supplementation during preconception indicators focused on pregnant women including calcium supplementation deworming and counseling during pregnancy indicators aimed at the postnatal period including breastfeeding support optimal feeding of low birth weight infants IFA supplementation and food supplementation indicators targeting early childhood including counseling on breastfeeding counseling on complementary feeding iron containing micronutrient powder MNP growth monitoring counseling on nutritional status identification of severe or moderate underweight and inpatient management of severe acute malnutrition SAM Administrative data systems did not contain data on counseling on exclusive breastfeeding during pregnancy assessment of birth weight breastfeeding support optimal feeding of low birth weight infants and counseling of mothers on Kangaroo Mother Care KMC during pregnancy Population based surveys contained data on most indicators related to immediate and underlying determinants of undernutrition In terms of outcomes related to children under five administrative data systems and population based surveys contained data on low birthweight stunting wasting underweight and overweight for adolescents 11 to 19 years and non pregnant women they contained data only on underweight Data was available on overweight hypertension and diabetes among adults in population based surveys Population based survey did not collect data on anemia among women and children In conclusion Bangladesh s policy landscape for nutrition is robust however the gaps in data availability for tracking progress on nutrition are much greater than the gaps in the policies and programs that are designed to address the recommended actions Future population based surveys and future modifications of other data systems should aim to fill the identified data gaps for nutrition actions and few indicators under nutrition outcomes

Cervical Screening Awareness Week 2023: Integrating Cervical Cancer Screening and Precancer Treatments Leeya Pinder, Manoj Menon, Noleb Mugisha, 2025-06-09 June 19 to 24 is the Cervical Screening Awareness Week and at Frontiers in Oncology we want to highlight the recent discoveries in the field and raise awareness of the importance of early diagnosis multidisciplinary management and technological innovation support Despite effective methods to both prevent and screen for cervical cancer invasive cervical cancer ICC remains a leading cause of morbidity and mortality globally Indeed ICC is the most common cause of cancer related death in many low and middle income countries LMIC including much of sub Saharan Africa Although the screening modalities vary among resource abundant and resource limited regions the benefits of resource relevant screening are clear Notwithstanding there are multiple individual and societal barriers to implementing cervical cancer screening including limited health education and literacy fatalism fear scarcity of services and cost These barriers have constrained widespread utilization even when such services are available As such patients often present with advanced disease at initial presentation and suffer poor health outcomes Given the multiple barriers to cervical cancer screening alternate methods utilizing the existing healthcare infrastructure need to be explored Clinical services in LMICs are often funded and provided in a vertical fashion with the appropriate integration of relevant infrastructure Because many health systems do not have a primary care model of service delivery there has been increased recognition of the need to leverage and incorporate non communicable disease NCDs care including cancer care within the existing routine services The benefit of such integration has been demonstrated for certain NCDs including hypertension and diabetes However despite the clinical burden such an integrated approach has not been fully evaluated for the early detection of cervical cancer and precancer care treatment In a systematic review and meta analysis of cervical cancer screening in SSA researchers found that among the 29 studies conducted between 2000 and 2019 cervical cancer screening was performed in just under 13% of over 35 000 women included Locally relevant research on strategies to optimize the early detection of cervical cancer and precancer treatment are clearly necessary For cervical cancer screening the WHO recommends a screen and treat approach using any of the available methods visual inspection with acetic acid VIA cytology and human papillomavirus HPV testing Precancer treatment options include cryotherapy thermal ablation and large loop excision of the transformation zone LLETZ The selection of screening and treatment modalities are largely driven by resource availability We welcome Case Reports Clinical Trials Community Case Studies General Commentary Methods Mini Reviews Opinions Original Research Perspective Review and Systematic Reviews that describe research integrating cervical cancer screening and precancer treatment programs within other health programs e g HIV care and treatment programs family planning services Please note that manuscripts consisting solely of bioinformatics computational analysis or predictions of public databases which are not accompanied by validation independent cohort or biological validation in vitro or in vivo will not be accepted in any of the sections of Frontiers in Oncology

Victimology Rejani Thudalikunnil Gopalan, 2022-10-27 The term victim refers to a person harmed injured or killed as a result of a crime accident or other event or action Victimology focuses on the victimization in terms of psychological effects impact on criminal justice system and new policies and it is a major aspect in the area of forensic field. Victimization can occur due to abuse, assault, maltreatment, war, terrorism, crimes, and it can happen in different settings like home, school, and public. In the past, more emphasis was given to perpetrators, and various theories tried to explain the behavior of perpetrator and their offences. Recently, researchers started focusing on different aspects of victimology and explored risk factors for becoming a victim, reasons for repeated victimization, and forensic psychological and social dimensions of victims and consequences of victimization. But there is a need for new theories and researches to have a more thorough understanding of victimization. The field of criminology, which dealt with crimes and various theories, has developed to explain why crime occurs and is more focused on perpetrators. A crime involves a perpetrator and a victim, and not much attention has been given to the victim until recently. What happens to a victim, what are the psychological and social consequences of a harmful act to a victim, vulnerabilities to become a victim, are getting serious attention now, and it is starting to influence the criminal justice system. The psychological and social impacts of victimization may be of a short or long duration, but the impacts cannot be ignored. The legal remedies and psychological healings are important aspects of victimization. While considering these factors, the book would be focusing on the origin and scope of victimology, different types of victimization, such as sexual abuse, domestic violence, maltreatment, cyber crimes, war, and terrorism, natural calamities, victimization at school and work place, human trafficking, crime against persons, crime against property, white collar crime, elder abuse, victim with disabilities, secondary victim, and re-victimization, and its psychological impacts and related issues. The book would also focus on victimology and forensic factors and its influence on the criminal justice system, in addition to the psychological management of victimization.

2015 National Counselor Appreciation Week : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed.

2015 National Counselor Appreciation Week : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

2015 National Counselor Appreciation Week : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
