Writing Across Worlds Susheila Nasta, 2004 From Chinua Achebe to Marina Warner Writing Across Worlds brings together new interviews and interviews with major international writers previously featured in the pages of Wasafiri magazine founded in 1984 and now celebrating its twentieth anniversary

Between the Bocas Jak Peake, 2017-07-19 Situated opposite the mouth of the Orinoco River western Trinidad has long been considered an entrepôt to mainland South America Trinidad's geographic position seen as strategic by various imperial governments led to many heterogeneous peoples from across the region and globe settling or being relocated there The calm waters around the Gulf of Paria on the western fringes of Trinidad induced settlers to construct a harbour Port of Spain around which the modern capital has been formed From its colonial roots into the postcolonial era western Trinidad therefore has played an especial part in the shaping of the island's literature Viewed from one perspective western Trinidad might be deemed as narrating the heart of the modern state's national literature Alternatively the political threats posed around San Fernando in Trinidad's southwest in the 1930s and from within the capital in the 1970s present a different picture of western Trinidad one in which the fractures of Trinidad and Tobago's projected nationalism are prevalent While sugar remains a dominant narrative in Caribbean literary studies this book offers a unique literary perspective on matters too often perceived as the sole preserve of sociological anthropological or geographical studies The legacy of the oil industry and the development of the suburban commuter belt of East West Corridor therefore form considerable discursive nodes alongside other key Trinidadian sites such as Woodford Square colonial houses and the urban yards of Port of Spain This study places works by well known authors such as V S Naipaul and Samuel Selvon alongside writing by Michel Maxwell Philip Marcella Fanny Wilkins E L Joseph Earl Lovelace Ismith Khan Monique Roffey Arthur Calder Marshall and the largely neglected novelist Yseult Bridges who is almost entirely forgotten

today Using fiction calypso history memoir legal accounts poetry essays and journalism this study opens with an analysis of Trinidad's nineteenth century literature and offers twentieth century and more contemporary readings of the island in successive chapters Chapters are roughly arranged in chronological order around particular sites and topoi while literature from a variety of authors of British Caribbean Irish and Jewish descent is represented

George Lamming's In the Castle of My Skin Simon Gikandi,1984

On the Very Edge Ian Kinane,2025-01-15

On the Very Edge Bidentities in Michelle Cliff's Fiction uses the life and work of bisexual biracial and bicultural author Michelle Cliff 1946 2016 to develop an entirely new approach to intersectional cultural race and gender sexuality studies that prioritizes bi ness as a methodological tool The book focuses not simply on bisexuality biracialism or biculturalism as isolated identity concepts rather it explores the very nature of these intersectional identity categories as configured by Cliff The text therefore represents a reclamation of bi identity in Cliff's work as a much broader cultural and not just sexual or racial category arguing that Cliff's spaces and or stages of bi ness are in themselves significant in understanding contemporary global identity politics as well as in navigating complex and often damaging identity constructs Michelle Cliff partnered with poet Adrienne Rich and passing as white had an often invisible sexuality and cultural identity Yet her acclaimed work Abeng No Telephone to Heaven Bodies of Water If I Could Write This in Fire Free Enterprise and others demonstrates the intersections between bisexuality biracialism and biculturalism in often profound ways Drawing on original research interviews diaries editorials and other correspondences On the Very Edge will have far reaching implications in the understanding of complex Caribbean identity politics and intersectional race gender and sexuality studies at large

The African Philosophy Reader P.H. Coetzee,A.P.J. Roux,2004-03-01 Divided into eight sections each with introductory essays the selections offer rich and detailed insights into a diverse multinational philosophical landscape Revealed in this pathbreaking work is the way in which traditional philosophical issues related to ethics metaphysics and epistemology for instance take on specific forms in Africa's postcolonial struggles Much of its moral political and social philosophy is concerned with the turbulent processes of embracing modern identities while protecting ancient cultures

The Growth of African Literature African Literature Association. Meeting,1998 This collection of papers results from the 15th annual meeting of the African Literature Association which was held in Dakar Senegal and was the first such meeting to be held in Africa Topics covered include approaches and literary theory language and history thematic analysis and literature in the African Diaspora Literature and Racial Ambiguity Teresa Hubel, Neil Edward Brooks, 2002 Two Huron U College English professors introduce 14 essays reading literary explorations of how the hybridity per black white Scottish writer Jackie Kay of mixed race permutations subvert established racial categories and racist assumptions Readings include Nella Larsen's Passing Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club Mourning Dove's Cogewea The Half Blood Toni Morrison's Paradise and Adib Kalim's Seasonal Adjustments Lacks an index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Utopianism in Postcolonial Literatures Bill Ashcroft, 2016-11-10 Postcolonial Studies is more often found looking back at the past but in this brand new book Bill Ashcroft looks to the future and the irrepressible demands of utopia The concept of utopia whether playful satire or a serious proposal for an ideal community is examined in relation to the postcolonial and the communities with which it engages Studying a very broad range of literature poetry and art with chapters focussing on specific regions Africa India Chicano Caribbean and Pacific this book is written in a clear and engaging prose which make it accessible to undergraduates as well as academics This important book speaks to the past and future of postcolonial scholarship Latinx Poetics Ruben Quesada, 2022-11-15 Latinx Poetics Essays on the Art of Poetry collects personal and academic writing from Latino Latin American Latinx and Luso poets about the nature of poetry and its practice At the heart of this anthology lies the intersection of history language and the human experience The collection explores the ways in which a people's history and language are vital to the development of a poet's imagination and insists that the meaning and value of poetry are necessary to understand the history and future of a people The Latinx community is not a monolith and accordingly the poets assembled here vary in style language and nationality The pieces selected expose the depth of existing verse and scholarship by poets and scholars including Brenda C rdenas Daniel Borzutzky Orlando Menes and over a dozen more The essays not only expand the poetic landscape but extend Latinx and Latin American linguistic and geographical boundaries Writers educators and students will find awareness purpose and inspiration in this one of a kind anthology Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almarza, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to en gender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds

Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones Lee Rozelle, 2016-11-08 A study of the natural world as imagined by contemporary writers specifically their portrayals of nature as monster In Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones Ecocriticism and the Liminal from Invisible Man to The Walking Dead Lee Rozelle chronicles the weirdest ugliest and most mixed up characters to appear on the literary scene since World War II creatures intimately linked to damaged habitats that rise from the muck not to destroy or rule the world but to save it The book asks what happens to these landscapes after the madness havoc and destruction What monsters and magic surface then Rozelle argues that zombiescapes and phantom zones depicted in the book become catalysts for environmental reanimation and sources of hope Liminality offers exciting and useful new ways to conceptualize places that have historically proven troublesome unwieldy or hard to define Zombiescapes can reduce the effects of pollution promote environmental justice lessen economic disparity and localize food production The grotesques that ooze and crawl from these passages challenge readers to consider new ways to re inhabit broken lands at a time when energy efficiency fracking climate change the Pacific trade agreement local food production and sustainability shape the intellectual landscape Rozelle focuses on literary works from 1950 to 2015 the zombiescapes and monsterscapes of post World War II literature that portray in troubling and often devastating ways the brownfields that have been divested of much of their biodiversity and ecological viability However he also highlights how these literary works suggest a new life and new potential for such environments With an unlikely focus on places of ruination and an application of interdisciplinary transnational approaches to a range of fields and texts Rozelle advances the notion that places of distortion might become a nexus where revelation and advocacy are possible again Zombiescapes and Phantom Zones has much to offer to various fields of scholarship including literary studies ecocriticism and environmental studies Research academic and undergraduate audiences will be captivated by Rozelle's lively prose and unique anthropological ecocritical and literary analyses

Twentieth-Century Suriname Rosemarijn Höfte, Peter Meel, 2022-07-04 Suriname is a fascinating yet also little known Caribbean country Fascinating because a unique variety of lifestyles and group identities has characterized this country from its early beginnings as a European plantation colony but even more so since the influx of contract laborers from British India and Java in the nineteenth century Little known because even when attention was focused on the country particularly following a military coup d'état in 1980 this awareness has contributed little to a better understanding of the country's complex developments In fact the media have not unveiled but rather covered the essentials of the evolving Suriname society Combining a broad thematic approach with a focus on long term developments in Suriname 20th Century Suriname consists of fourteen chapters that discuss the main trends with respect to major areas of research Topics such as Surinamese politics and economics as well as its social religious and cultural aspects are covered by the best contemporary specialists on Suriname in the United States the Netherlands and Suriname This volume provides an accessible introduction to Suriname for a general audience including graduate and undergraduate students and an authoritative state of the art review for Suriname specialists Interviews with Writers of the Post-colonial World Feroza F. Jussawalla, Reed Way Dasenbrock, 1992 Interviews with third world and Chicano authors speaking about their place in the literary canon Between Two Worlds Richard Hoggart, 2020-03-09 Throughout his life Richard Hoggart has been involved with four main areas broadcasting arts policy education and social work all of which he finds have characteristics in common This collection of essays represents less than a quarter of his essays published over the last two decades The subjects to which he turned again and again and which recur in public debate are still current and contemporary His views on culture and society on literature and censorship and on higher education are both unique and timely The volume is divided into six parts Part 1 Society and Culture Home and Away discusses the question Are museums political the use of the battered word culture in relation to UNESCO and the end of the public service idea Part 2 A Very English Voice looks at the rural English culture and country of D H Lawrence and examines the controversy and censorship involved with three of Lawrence s works The Rainbow Women in Love and Lady Chatterley s Lover Part 3 Politics and Literature reveals the author s penchant for timely debates on such subjects as The State versus Literature and Freedom to Publish Even Hateful Stuff and his thoughts on reviewers and reviewing Part 4 Levels of Education touches upon the subjects of politics in universities the use of public funds for various purposes presumed to be socially valuable academics in the marketplace and the need for government to foster critical and cultivated literacy Part 5 Figures from a Distant Past contains reminiscences on and portraits of Hoggart s close relationships and family Part 6 Summing Up and Signing Off is an interview with Nicolas Tredell in which Hoggart discusses his life s work and concerns Written in Hoggart s characteristically graceful but direct style these essays touch on issues of contemporary importance in his unique manner This volume will be of interest to scholars and general readers interested in culture studies communications and education Spaces and Places in Motion Nicole Schröder, 2006 Returning the Gift Rebecca Colesworthy, 2018 What is a gift What do gifts mean and do Drawing on Marcel Mauss s 1925 essay this volume studies novels autobiographical texts aesthetic treatises and political writings by Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Gertrude Stein and H D to explore the idea of the gift in Modernist literature
