Beyond The Walls New Perspectives On The Archaeology Of Historical Households:

Beyond the Walls Kevin R. Fogle, James A. Nyman, Mary C. Beaudry, 2019-03-01 This collection showcases the work of leading household archaeologists and scholars studying domestic production and consumption patterns across a spectrum of time periods areas and cultures in North America

Households in Context Caitlín Eilís Barrett, Jennifer Carrington, 2024-01-15 Households in Context shifts the focus from monumental temples tombs and elite material and visual culture to households and domestic life to provide a crucial new perspective on everyday dwelling practices and the interactions of families and individuals with larger social and cultural structures A focus on households reveals the power of the everyday the critical role of quotidian experiences objects and images in creating the worlds of the people who live with them The contributors to this book share contemporary research on houses and households in both Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt to reshape the ways we think about ancient people s lived experiences of family community and society Households in Context places the archaeology and history of Greco Roman Egypt in dialogue with research on dwelling daily practice and materiality to reveal how ancient households functioned as laboratories for social political economic and religious change Contributors Youssri Abdelwahed Richard Alston Anna Lucille Boozer Paola Davoli David Frankfurter Jennifer Gates Foster Melanie Godsey Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom Sabine R Huebner Gregory Marouard Miriam M ller Lisa Nevett B rang re Redon Bethany Simpson Ross I Thomas Dorothy J Thompson

Houses, Families, and Cohabitation Dag Lindström, Göran Tagesson, 2024-11-05 This book is an interdisciplinary study that draws on a combination of archaeological evidence building archaeological analysis archival sources to explore the dynamic relations between dwelling houses social organization of households and patterns of cohabitation during the eighteenth century The empirical focus of this book is on Swedish towns but it also addresses more general issues about urbanity and urban life space and social organization and materiality and individual agency Aggregated questions about urban life and urban space are combined with a micro historical method revealing aspects of daily life and urban change This study unveils a previously neglected history Swedish eighteenth century towns have commonly been identified as a territory characterized by its sleepy absence of change This study proves the opposite Houses were built larger with more diverse and complex inner structures Family structures changed households generally became smaller the share of households headed by a married couple declined and the number of single households increased Population density increased the number of families residing in the same house increased and rental accommodation became more prevalent This volume is essential reading for anyone interested in early modern housing urban change and interdisciplinary methods

Critical Public Archaeology Camille Westmont, 2022-09-13 Critical approaches to public archaeology have been in use since the 1980s however only recently have archaeologists begun using critical theory in conjunction with public archaeology to challenge dominant narratives of the past This volume brings together current work on the theory and practice of critical public archaeology from Europe and the United States to illustrate the ways that implementing critical approaches can introduce new understandings of the past and reveal new insights on the present Contributors to this volume explore public perceptions of museum interpretations as well as public archaeology projects related to changing perceptions of immigration the working classes and race Human Evolutionary Demography Oskar Burger, Ronald Lee, Rebecca Sear, 2024-06-14 Human evolutionary demography is an emerging field blending natural science with social science This edited volume provides a much needed interdisciplinary introduction to the field and highlights cutting edge research for interested readers and researchers in demography the evolutionary behavioural sciences biology and related disciplines By bridging the boundaries between social and biological sciences the volume stresses the importance of a unified understanding of both in order to grasp past and current demographic patterns Demographic traits and traits related to demographic outcomes including fertility and mortality rates marriage parental care menopause and cooperative behavior are subject to evolutionary processes Bringing an understanding of evolution into demography therefore incorporates valuable insights into this field just as knowledge of demography is key to understanding evolutionary processes By asking questions about old patterns from a new perspective the volume composed of contributions from established and early career academics demonstrates that a combination of social science research and evolutionary theory offers holistic understandings and approaches that benefit both fields Human Evolutionary Demography introduces an emerging field in an accessible style It is suitable for graduate courses in demography as well as upper level undergraduates Its range of research is sure to be of interest to academics working on demographic topics anthropologists sociologists demographers natural scientists working on evolutionary processes and disciplines which cross cut natural and social science such as evolutionary psychology human behavioral ecology cultural evolution and evolutionary medicine As an accessible introduction it should interest readers whether or not they are currently familiar with human evolutionary demography

Archaeology of Domestic Landscapes of the Enslaved in the Caribbean James A. Delle, Elizabeth C. Clay, 2022-08-02 While previous research on household archaeology in the colonial Caribbean has drawn heavily on artifact analysis this volume provides the first in depth examination of the architecture of slave housing during this period It examines the considerations that went into constructing and inhabiting living spaces for the enslaved and reveals the diversity of people and practices in these settings Contributors present case studies using written descriptions period illustrations and standing architecture in addition to archaeological evidence to illustrate the wide variety of built environments for enslaved populations in places including Jamaica the Bahamas and the islands of the Lesser Antilles They investigate how the enslaved defined their social positions and identities through house yard and garden space they explore what daily life was like for slaves on military compounds they compare the spatial arrangements of slave villages on plantations based on type of labor and they show how the style of traditional laborer houses became a form of vernacular architecture still in use today This volume expands our understanding of the wide range of enslaved experiences across British French Dutch and Danish colonies Contributors
