humanity from its course of rapid self destruction The Painted Word Phil Cousineau,2012-09-11 To untangle the knot of interlocking meanings of these painted words logophile and mythologist Phil Cousineau begins each fascinating word entry with his own brief definition He then fills it in with a tint of etymology and a smattering of quotes that show how the word is used ending with a list of companion words The words themselves range from commonplace like biscuit a twice baked cake for Roman soldiers to loanwords including chaparral from the Basque shepherds who came to the American West words from myths such as hector metamorphosis words like silly which evolved holy to goofy in a mere thousand years and words well worthy of revival such as carrytale a wandering storyteller Whether old fangled or brand new all the words included in The Painted Word possess an ineffable quality that makes them luminous Penney's Beach R.J. of reconciliation and repair in the first place Drawing on a wide range of case studies from South Africa to Northern Ireland Bosnia Rwanda and Australia the authors argue for an alternative approach to post conflict thought In so doing they find inspiration in the vision of politics rendered by new pluralist new realist and especially agonistic political theory Featuring contributions from both up and coming and well established scholars this work is essential reading for all those with an interest in restorative justice conflict resolution and peace studies In the Light of Justice Walter R.
