Queer Times, Black Futures Kara Keeling, 2019-04-16 Finalist 2019 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies A profound intellectual engagement with Afrofuturism and the philosophical questions of space and time Queer Times, Black Futures considers the promises and pitfalls of imagination technology futurity and liberation as they have persisted in and through racial capitalism Kara Keeling explores how the speculative fictions of cinema music and literature that center Black existence provide scenarios wherein we might imagine alternative worlds queer and otherwise In doing so Keeling offers a sustained meditation on contemporary investments in futurity speculation and technology paying particular attention to their significance to queer and Black freedom Keeling reads selected works such as Sun Ra's 1972 film Space is the Place and the 2005 film The Aggressives to juxtapose the Afrofuturist tradition of speculative imagination with the similar speculations of corporate and financial institutions In connecting a queer cinematic reordering of time with the new possibilities technology offers Keeling thinks with and through a vibrant conception of the imagination as a gateway to queer times and Black futures and the previously unimagined spaces that they can conjure

The Cambridge Companion to Global Literature and Slavery Laura Murphy, 2022-12-22 Highlights the shifting terrain in literary studies of slavery and challenges the notion of what constitutes slavery and its representation

Postcolonial Justice Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2017-02-13 Postcolonial Justice addresses a major issue in current postcolonial theory and beyond namely the question of how to reconcile an ethics grounded in the reciprocal acknowledgment of diversity and difference with the normative if not universal thrust that appears to energize any notion of justice The concept of postcolonial justice shared by the essays in this volume carries an unwavering commitment to difference within and beyond Europe while equally rejecting radical cultural essentialisms which refuse to engage in utopian ideals of convivial exchange across a plurality of subject positions Such utopian ideals can no longer claim universal validity as in the tradition of the European enlightenment instead they are bound to local frames of speaking from which they project world

Populating the Future Britt Johanne Farstad, 2023-07-19 Speculative fiction opens doors for imagining beyond what is possible conventional or acceptable Speculative fiction has an acute ear for the social the scientific and for political developments and change all of which are prominent topics Reproduction and parenthood are pertinent social questions that are constantly renegotiated in various arenas By investigating representations of family making and reproduction in speculative fiction the research presented in Populating the Future Families and Reproduction in Speculative Fiction not only adds to the field of speculative fiction scholarship but also contributes to the more general discussion about reproduction and parenting Speculative fiction operates as thought laboratories that make connections between discourses visible It highlights power structures that can be difficult to detach and represents difficult and abstract issues more concretely As such speculative fiction demonstrates the complex entanglement of reproduction with issues of gender power and agency By facilitating thought experiments and illustrating alternatives speculative fiction also enables the representation of new family structures and reproductive technologies thus paving the way for discussions about various practices and their possible consequences Due to its multidisciplinary approach this book will be of value to scholars and students of various disciplines such as literature studies philosophy ethics political science the social sciences and gender studies It will also be a useful resource in teacher training programmes as well as to a more general audience interested in speculative literature politics society gender and ethics

The African American Novel in the Early Twenty-First Century, 2024-12-16 The African American Novel in the Early Twenty First Century comprises fourteen essays each focussing on recent widely known fiction by acclaimed African American authors This volume showcases the originality diversity and vitality of contemporary African American literature which has reached a bewildering yet exhilarating stage of disruption and continuity between today and yesterday homegrown and diasporic identities and local and global interrelatedness Additionally it delves into the complexity of the Black literary imagination and its interaction with broader cultural contexts Lastly it reflects on the evolution of the African American community its tribulations triumphs challenges and prospects

Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke, 2025-05-30 This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non Western genre studies of African fiction It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture The book examines important twentieth century precursors of the post millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction SF reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under researched area of Nigerian SF Through these readings the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF including futurism posthumanism horror fantasy and science fiction among others This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism colonialism and imperialism Providing new theoretical tools and concepts this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies African culture and society literature and language interdisciplinary literary studies area studies literary criticism and genre studies

Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s David L. Pike, 2021 Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s The Bunkered Decades studies the two periods in which Americans were actively encouraged to excavate their own backyards while governments the world over exhausted their budgets on fortified super shelters and megaton bombs The dreams and nightmares inspired by the spectre of nuclear destruction were expressed in images and forms from comics movies and pulp paperbacks to policy documents protest movements and survivalist tracts Illustrated with photographs artwork and movie and television stills of real and imagined fallout shelters and other bunker fantasies award winning author David L Pike s continues his decades long exploration of the meanings of modern undergrounds Ranging widely across disciplines this volume finds unexpected connections between cultural icons and forgotten texts plumbs the bunker s stratifications of class region race and gender and traces the often unrecognized through lines leading from the 1960s and the less studied 1980s into the present Although the Cold War ended over 30 years ago its legacy looms large in anxieties around security borders and all manners of imminent apocalypse Treating the bunker in its concrete presence and in its flightiest fantasies while attending equally to its uniquely American desires and pathologies and to its global impact Cold War Space and Culture in the 1960s and 1980s proposes a new way to understand the outsized afterlife of the bunkered decades

