Are You My Mother? Written and Illustrated by P.D. Eastman Philip Dey EASTMAN,1962 EBOOK: Working with the Under Threes: Responding to Children's Needs Lesley Abbott,Helen Moylett,1997-12-16 Working with the Under threes Responding to Children's Needs focuses upon ways in which researchers, parents, and practitioners seek to meet the diverse needs of young children in specific ways. Important questions are raised with regard to children's rights and entitlement and ways in which early interactions with people, environment, culture, curriculum, and context help to shape the educational lives of children under 3. Working with the under threes places a special responsibility on adults to both recognise and respond appropriately to their rapidly changing needs. A range of contributors share their experience and expertise in chapters which focus on adults working with children in a range of contexts. Early interactions take place in a variety of ways, and contributors to the book explore opportunities which allow adults to respond to children's needs, particularly with reference to the development of the child's self-concept. Different perspectives on developing children's language and literacy skills are offered together with a focus on communication through creative and aesthetic experiences. Contributions by parents, practitioners, and trainers offer perspectives which will challenge and provoke readers to reflect on their own experiences and practice. The book is intended for all those training or working with the under threes, including parents and other carers. The companion Early Interactions volume, also edited by Lesley Abbott and Helen Moylett, is entitled Working with the Under 3s: Training and Professional Development.

The Marion Milner Method Emilia Halton-Hernandez,2023-04-03 This book traces the development of British psychoanalyst Marion Milner's 1900-98 autobiographical acts throughout her lifetime, proposing that Milner is a thinker to whom we can turn to explore the therapeutic potentialities of autobiographical and creative self-expression. Milner's experimentation with aesthetic self-expressive techniques are a means to therapeutic ends, forming what Emilia Halton-Hernandez calls her autobiographical cure. This book considers whether Milner's work champions this site for therapeutic work over that of the relationship between patient and analyst in the psychoanalytic setting. This book brings to light a theory and practice which is latent and sometimes hidden but which is central to understanding what drives Milner's autobiographical work. It is by doing this work of elucidation and organisation that Halton-Hernandez finds Milner to be a thinker with a unique take on psychoanalysis.

object relations theory creativity and autobiography working at the interstices of each Divided into two fascinating sections exploring Milner's distinctive method and the legacy and influence of her work this book will appeal to psychoanalysts art therapists philosophers and art and literary researchers alike The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Are You My Mother or My Mom? Nevaeh Arneese,2016-07-26 This book is a true story my life story and my first book A very young girl gave birth and with no experience in being a mother with no support from her family she had to make a very important decision about what to do with a baby that she did not want or love She could have chosen to abandon the child in a garbage can or leave her at the door of some hospital No one wanted me not even an orphanage home she visited God had a purpose for this baby girl and gave her a second chance at life

Philosophy in Children's Literature Peter R. Costello,2012-01-01 This book seeks to join the ongoing interdisciplinary approach to children's literature by means of sustained readings of individual texts by means of important works in the history of philosophy Its inclusion of authors from both various departments philosophy literature religion and education and various countries is an attempt to show how traditional boundaries between disciplines might become more permeable and how philosophy offers important insights to this interdisciplinary critical conversation

Rubie, Are You My Dog? Arielle Ridley,2014-02-18 Arielle Ridley is a mother grandmother Montessori Teacher and above all a truly devoted daughter This is her riveting story of how she gradually learned about and accepted her mother's decline into severe Alzheimer's Disease and her incredibly courageous and determined journey to care for her mother with dignity in a home setting Arielle began with naive ideas about how the court system would protect her and her mother and learned how a family's best intentions can be thwarted The pitfalls of in home care the family's struggle to provide humane loving nurturance in the face of financial and emotional crises and her own evolving emotions during her mother's dehumanizing disease are intimately chronicled Roberta Are You My Mother is a very personal how to book with no clinical pretensions It is a must read for anyone accepting the myriad challenges associated with loving and caring for a family member with Alzheimer's during their declining years. Arielle's second book, Rubie and Arielle, is funny, inspirational, and instructional. It is a must-read for anyone who loves dogs and especially anyone who knows about Cavalier King Charles Spaniels. The brave, sweet Rubie is a canine charmer who paves the way for other dogs to become Service Dogs. Arielle is a Montessori Directress, a mother, grandmother, and devoted animal lover. Her life and this chronicle of Rubie intertwine all of these passions. Rubie overcomes many health ordeals and with Arielle's love becomes healthy and able to comfort her beloved humans. Rubie attends school every day with the pre-school aged children who welcomed her as a tiny puppy at Arielle's Montessori School. She regularly visits the aged and infirm whom she comforts in her role as a Service Dog. Arielle and Rubie learn how to travel locally with Rubie in Arielle's bicycle basket as well as internationally on all modes of travel, including planes. Rubie is welcomed at the finest restaurants and accompanies Arielle everywhere. Arielle depicts her ground-breaking inquiries about how to travel with American Service Dogs to officials in foreign countries. Arielle researches the requirements necessary for officially designated Service Dogs to travel with their family or trainer and also how to transport necessary canine medications. Arielle's first book, Roberta Are You My Mother?, is a very personal book about the challenges associated with loving and caring for a family member with Alzheimer's and Arielle's determination to maintain home care during the final declining years.

The Cornerstones to Early Literacy Katherine Luongo-Orlando, 2010. How can we build a strong literacy foundation for children? This book appreciates that learning and language development start with the play episodes: oral language practices, wordplay activities, print encounters, reading events, and writing experiences that children engage in during the early years of life. Filled with rich language activities, The Cornerstones to Early Literacy shows teachers how to create active learning experiences that are essential to building early literacy. This comprehensive handbook is organized around the following topics: Play Experiences, Understanding the early stages of learning and all aspects of the play-literacy connection, Oral Language Supporting opportunities for child talk with suggested conversation starters and events that involve personal timelines and storytelling, Language Awareness and Word Play, Creating a balanced approach to language learning using games and activities that involve literature, music, choral speaking, sound games, and more. Print Encounters: Discovering, reproducing, and creating all forms of environmental print. Reading Events: Integrating read-aloud and shared book experiences with proven strategies for supporting and observing young readers. Writing Experiences: Identifying early writing characteristics and techniques for moving children along in their writing.
