Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,Bertha Tannehill,Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer,1989 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries Black Garden Thomas de Waal,2013-07-08 Since its publication in 2003 the first edition of Black Garden has become the definitive study of how Armenia and Azerbaijan two southern Soviet republics were pulled into a conflict that helped bring them to independence spell the end of the Soviet Union and plunge a region of great strategic importance into a decade of turmoil This important volume is both a careful reconstruction of the history of the Nagorny Karabakh conflict since 1988 and on the spot reporting of the convoluted aftermath Part contemporary history part travel book part political analysis the book is based on six months traveling through the south Caucasus more than 120 original interviews in the Moscow and Washington region and unique historical primary sources such as Politburo archives The historical chapters trace how the conflict lay unresolved in the Soviet era how Armenian and Azerbaijani societies unfroze it how the Politiburo failed to cope with the crisis how the war was fought and ended and how the international community failed to sort out the conflict What emerges is a complex and subtle portrait of a beautiful and fascinating region blighted by historical prejudice and conflict The revised and updated 10th year anniversary edition includes a new forward a new chapter covering developments up to 2011 such as the election of new presidents in both countries Azerbaijan s oil boom and the new arms race in the region and a new conclusion analysing the reasons for the intractability of the conflict and whether there are any prospects for its resolution Telling the story of the first conflict to shake Mikhail Gorbachev s Soviet Union Black Garden remains a central account of the reality of the post Soviet world
