Turtle Diary By Russell Hoban:

The Turtle Diary Russell Hoban, 2000-09-04 In the aquarium at the London Zoo three sea turtles swim endlessly in their little bedsitter of ocean Two lonely people William G and Neaera H become obsessed with the turtles captivity and resolve to rescue them and release them in to the sea William s and Neaera s diaries tell the story of how they achieve the turtles freedom and in the process re define their own lives Turtle Diary by Russell Hoban Brian Elkner, 1987 Turtle Diary Russell Hoban, 1975 The sea turtles at the London Zoo become the mutual obsession of two lonely strangers who dream of setting free the turtles and themselves Turtle Diary , 1986 Part program promotional flyer for British film Turtle Diary screened at the Piccadilly Cinema based on novel by Russell Hoban screenplay by Harold Pinter starring Ben Kingsley and Glenda Jackson Russell Hoban Graeme Wend-Walker, 2025-09-24 Spanning more than half a century Russell Hoban s celebrated literary career won him critical accolades and legions of admirers across multiple genres Many know him from the groundbreaking masterpiece Riddley Walker with its twelve year old protagonist contemplating what the idear of us myt be from amidst the ruins of civilization Others know Hoban from the genre defying The Mouse and His Child or from idiosyncratic novels of floundering Londoners Still others fondly recall Frances the Badger s refusal to go to bed or share Emmet Otter with their children at Christmas This book the first consideration of Russell Hoban s literary career as a whole explores what binds these seemingly disparate works together Discovering unexpected patterns between books written from what one character describes as a perpetual state of surprise this critical study also draws on Hoban s biography from his formation as an artist under the influence of jazz in New York to the upheaval of his self reinvention as a writer as it offers its own reflection on what the idea of Russell Hoban might be Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2014-07-11 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930 2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant s Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick s 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter s Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world s foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter s creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay s creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon Thinking with Words Brett Bourbon, Miguel Tamen, 2024-12-13 Thinking with Words A Literary Groundwork provides a unique foundational introduction to the depths and glories of literature and its study It is a book about why literature matters and why it always will Readers will explore the roots of literature and art in the interplay between life and language actions and events and culture and texts This is not a book about theories it is a book about our complex engagement with language and literature from which theories interpretations and insight arise As this is a groundwork confusions are dissolved and analytical tools for thinking are developed and honed Readers will discover that their ways of talking about literature can powerfully contribute to their ways of talking about life The book resituates literary studies within fundamental arguments about language knowledge and ethics Thinking with Words is essential reading for anyone interested not just in literature but in art culture and language Wish I Was Here M. John Harrison, 2025-09-30 One of our greatest and most original living writers sets out the perils of the writing life with joyful provocation in this anti memoir M John Harrison has produced one of the greatest bodies of fiction of any living British author encompassing space opera speculative fiction fantasy and magical and literary realism But is there even an M John Harrison and if so where do we find him This is the question the author asks in this memoir as mystery turning for clues to forty years of notetaking A note or it never happened A note or you never looked Are these notebooks records of failed presence How do they shine a light on a childhood in the industrial Midlands a portrait of a young artist in counterculture London on an adulthood of restless escape into hill and moorland landscapes And do they tell us anything about the writing of books each one so different from the last that it might have been written by another version of the author With aphoristic daring and laconic wit this anti memoir will fascinate and delight It confirms M John Harrison still further in his status as the most original British writer of his generation Talking Books James Carter, 2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions The authors featured are Neil Ardley Ian Beck Helen Cresswell Gillian Cross Terry Deary Berlie Doherty Alan Durant Brian Moses Philip Pullman Celia Rees Norman Silver Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits how they came to be published how they write on a daily basis how a particular book came together a type of writing that they are especially known for Through in depth interviews they each reveal their approach to their craft Much is known and spoken of the product that is the children's book but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction non fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft creativity and process of writing for children Writing Talk Alex Hamilton, 2012 In his long career in literary journalism

Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life s work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It s a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I ve been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk

Narratives of Love and Loss Margaret Rustin,Michael Rustin,2020-05-05 Why do some stories written for children have so powerful an emotional resonance for both child and adult readers This is the question addressed by Margaret and Michael Rustin in a book which offers a detailed critical reading of some of the best known modern British and American stories for children by writers such as E B White Philippa Pearce and C S Lewis The authors make use of psychoanalytical and sociological ideas in their approach interpreting the stories both as metaphors of states of feeling often experienced by children and as images of the wider society in which they are written A particular theme of their discussion is personal and imaginative growth in childhood and the ways this can be affected both for better and worse by separation and loss In their detailed consideration of the narratives of the stories the authors avoid theoretical jargon and concentrate on works which have interest and meaning for adult readers as well as children Narratives of Love and Loss is an important and accessible book which will be of special interest to parents and teachers concerned with children s reading and imaginative play and to those working in the fields of psychoanalysis English literature and popular culture

Distinguishing Features Stanley Kauffmann,1994 In this engaging collection Stanley Kauffmann comments on a broad range of films including Ridley Scott s Thelma and Louise Oliver Stone s JFK Stephen Frears My Beautiful Laundrette Kenneth Branagh s Henry V and Federico Fellini s Intervista

The Films of Harold Pinter Steven H. Gale,2001-03-29 The Films of Harold Pinter is a collection of ten original essays on the screenplays of master British dramatist and screenwriter Harold Pinter Written by noted Pinter and film specialists the book explores individual Pinter masterpieces such as The French Lieutenant s Woman The Go Between Accident and The Pumpkin Eater Along with offering explications of the films themselves it also provides insights into Pinter s creative process and the differences between the novel drama and film Despite having written twenty three film scripts and concentrating his recent artistic attention almost exclusively on screenwriting Pinter's work for the screen has been paid sparse critical attention over the years This book leaves little doubt however that Harold Pinter has made important contributions to the cinema not the least of which has to do with the primary characteristics of his screenplays in almost every case he has produced a script that is a work of art in its own right one that can stand on its own
