Tristan With The Tristran Of Thomas By Gottfried Von Strassburg:

Tristan with the 'Tristran' of Thomas Gottfried von Strassburg, 2004-07-01 One of the great romances of the Middle Ages Tristan written in the early thirteenth century is based on a medieval love story of grand passion and deceit By slaying a dragon the young prince Tristan wins the beautiful Isolde's hand in marriage for his uncle King Mark On their journey back to Mark's court however the pair mistakenly drink a love potion intended for the king and his young bride and are instantly possessed with an all consuming love for each another a love they are compelled to conceal by a series of subterfuges that culminates in tragedy Von Strassburg's work is acknowledged as the greatest rendering of this legend of medieval lovers and went on to influence generations of writers and artists and inspire Richard Wagner's Tristan and Isolde Tristan Gottfried von Strassburg, 1960-07-30 Translated entire for the first time A Companion to Gottfried Von Strassburg's "Tristan" Will Hasty, 2003 The legend of Tristan and Isolde the archetypal narrative about the turbulent effects of all consuming passionate love achieved its most complete and profound rendering in the German poet Gottfried von Strassburg's verse romance Tristan ca 1200 1210 Along with his great literary rival Wolfram von Eschenbach and his versatile predecessor Hartmann von Aue Gottfried is considered one of three greatest poets produced by medieval Germany and over the centuries his Tristan has lost none of its ability to attract with the beauty of its poetry and to challenge if not provoke with its sympathetic depiction of adulterous love The essays written by a dozen leading Gottfried specialists in Europe and North America provide definitive treatments of significant aspects of this most important and challenging high medieval version of the Tristan legend They examine aspects of Gottfried's unparalleled narrative artistry the important connections between Gottfried's Tristan and the socio cultural situation in which it was composed and the reception of Gottfried's challenging romance both by later poets in the Middle Ages and by nineteenth and twentieth century authors composers and artists particularly Richard Wagner The volume also contains new interpretations of significant figures episodes and elements Riwalin and Blanscheflur Isolde of the White Hands the Love Potion the performance of love the female figures in Gottfried's revolutionary romance which provocatively elevates a sexual human love to a summum bonum Will Hasty is Professor of German at the University of Florida He is the editor of Companion to Wolfram's Parzival Camden House 1999 Tristan in the Underworld Neil Thomas, 1991 The findings of recent archaeological and folkloric studies are subsumed into this study where they possess literary relevance The author finds that the Thomas Gottfried branch of the legend has little to do with an uncritical glorification of courtly love as that term has been commonly understood Rather the tension arising from within the amorous triangle of Tristan Isolde and Marke is finally resolved on terms favourable to the collective and the adultery is not finally permitted to injure the fabric of courtly civilization which Tintagel symbolizes Gottfried von Strassburg emerges less as a critic of the chivalric order than as a staunch defender of the feudal status quo Gottfried Von Strassburg and the Medieval Tristan Legend Adrian Stevens, Roy Albert Wisbey, University of London. Institute of Germanic Studies, 1990 This volume comprises selected papers from a Tristan symposium held at the Institute of Germanic Studies in London The symposium was conceived by the organizers as an experiment in transatlantic dialogue and the papers represent the views of scholars from a variety of North American and British universities The main focus of attention is Gottfried's Tristan Familiar assumptions about the text are questioned and fresh perspectives are offered on many contentious issues those disagreements which persist are themselves a reflection posed by Gottfried's masterpiece In addition new light is thrown on the treatment of the Tristan theme in medieval and modern times Contributors are MICHAEL CURSCHMANN W J MCCANN MARGARET BROWN C STEPHEN JAEGER M H JONES ADRIAN STEVENS ARTHUR GROOS THOMAS KERTH MICHAEL BATTS MARIANNE WYNN JANET WHARTON GEORGE GILLESPIE JOAN M FERRANTE LESLIE SEIFFERT SIDNEY M JOHNSON PETRUS W TAX AUGUST CLOSS H B WILLSON ROY WISBEY Tristan in the Underworld Neil Thomas,1991

