Addis Neger Amharic Online:

Online Journalism in Africa Hayes Mawindi Mabweazara, Okoth Fred Mudhai, Jason Whittaker, 2014-01-21 Very little is known about how African journalists are forging new ways to practise their profession on the web Against this backdrop this volume provides contextually rooted discussions of trends practices and emerging cultures of web based journalism s across the continent offering a comprehensive research tool that can both stand the test of time as well as offer researchers particularly those in the economically developed Global North models for cross cultural comparative research The essays here deploy either a wide range of evidence or adopt a case study approach to engage with contemporary developments in African online journalism This book thus makes up for the gap in cross cultural studies that seek to understand online journalism in all its complexities

Ethiopia in Transit Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye, 2013-10-18 The writings in this edition explore historical and contemporary issues in Ethiopia as the country underwent change and celebrated its new millennium However despite the recognizance of socio economic and political changes Ethiopia still faces enduring problems and challenges to its stability and continuity The political past haunts the country while it is facing the future with optimism and hope The contributors in this edition examine historical and contemporaneous issues with different lenses they investigate the multiplicity and complexity of the contradictions that define traditional and modern Ethiopia The contributions highlight the significance of the instability dislocation conflict and transformation inherent in any society None of these writings however celebrate the forces that create the conflict they are cautious not to glorify the present and romanticize the past On the contrary they seek to contextualize the challenges which the country faces with a view to open a dialogue not exclusively among Ethiopians but with scholars and social activists in the rest of Africa as well as the international community The contributions cover and examine such important topics as historiography political power and legitimacy ideology and radical views knowledge transmission and modernity emigration and the Ethiopian Diaspora ethnic and linguistic identity patriarchy and feminist discourses in a traditional society public policies and economic development traditional and modern art and culture and neo liberalism and globalization This book was published as a special issue of African Identities
