

The background of the cover is a photograph of a misty landscape. In the foreground, a row of trees with dense green foliage stands on a grassy bank. The trees are slightly out of focus, creating a sense of depth. In the background, more trees are visible through the mist. A bright light source, likely the sun, is positioned on the left side of the image, creating a strong glow and illuminating the scene. The sky is a pale, hazy blue.

Circle Heather Newton,2022-01-17 The twelve linked stories in McMullen Circle explore the intertwined lives of faculty families at the McMullen Boarding School in Tonola Falls Georgia in 1969-70. The school community is isolated and idyllic yet issues of race and the Vietnam War still intrude. Does heroism require physical prowess or is there valor in a cafeteria worker enduring a cluttered, needy life with her four young sons or an elderly librarian caring for her disabled lesbian partner? What does it take for a young African American girl to find the courage to assert her right to attend the all-white private school? The stories in this collection ask what and who are the real heroes.
