A World of Light Floyd Skloot, 2005-01-01 From the winner of the 2004 PEN Center USA Literary Award for Creative Nonfiction In his award winning memoir In the Shadow of Memory Floyd Skloot told the hard story of coming to terms with a brain ravaging virus A World of Light written with the same insight passion and humor that distinguished the earlier volume moves Skloot s story from the reassembly of a self after neurological calamity to the reconstruction of a shattered life More than fifteen years after a viral attack compromised his memory and cognitive powers Skloot now must do the vital work of recreating a cohesive life for himself even as he confronts the late stages of his mother s advancing dementia With tenderness and candor he finds surprising connection with her where it had long been missing transforming the end of her life into a time of unexpected renewal At the same time Skloot and his wife are building a rich new life at the center of a small isolated forest on a hillside in rural Oregon where a dwindling water supply and the bitter assaults of the weather bring an elemental perspective to his attempts to make himself once more at home in the world By turns poignant funny and frightening A World of Light balances the urgency to capture fragmented fleeting memories with the necessity of living fully in the present
