Homeschooling High School Shirley Erwee, 2014-08-28 Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers They need information and answers to their questions And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system Homeschooling High School also challenges readers to rethink their values particularly the value they place on certification and to consider some unconventional or alternative paths to success In a clearly presented format the book includes advice on legal matters identifying appropriate courses sourcing study material tips on entrepreneurship financing tertiary studies and the testimonies of successful homeschooled graduates Homeschooling High School is a comprehensive guide to plotting a path through high school and beyond

Music and Identity Eric Ayisi Akrofi, Maria Smit, Stig-Magnus Thorsén, 2006-06-01 Due to significant political and social changes over the last decade in their countries and worldwide many scholars in the Nordic nations and in Southern Africa have been researching on music and identity an area with a paucity of literature It is our hope that this book will be beneficial to scholars interested in the field of music and identity This volume is the result of the Swedish South African Research Network SSARN project funded from 2004 2006 by the Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency SIDA and the National Research Foundation NRF of South Africa under the theme Music and Identity SSARN was founded by Stig Magnus Thorsén of the University of Gothenburg Sweden in 2002 when he invited Nordic and Southern African scholars to participate in a research group focusing broadly on the topic Music and Identity Publisher's website

Doctors in a Divided Society Mignon Breier, Angelique Wildschut, 2006 Many of the goals of South Africa's new democracy depend on the production of professionals who have not only the knowledge and skills to make our country globally competitive but also a commitment to working and living here Despite numerous reforms the South African health system ten years into democracy remains divided first world private care that ranks with middle income countries internationally at the one end and at the other extreme in the rural public sector in particular conditions that are superior only to the poorest of African countries Much work has been done to change medical school curricula in line with the primary health care focus of government policy and international trends towards problem based learning The student profile in medical schools is now not only more representative of the demographics of South Africa but also reveals a significant increase in female students Whether these students will stay in the country after graduating and serve where they are needed most remains to be seen

Perry Killam, 2010-03-30 Electronic medical records EMRs benefit health systems especially in low income developing countries EMR systems can give medical personnel access to patients records and can reduce time needed for data management and record keeping The report discusses the design implementation and results of an installed electronic perinatal patient referral system supporting health personnel who referred patients through a closed network Web based system in the Lusaka health district in Zambia It demonstrates how the patient referral module laid the groundwork for a larger EMR system Study SA, 2006 Reconfiguring the Firewall Carol J. Burger, Elizabeth G. Creamer, Peggy S. Meszaros, 2007-04-19 This comprehensive volume addresses the global challenge of recruiting girls and women into majors and careers in information technology The studies are both illuminating and prescriptive for designing and implementing intervention programs An essential tool for college faculty and advisors who implement activities and programs designed to promote International Handbook of Universities, 2010 Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini, 2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa's key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector
