Man of Two Worlds Frank Herbert, Brian Herbert, 2016-05-17 From a New York Times bestseller, a sci-fi novel of great charm and freshness with improbable situations, weird complications, vital characters. Kirkus Reviews: What if the entire universe happened to be the creation of alien minds? Dreens are extraordinary storytellers, and they can actually make the worlds they imagine come to life, and this is the origin of Earth and the entire known universe. Even though Dreens live far across the universe, the human race has the technology for interstellar travel and the military power to destroy the aliens' core planet. But Earth itself is only sustained by the continued existence of the Dreens. If the last Dreen dies, all of humanity will disappear. A science-fiction adventure showcasing the imagination that made Frank Herbert famous, and the wry wit and satire that brought Brian Herbert critical acclaim.

Between Two Worlds: The autos sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Amy Fuller, 2015-06-12 The seventeenth-century Mexican poet, playwright, and nun Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz is best known for her secular works, most notably her damning indictment of male double standards, Hombres necios (Stupid Men). However, her autos sacramentales, allegorical one-act plays on the Eucharist, have received little attention and have only been discussed individually and out of sequence. By examining them as a collection in their original order, their meaning and importance are revealed. The autos combine Christian and classical pagan imagery from the Old World with the conquest and conversion of the New World. As the plays progress, the mystery of Christ's greatest gift to mankind is deciphered and is mirrored in Spain's gift of the True Faith to the indigenous Mexicans. Sor Juana's own image is also situated within this baroque landscape, presented as a triumph of Spanish imperialism, an exotic muse between two worlds.
