protect and serve In a new afterword Moskos describes the many benefits
