

The background of the slide is a night photograph. In the upper right, a large, bright full moon hangs in a dark blue sky. Below the moon, a large American flag is draped over a hillside, its surface crumpled and folded in a way that suggests it has been caught in a breeze or is being handled. The flag's colors are muted by the night lighting, appearing in shades of blue, white, and red. In the foreground, the dark silhouettes of trees and bushes are visible against the lighter background of the flag and sky.

Beyond Brokeback The Impact Of A Film:

Beyond Brokeback Ultimate Brokeback Forum,2007 Selected from among the most compelling writing on The Ultimate Brokeback Forum the stories in this book convey the remarkable power of the film Brokeback Mountain to affect the lives of all sorts of people straight and gay old and young male and female on six continents Ranging from the amusing to the emotionally devastating the pieces collected here crystallize the deep frequently life changing reactions of its often unsuspecting viewers The Brokeback Book William R. Handley,2011-05-01 An American Western made by a Taiwanese director and filmed in Canada Brokeback Mountain was a global cultural phenomenon even before it became the highest grossing gay themed drama in film history Few films have inspired as much passion and debate or produced as many contradictory responses from online homage to late night parody In this wide ranging and incisive collection writers journalists scholars and ordinary viewers explore the film and Annie Proulx s original story as well as their ongoing cultural and political significance The contributors situate Brokeback Mountain in relation to gay civil rights the cinematic and literary Western the Chinese value of forbearance male melodrama and urban and rural working lives across generations and genders The Brokeback Book builds on earlier debates by novelist David Leavitt critic Daniel Mendelsohn producer James Schamus and film reviewer Kenneth Turan with new and noteworthy interpretations of the Brokeback phenomenon the film and its legacy Also appearing in print for the first time is Michael Silverblatt s interview with Annie Proulx about the story she wrote and the film it became Focus On: 100 Most Popular Canadian Films Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Romantic Drama Films Wikipedia contributors, The Geographical Imagination of Annie Proulx Alex Hunt,2010-11-23 This edited collection focuses on Annie Proulx s striking attention to geography place landscape and local environments Contributors consider Proulx s particular landscapes_particularly those of Wyoming New England Texas and Newfoundland_and the issues surrounding the significance of these regions and regionalism in contemporary culture and literature Gay Identity, New Storytelling and The Media C. Pullen,2015-12-11 This critical introduction to gay and lesbian identity within the media explores the concept of new storytelling The case studies look at film television and online media focussing on the narrative potential of individual storytellers who as producers writers and performers challenge identity concerns and offer new expressions of liberty Gay Identity, New Storytelling and The Media P. Demory,Christopher Pullen,2016-04-30 This critical introduction to gay and lesbian identity within the media explores the concept of new storytelling The case studies look at film television and online media focusing on the narrative potential of individual storytellers who as producers writers and performers challenge identity concerns and offer new expressions of liberty Queer Representation, Visibility, and Race in American Film and Television Melanie Kohnen,2015-11-06 This book traces the uneven history of queer media visibility through crucial turning points including the Hollywood Production Code era the AIDS crisis of the 1980s the so called explosion of gay visibility on television during the 1990s and the re imagination of queer representations on TV after the events of 9 11 Kohnen intervenes in previous academic and popular accounts that paint the increase in queer visibility over the past four decades as a largely progressive development She examines how and why a limited and limiting concept of queer visibility structured around white gay and lesbian characters in committed relationships has become the embodiment of progressive LGBT media representations She also investigates queer visibility across film TV and print media and highlights previously unexplored connections such as the lingering traces of classical Hollywood cinema s queer tropes in the X Men franchise Across all chapters narratives and arguments emerge that demonstrate how queer visibility shapes and reflects not only media representations but the real and imagined geographies histories and people of the American nation

On Brokeback Mountain Eric Patterson, 2008-01-17

On Brokeback Mountain Meditations About Masculinity Fear and Love in the Story and the Film provides a close detailed comparative discussion of the short story and the film in relation to ways of understanding masculinity and love between men in American culture It uses analytical ideas from gay and lesbian queer studies American studies social history film history and literary history but avoids specialized theoretical language in order to be accessible to the many people interested in the story and the film Original interdisciplinary and engaging On Brokeback Mountain is intended to be not only useful to academic specialists but also accessible and readable for any interested educated reader The two versions of Brokeback Mountain are significant for taking readers and audiences inside the perspectives of men who love men showing what physical and emotional passion and hostility toward that passion may be like for them The story and the film help in understanding the many men who love men and who don t fit stereotypes of gay men or participate in the gay queer worlds of urban academic communities especially men in rural areas and in working class contexts This book examines the presentation of friendship sex and love between men in Brokeback Mountain as well as the depiction of homophobia and its effects on men who love men and their families It relates the story and the film to the literary tradition of the homoerotic pastoral the literary movie tradition of the Western and the tradition of the tragic romantic love story

Intersecting Film, Music, and Queerness Jack Curtis Dubowsky, 2016-04-08

Intersecting Film Music and Queerness uses musicology and queer theory to uncover meaning and message in canonical American cinema This study considers how queer readings are reinforced or nuanced through analysis of musical score Taking a broad approach to queerness that questions heteronormative and homonormative patriarchal structures binary relationships gender assumptions and anxieties this book challenges existing interpretations of what is progressive and what is retrogressive in cinema Examined films include Bride of Frankenstein Louisiana Story Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer Blazing Saddles Edward Scissorhands Brokeback Mountain Boys Don t Cry Transamerica Thelma Louise Go Fish and The Living End with special attention given to films that subvert or complicate genre Music is analyzed with concern for composition intertextual references absolute musical structures song lyrics recording arrangement and performance issues This multidisciplinary work featuring groundbreaking
