Beyond Tiananmen Robert L. Suettinger, 2004-05-13 It has been thirteen years since soldiers of the Chinese People's Liberation Army PLA raced into the center of Beijing ordered to recover at any cost the city's most important landmark Tiananmen Square from student demonstrators The U S and other Western countries recoiled in disgust after the horrific incident and the relationship between the U S and China went from amity and strategic cooperation to hostility distrust and misunderstanding Time has healed many of the wounds from those terrible days of June 1989 and bilateral strains have been eased in light of the countries joint opposition to international terrorism Yet China and U S remain locked in opposition as strategic thinkers and military planners on both sides plot future conflict scenarios with the other side as principal enemy Polls indicate that most Americans consider China an unfriendly country and anti American sentiment is growing in China According to Robert Suettinger the calamity in Tiananmen Square marked a critical turning point in U S China affairs In Beyond Tiananmen Suettinger traces the turbulent bilateral relationship since that time with a particular focus on the internal political factors that shaped it Through a series of candid anecdotes and observations Suettinger sheds light on the complex and confused decision making process that affected relations between the U S and China between 1989 and the end of the Clinton presidency in 2000 By illuminating the way domestic political ideas beliefs and prejudices affect foreign policymaking Suettinger reveals policy decisions as outcomes of complex processes rather than the results of grand strategic trends He also refutes the view that strategic confrontation between the superpowers is inevitable Suettinger sees considerable opportunity for cooperation and improvement in what is likely to be the single most important bilateral relationship of the twenty first century He cautions however

Inseparable Separation Jing Huang, Xiaoting Li, 2010 Despite the significance of the Taiwan issue to US China relations as well as regional stability in the Asia Pacific one could hardly find a comprehensive and thorough study of China's Taiwan policy This book aims to make up for the deficit by providing a systematic and in depth analysis of the evolution of China's Taiwan policy over the past six decades against the backdrop of a three player game involving Beijing Washington and Taipei The intention is to show that despite Beijing's uncompromising adherence to the One China principle China's leaders have maintained remarkable flexibility in interpreting and implementing it Moreover while domestic factors e g nationalistic sentiment political stability and economic development do affect Beijing's calculus China's Taiwan policy invariably accords with the ups and downs in its international environment especially the complexities of the US China relations

Sanctions with Chinese Characteristics Angela Poh, 2025-10-01 The view that China has become increasingly assertive under President Xi Jinping is now a common trope in academic and media discourse However until the end of Xi Jinping's first term in March 2018 China had been relatively restrained in its use of coercive economic measures This is puzzling given the conventional belief among scholars and practitioners that sanctions are a middle ground between diplomatic and military paramilitary action Using a wide range of methods and data including in depth interviews with 76 current and former politicians policy makers diplomats and commercial actors across 12 countries and 16 cities Sanctions with Chinese Characteristics Rhetoric and Restraint in China's Diplomacy examines the ways in which China had employed economic sanctions to further its political objectives and the factors explaining China's behaviour. This book provides a systematic investigation into the ways in which Chinese decisionmakers approached sanctions both at the United Nations Security Council and unilaterally and shows how China's longstanding sanctions rhetoric has had a constraining effect on its behaviour resulting in its inability to employ sanctions in complete alignment with its immediate interests.

Sino-American Relations Xiaobing Li, Qiang Fang, 2025-10-01. Sino American Relations brings together high quality research articles in order to examine one aspect of the political mechanism of modern China from empire to the PRC political initiatives to root out corruption. Proceeding chronologically the eleven chapters explore modern political history through a particular focus on the anti corruption campaigns of early modern and modern China. Our interdisciplinary analysis draws on methodologies from several distinct fields including political science, civil law and mass media. Such an analysis reveals the unique characteristics of China's urbanization which have transformed not only the country but also the CCP from a rural based totalitarian party to a city centered authoritarian party and from a party of the people to a party of powerful interest groups by 2002-2016.

The Chinese Army Today Dennis J. Blasko, 2013-06-17. The Chinese Army Today is a comprehensive study of the Chinese military examining its ground forces in a level of detail not found in any other contemporary works. This new revised edition has been fully updated to take account of recent changes in the institution. In 1999 the military modernization program of the Chinese People's Liberation Army increased in intensity and achieved a focus not seen in the previous two decades. Based primarily on actual Chinese sources this book details these changes and puts them in the context of the many traditions that still remain. Written by a retired professional military officer who has served in China the text uses first hand observation of the Chinese military and three decades of military experience to weave many disparate threads from official Chinese statements, documents and media reports into an integrated whole. The author also conducts an in depth exploration into the many forces that constitute the People's Liberation Army. This is an essential book for all students of Chinese military and security affairs and highly recommended for students of Chinese Politics, Asian Security and International Relations and Strategic Studies in general.