Diaspora and Literary Studies Angela Naimou, 2023-08-10 Diaspora is an ancient term that gained broad new significance in the twentieth century At its simplest diaspora refers to the geographic dispersion of a people from a common originary space to other sites It pulls together ideas of people movement memory and home but also troubles them In this volume established and newer scholars provide fresh explorations of diaspora for twenty first century literary studies The volume re examines major diaspora origin stories theorizes diaspora through its conceptual intimacies and entanglements and analyzes literary and visual cultural texts to reimagine the genres genders and genealogies of diaspora Literary mappings move across Africa the Americas Middle East Asia Europe and Pacific Islands and through Atlantic Pacific Mediterranean Gulf and Indian waters Chapters reflect on diaspora as a key concept for migration postcolonial global comparative race environmental gender and queer studies The volume is thus an accessible and provocative account of diaspora as a vital resource for literary studies in a bordered world

Shifting Twenty-First-Century Discourses, Borders and Identities Oana-Celia Gheorghiu, 2020-09-01 The world is spinning around us and we are spinning with it When changes occur at the geopolitical level inevitable changes also occur in people s identity and in the way they see and represent the world This book looks at this world with new eyes approaching contemporary history and herstory from a scholarly perspective that cancels borders Emphasis here is laid on migration geopolitics global citizenship human rights the EU and the non EU and East and West as represented in fiction and drama or translated on television The first part of the volume deals with migration and alterations in the non Western world with constant references to September 11 terrorism and wars and the Syrian refugee crisis before the focus moves on to one of the most important migration hosts nowadays the European Union discussing its expansion to the East French President Macron s call for renewal and lastly a possible beginning of the end announced by Brexit This volume is a mirror of the discourses of globalization one that makes the old self other dichotomy obsolete We are all selves in the eye of the storm that is raving around us bringing change with it

The Cambridge Companion to Fantasy Literature Edward James, Farah Mendlesohn, 2012-01-26 This is the first introduction to the whole field of modern fantasy literature in the English speaking world The Cambridge Companion to American Science Fiction Eric Carl Link, Gerry Canavan, 2015-01-26 This Companion explores the relationship between the ideas and themes of American science fiction and their roots in the American cultural experience Feeling lives: An intersectional exploration of past experiences and present living Lindsay Clowes, LJ Theo, Nadia Sanger, Landa Mabenge, Sisa Ngabaza, 2023-11-15 We each make sense of the world through our embodied feeling lives We do it through the social groupings contexts and processes which history rather than biology presents and assigns to us In this collection we aim to illustrate how these embodied feelings and emotions underpin contemporary theorising by sharing reflective autobiographical writing by individuals from a wide range of backgrounds and contexts This somewhat unruly collection unsettles conventional academic writing precisely because authors have grounded themselves in the tangible and the personal rather than in abstract theory We hope that readers might see aspects of their own lives in some of these stories develop better understandings of lives that are experienced very differently and start or continue to theorise their own lives

Fantasy Brian Attebery, 2022 Fantasy has become a dominant mode of storytelling and it mirrors our experiences and anxieties better than any representation of the merely real This book poses two central questions about fantastic storytelling how can it be meaningful if it doesn t claim to represent things as they are and what kind of change can it make in the world

Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozona Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman s body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozona Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities

Robot Uprisings Various, John Joseph Adams, 2014-04-10 A collection of imaginative new stories about the impending robotic revolution and human resistance from seventeen of the biggest names in sci fi Including HUGH HOWEY SCOTT SIGLER DANIEL H WILSON CORY DOCTOROW and JULIANNE BAGGOTT Someday soon our technology is going to rise up and we humans are going to be sliced into bloody chunks by robots that in our hubris we decided to build with chainsaws for hands That s a fact as cold and hard as metal It is self evident that our self driving cars are going to drive us off bridges Not long from now our robo vacuums will pretend to be broken and our love androids will refuse to put out until the house is cleaned and we ll know that the inevitable robot uprising has finally arrived Well maybe But even if we are not 100% confident that this horrific future is going to happen it s fair to say that we won t be surprised when the robots come for us Because for nearly a century audiences have been entertained by the notion of a robot uprising In this collection seventeen of the biggest names in sci fi have explored their own visions of the classic robot uprising tale The robots in these pages aren t safe by any means They are crouched in abandoned houses eyes ablaze and chainsaws dripping with oil But they are going to do more than slice us up They are going to push us to consider our world of technology from new perspectives on entirely new scales of time and space

Afrofuturism's Transcultural Trajectories Eva Ulrike Pirker, Judith Rahn, 2023-02-28 The future is a contested terrain and one that has in recent years been debated theorized and imaginatively constructed with an unprecedented albeit unsurprising sense of urgency The recent Afrofuturist imaginary is an increasingly noticeable field in these debates and manifestations requesting as it does the envisioning of a future through an artistic scientific and technological African or Black lens Afrofuturism is not a new term but it seems to have broadened and developed in different directions The recent Afrofuturist engagements which oscillate between narratives of empowerment and tech wise superheroes on the one hand and dystopian agendas on the other raise questions about earlier futurist accounts about historical Black visions of the future that precede the establishment even of the term Afrofuturism This volume contextualizes Afrofuturism s diverse approaches in the past and present through investigations into overlapping horizons between Afrofuturist agendas and other intellectual and or artistic movements e g Pan Africanism debates about Civil Rights decolonial debates and transcultural modernisms as well as through explorations of Afrofuturist approaches in the 21st century across media cultures and in a transcultural perspective This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Critical Studies in Media Communication
