Troubling Tricksters Deanna Reder, Linda M. Morra, 2010-02-10 Troubling Tricksters is a collection of theoretical essays creative pieces and critical ruminations that provides a re visioning of trickster criticism in light of recent backlash against it The complaints of some Indigenous writers the critique from Indigenous nationalist critics and the changing of academic fashion have resulted in few new studies on the trickster For example The Cambridge Companion to Native American Literature 2005 includes only a brief mention of the trickster with skeptical commentary And in 2007 Anishinaabe scholar Niigonwedom Sinclair a contributor to this volume called for a moratorium on studies of the trickster irrelevant to the specific experiences and interests of Indigenous nations One of the objectives of this anthology is then to encourage scholarship that is mindful of the critic s responsibility to communities and to focus discussions on incarnations of tricksters in their particular national contexts The contribution of Troubling Tricksters therefore is twofold to offer a timely counterbalance to this growing critical lacuna and to propose new approaches to trickster studies approaches that have been clearly influenced by the nationalists call for cultural and historical specificity

History of Literature in Canada

Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Laflèche Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

The Dreamcatcher in the Wry Tiffany Midge, 2024-12

The Dreamcatcher in the Wry Tiffany Midge s biting hilariously collection of essays written during the COVID 19 pandemic builds on the critical acclaim of her earlier book Bury My Heart at Chuck E Cheese s A Standing Rock Sioux citizen Midge offers up her unique satire about the foibles of politics consumerism world affairs pandemic anxieties and other subjects from the pandemic years of 2020 through 2023 The Dreamcatcher in the Wry brims with insight considering pig heart transplants wedding crashing grizzly bears truffle snuffling dogs bison petting tourists and a plethora of other animal and wildlife hijinks not to mention wienermobiles the controversial Mount Rushmore meeting Iron Eyes Cody in a parade Elizabeth Warren's quaint family lore and Buffy Sainte Marie Midge brilliantly unpacks her observations and day to day concerns through the lens of an urban raised Lakota living in the West a writer of poetry op eds church bulletins fridge magnets and Twitter posts who is allergic to horses and most outdoor recreation except for berry picking and the occasional romp through a dewy meadow Turning over the colonizer's society and culture for some good old Native American roasting Midge informs as she entertains gleaned wisdom from the incongruities of daily life with a much needed dose of Indigenous common sense

Across Cultures / Across Borders Paul Depasquale, Renate Eigenbrod, Emma Larocque, 2009-12-23 Across Cultures Across Borders is a collection of new critical essays interviews and other writings by twenty five established and emerging Canadian Aboriginal and Native American scholars and creative writers across Turtle Island Together these original works illustrate diverse but interconnecting knowledges and offer powerfully relevant observations on Native literature and culture

Storied Communities Hester Lessard, Rebecca Johnson, Jeremy Webber, 2011-01-01 Political communities are defined and often contested through stories Scholars have long recognized that two foundational sets of stories narratives of contact and narratives of arrival helped to define settler societies We are only beginning to understand how ongoing issues of migration and settlement are linked to issues of indigenous settler contact Storied Communities disrupts the assumption in many works that indigenous and immigrant identities fall into two separate streams of analysis The authors do not attempt to build a new master narrative they instead juxtapose narratives of contact and arrival as they explore key themes narrative and narrative form the nature and hazards of storytelling in the political realm and the institutional and theoretical implications of foundation narratives and storytelling By bringing to light the links between narratives of contact and narratives of arrival this volume opens up new ways to imagine sustain and transform political communities

Becoming a Matriarch Helen Knott, 2024-08-20 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The bestselling follow up to the award winning bestselling debut In My Own Moccasins When matriarchs begin to disappear there is a choice to either step into the places they left behind or to craft a new space Helen Knott's debut memoir In My Own Moccasins wowed reviewers award juries and readers alike with its profoundly honest and moving account of addiction intergenerational trauma resilience and survival Now in her highly anticipated second book Knott returns with a chronicle of grief love and legacy Having lost both her mom and grandmother in just over six months forced to navigate the fine lines between matriarchy martyrdom and codependency Knott realizes she must let go not just of the women who raised her but of the woman she thought she was Woven into the pages are themes of mourning sobriety through loss and generational dreaming Becoming a Matriarch is charted with poetic insights sass humour and heart taking the reader over the rivers and mountains of Dane Zaa territory in Northeastern British Columbia along the cobbled streets of Antigua Guatemala and straight to the heart of what matriarchy truly means This is a journey through pain on the way to becoming Canadian Literary Periodicals Index, 1998 Muting White Noise James H.