David J. Shirt,1980 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc Queering the Medieval Mediterranean: Transcultural Sea of Sex, Gender, Identity, and Culture ,2021-07-26 In ten essays authored by an international team of scholars this volume explores queer readings of Western and Eastern Mediterranean Europe Northern Africa Islam and Arabic traditions The contributors enter into a dialogue comparing cases from opposite sides of the Mediterranean in order to analyze the forgotten exchange of sexualities that was brought forth through the Mediterranean and its bordering landmasses during the Middle Ages This collection questions the hypothesis that distinct cultures treated sexuality and the other differently The volume initiates the conversation around queerness and sexuality on these trade routes and problematizes the differences between various Mediterranean cultures in order to argue that through both queerness and sexuality neighboring civilizations had access to and knowledge of common shared experiences Contributors are Sahar Amer Israel Burshatin Robert L A Clark Denise K Filos Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Edmund Hayes Gregory S Hutcheson Vicente Lled Guillem Leyla Rouhi and Robert S Sturges The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen,2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Straburg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin s cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

Magic and Magicians in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2017-10-23 There are no clear demarcation lines between magic astrology necromancy medicine and even sciences in the pre modern world Under the umbrella term magic the contributors to this volume examine a wide range of texts both literary and religious both medical and philosophical in which the topic is discussed from many different perspectives The fundamental concerns address issue such as how people perceived magic whether they accepted it and utilized it for their own purposes and what impact magic might have had on the mental structures of that time While some papers examine the specific appearance of magicians in literary texts others analyze the practical application of magic in medical contexts In addition this volume includes studies that deal with the rise of the witch craze in the late fifteenth century and then also investigate whether the Weberian notion of disenchantment pertaining to the modern world can be maintained Magic is oddly but significantly still around us and exerts its influence Focusing on magic in the medieval world thus helps us to shed light on human culture at large

Medieval Pets Kathleen Walker-Meikle, 2012 Animals in the middle ages have often been discussed but usually only as a source of food as beasts of burden or as aids for hunters This book takes a completely different angle showing that they were also beloved domestic companions to their human owners It offers a full survey of pets and pet keeping how they were acquired kept fed exercised and displayed it looks at the problems pets could cause and finally how they were mourned It also examines the representation of pets and their owners in art and literature the many charming illustrations offer further evidence for the bonds between humans and their pets then as now Dr Kathleen Walker Meikle is a Wellcome Trust Fellow at the University of York working on animals and medieval medicine

The Forest of Medieval Romance Corinne J. Saunders, 1993 Corinne J Saunders s exploration of the topos of the forest a familiar and ubiquitous motif in the literature of the middle ages is a broad study embracing a range of medieval and Elizabethan texts from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries the romance and antique Breton lay and courtly romance the hagiographical tradition of the Vita Merlini and the Queste del Saint Graal Spenser and Shakespeare Saunders identifies the forest as a primary romance landscape as a place of adventure love and spiritual vision offers a pleasurable overview of the narrative function of the forest as a literary landscape Based on a close comparative and theoretically non partisan reading of a broad range of literary texts drawn from the European canon Saunders s study explores the continuity and transformation of an important motif in the corpus of medieval literature

MODERN LANGUAGE REVIEW Dr CORINNE SAUNDERS teaches in the Department of English at the University of Durham

