The Jane Austen Book Club Karen Joy Fowler, 2005. Six people, five women and a man, meet once a month in California's Central Valley to discuss Jane Austen's novels. They are ordinary people, neither happy nor unhappy, but each of them is wounded in different ways; they are all mixed up about their lives and relationships. Over the six months they meet, marriages are tested, affairs begin, unsuitable arrangements become suitable under the guiding eye of Jane Austen, and a couple of them even fall in love. A thoroughly delightful comedy of contemporary manners. Entertainment Weekly

Other Animals in Twenty-First Century Fiction Catherine Parry, 2017-07-19. This book is about ordinary animals and how they are imagined in twenty-first-century fiction. Examining contemporary animal representations and the fraught and potent distinctions humans fashion between themselves and all other animals, it asks how a range of novels make, re-make, or unmake traditional conceptions of the creatures we love, admire, eat, vilify, and abuse. Other Animals details readings of horses, an animalised human, a donkey, ants, chickens, and chimpanzees, developing new critical practices in Literary Animal Studies. They explore the connections between fictional animal representation, narrative form, ethics, and the lives and warm bodies of the real-world creatures that precede and exceed our imagination. Human-animal relationships are conditioned by our imaginative shapings of other animals and by our sense of distinction from them, and Other Animals opens out how fictional animal forms and tropes respond to, participate in, or challenge the ways animals' lives are lived out in consequence of human imaginings of them.

Revitalizing Health Through Humanities L. Santhosh Kumar, Barnashree Khasnobis, Sreedevi Santhosh, 2024-11-28. Health Humanities in contemporary times has enabled exploration of the unexplored, chartered terrains in literary paradigms. Scholars in the field of Humanities and Sciences have been engaging with the praxis of applying concepts from both disciplines, revising the approach towards Health Care and Humanities. Due to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary methodologies of reading literary texts, they have been reinforcing a paradigm shift from the conventional understanding of narratives in Literature and Health Care. Traditional discursive boundaries between the disciplines of Health and Humanities are collapsing due to a comprehensive and nuanced interpretation of the shared ontological foundation between the two. Humanism terminologies like Displacement, Dislocation, and Disjunction unite Health and Humanities, and they also make the unknown known. Health Humanities explores the different multitudes of narration in the literary arena and it represents diverse voices of literature. It also showcases the importance of re-reading a text owing to its autotelic status The authors who have contributed chapters for this book have meticulously selected diverse texts and contexts embedded in the dynamism of Health Humanities This book is an impetus for academicians from the field of Humanities and Sciences who desire to venture into new epistemes towards Health Humanities Karen Joy Fowler's We Are All Completely Beside Ourselves, 2020 The Insight Text Guide on We Are All Completely Beside Ourselves is a comprehensive guide to the novel for senior secondary students of English It provides detailed notes on context and background genre structure and language as well as an analysis of each chapter Characters and themes are covered in depth Essay topics guidelines on responding to a topic and a complete sample essay give students invaluable support for their own assessment tasks Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research We are All Completely Beside Ourselves, 2014 Animal Writing Sands Danielle Sands, 2019-08-21 Combining recent insights from animal studies critical plant studies and the new materialisms Danielle Sands reads fiction and philosophy alongside each other to propose a method of thinking of and with animals that draws on a bestiary of affects She challenges the claim that empathy should be primary mode of engagement with nonhuman life Instead she looks at the stories that we tell and are told by insects beings at the edges of animal life The indifference even disgust that these creatures evoke in us forms the basis for a new ethics not limited by empathy Along the way she encounters fiction writers Yann Martel Karen Joy Fowler Han Kang and Jim Crace beside the philosophy of Graham Harman Donna Haraway Jacques Derrida and Roger Caillois Storytelling and Ethics Hanna Meretoja, Colin Davis, 2017-09-18 In recent years there has been a huge amount of both popular and academic interest in storytelling as something that is an essential part of not only literature and art but also our everyday lives as well as our dreams fantasies aspirations historical self understanding and political actions The question of the ethics of storytelling always inevitably lurks behind these discussions though most frequently it remains implicit rather than explicit This volume explores the ethical