Cox, 2012-11-19 Native American fiction writers have confronted Euro American narratives about Indians and the colonial world those narratives help create These Native authors offer stories in which Indians remake this colonial world by resisting conquest and assimilation sustaining their cultures and communities and surviving In Muting White Noise James H Cox considers how Native authors have liberated our imaginations from colonial narratives Cox takes his title from Sherman Alexie for whom the white noise of a television set represents the white mass produced culture that mutes American Indian voices Cox foregrounds the work of Native intellectuals in his readings of the American Indian novel tradition He thereby develops a critical perspective from which to re see the role played by the Euro American novel tradition in justifying and enabling colonialism By examining novels by Native authors especially Thomas King Gerald Vizenor and Alexie Cox shows how these writers challenge and revise colonizers tales about Indians He then offers red readings of some revered Euro American novels including Herman Melville's Moby Dick and shows that until quite recently even those non Native storytellers who sympathized with Indians could imagine only their vanishing by story's end Muting White Noise breaks new ground in literary criticism It stands with Native authors in their struggle to reclaim their own narrative space and tell stories that empower and nurture rather than undermine and erase American Indians and their communities Jaxwell and the Little People Julian E Martin, 2023-11-24 Harry Potter meets The Neverending Story This was an epic story Richard Van Camp Author of The Lesser Blessed Jaxwell and The Little People is a story about humility making decisions based on influence and morals The story begins with Jaxwell and his mother getting into a colossal fight which ends with Jaxwell running away While he is running he becomes lost in the woods and meets a peculiar wolf However this is not an ordinary bloodlust wolf but a speaking well mannered ancient spiritual wolf From there Jaxwell is thrown into a magical world of fate giant spirit animals unearthly creatures wacky creatures and Native American folklore Little People Join Jaxwell on his daring adventure in Arcadia where he must learn the truth about the world around him make new friends to help him get home while also making enemies He must also learn how to save Arcadia and an ancient stone called the Erza Stone which will help the Little People get to their new home in the stars All the while he learns valuable lessons about tradition and values to ensure his safe return home The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada Linda M. Morra, 2023-01-31 The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada charts the evolution of gender and sexuality as they have been represented and performed in the literatures of Canada for more than three centuries From early colonial texts by Frances Brooke to settler texts by Susanna Moodie and Catherine Parr Trail to more contemporary texts by Jane Rule Alice Munro Joshua Whitehead Ivan Coyote and others this volume will introduce readers to how gender and sexuality have been variably conceived in Canada and the work they perform across multiple genres Calling upon recent currents of gender theory and examining the composition structure and history of selected literary texts that is the literary sediments that have accumulated over centuries readers of this book will explore how those representations shift over time By examining literature in Canada in relation to crucial cultural political and historical contexts readers will better apprehend why that literature has significantly transformed and broadened to address racialized and fluid identities that continue to challenge and disrupt any stable notion of gendered and sexualized identity today Nobody's Father Marlene A. D. Lynne Van Luven, Bruce Gillespie, 2008 In a sequel to the celebrated collection of stories Nobody's Mother comes an honest and poignant collection of essays from men who have forgone fatherhood Statistics Canada data show that seven per cent of women and eight per cent of men intend to remain childless Nobody's Father gives readers fresh honest insights into that male eight per cent Ranging in age from young manhood to late middle age some gay and some straight and making their homes across North America the contributors explore the issues of what it means to live a life without children While some writers admit they are haunted by feelings of failure to live up to their own fathers expectations and to carry on the family name others admit to knowing from an early age that parenthood was not for them and are content with the alternative lives they lead A Precarious Enterprise Scott McIntyre, 2025-09-09 A Precarious Enterprise has all of the DNA necessary for future historians to fully understand the joyous and unexpected rodeo that was CanLit 1.0 It was a cherished window in time and Scott tells of it with love and the ultimate insider's POV Douglas Coupland author and artist Ever wondered how a publishing house works Scott McIntyre tells all in this behind the scenes look at Canadian publishing Scott McIntyre has lived the story of Canadian book publishing Beginning his career at McClelland Stewart in 1967 he went on to cofound his own publishing house Douglas McIntyre in 1970 and made his mark on the industry amid the country's exhilarating literary coming of age Becoming one of Canada's largest and most respected publishing houses and among the first to embrace Indigenous issues Douglas McIntyre and its associated children's publisher Groundwood Books published some 900 authors and 2 000 books in less than 50 years For McIntyre the authors always came first and he worked closely with many important figures including Doris Shadbolt Wayson Choy Richard Wagamese Anna Porter Will Ferguson Douglas Coupland Hugh Brody Robert Bringhurst Wade Davis and Farley Mowat Telling stories featuring a colorful array of characters who rebuilt the publishing world following WWII and anecdotes about how book publishing works McIntyre touches upon the guiding philosophy and historic traditions still animating the industry today More than the story of one publisher and his company this is a first person account of the buoyant period when writers their books and the companies who published them changed the nation