BLURB EXTRACTED

FROM TLS REVIEW An immense tract not only of medieval literature but of human experience is engagingly introduced and presented here Corinne Saunders considers first forests in reality a reality which keeps breaking through in romance She looks also at the classical and biblical models including Virgil Statius and Nebuchadnezzar only then does she turn to the non real and non Classical i e the medieval and romantic Here she follows a clear chronological plan from twelfth to fifteenth centuries also covering the allegorized landscape of Spenser and the lovers woods of Arden or Athens in Shakespeare Her text by text layout does justice to the variety of possibilities taken up by different authors the forest as a place where men run mad and turn into animals a place of voluntary suffering a focus of significance in the Grail quests a lovers bower above all and centrally the place where the knight is tested and defined even as with Perceval created Arthur in Northern Translations Virgile Reiter, Raphaëlle Jamet, 2021-08-11 Arthur in Northern Translations is a compilation of some of the articles presented at two conferences organized by the Nordic Branch of the Arthurian Society The volume aims to showcase the richness and broad appeal of the contemporary research on Nordic translations of courtly literature featuring articles on the Arthurian tradition in Medieval Scandinavia As such the articles compiled here will be of interest not only to specialists of the Medieval North but to all interested in courtly literature and Arthurian material in general The New Cambridge Companion to Medieval Romance Roberta L. Krueger, 2023-05-25 This new Companion introduces the most important medieval vernacular literary genre in Britain and continental Europe A Companion to Sound in German-speaking Cultures Rolf J. Goebel, 2023 Explores sonic events and auditory experiences in German speaking contexts from the Middle Ages to the digital age opening up new understandings As a sub discipline of cultural studies sound studies is a firmly established field of inquiry examining how sonic events and auditory experiences unfold in culturally and historically contingent life situations Responding to new questions in sound studies in the context of German speaking cultures and incorporating up to date methodologies this Companion explores the significance of sound from the Middle Ages and the classical romantic period through high capitalist industrial modernity the Nazi period and the Holocaust and postwar Germany to the present digital age The volume examines how sonic events are represented in literary fiction radio productions cinema newsreels documentaries sound art museum exhibitions and other media drawing for this inquiry on philosophy aesthetics literary criticism musicology art theory and cultural studies Each essay is a case study of persons events and sonic visual or textual artifacts situating them in wider contexts of culture history and politics The volume not only revisits well known topics from new angles but seeks especially to explore neglected issues on the cultural periphery It assembles original essays by leaders in the field and emerging scholars from the United States and Europe Offering an advanced introduction to the topic the Companion is addressed to anyone interested in how the analysis of sound phenomena opens up new understandings of German speaking cultures Emotion in Old Norse Literature Sif Ríkharðsdóttir, 2017 Draws on Old Norse literary heritage to explore questions of emotion as both a literary motif and as a social phenomenon

Authors throughout history have relied on the emotional make up of their readers and audiences to make sense of the behaviours and actions of fictive characters But how can a narrative voice contained in a text evoke feelings that are ultimately never real or actual but a figment of a text a fictive reality created out of words How does one reconcile interiority a presumed modern conceptualisation with medieval emotionality The volume seeks to address these questions It positions itself within the larger context of the history of emotion offering a novel approach to the study of literary representations of emotionality and its staging through voice performativity and narrative manipulation probing how emotions are encoded in texts The author argues that the deceptively laconic portrayal of emotion in the Icelandic sagas and other literature reveals an emotive script that favours reticence over expressivity and exposes a narrative convention of emotional subterfuge through narrative silences and the masking of emotion Focusing on the ambivalent borders between prose and poetic language she suggests that poetic vocalisation may provide a literary space within which emotive interiority can be expressed The volume considers a wide range of Old Norse materials from translated romances through Eddic poetry and slendingas gur sagas of Icelanders to indigenous romance Sif Rikhardsdottir is Professor of Comparative Literature at the University of Iceland and Vice Chair of the Institute of Research in Literature and Visual Arts

German Literature of the High

Middle Ages Will Hasty, 2006 New essays on the first flowering of German literature in the High Middle Ages and especially during the period 1180-1230 The High Middle Ages and particularly the period from 1180 to 1230 saw the beginnings of a vibrant literary culture in the German vernacular While significant literary achievements in German had already been made in earlier centuries they were a somewhat precarious vernacular extension of Christian Latin culture But the vernacular literary culture of the High Middle Ages was an integral part of broader cultural developments in which the unquestioned validity of traditional authoritative models began to lose its hold A secular culture began to emerge in which positive value began to be attached to the however transitory allegiances pleasures and loves of life In new essays dealing with the most significant literary genres the heroic epics the romances the love lyrics and political poetry and with broader political social and cultural issues control of aggression territorialization this third volume of the Camden House History of German Literature demonstrates how the emergence of a vernacular literary culture in Germany was an important part of a broader cultural transformation in which medieval people began to redefine themselves their relationships to one another and the position of humanity in the scheme of things Contributors Albrecht Classen Nicola McLelland Rodney Fisher Neil Thomas Marion Gibbs and Sidney Johnson Rüdiger Krohn Will Hasty Nigel Harris Susann Samples Sara Poor Michael Resler Rüdiger Brandt Elizabeth A Andersen Ulrich Müller and Franz Viktor Spechtler Ruth Weichselbaumer W H Jackson Charles Bowlus Will Hasty is Professor of German Studies and co founder and co director of the Center for Medieval and Early Modern Studies at the University of Florida
