management is more determined to institutionalize diversity than in the past, although management can still project indifference. Many have recognized how diversity is related to better performance and have begun to address that previously unexamined relationship, but they are not yet implementing a formal diversity program, and they have not seen the return. The management team is more likely to implement a diversity program if they have seen the benefits of that program, and management is more likely to implement the diversity program if they perceive management, not those whom management is managing, understands the diversity information, not those whom management is managing.

This light will come on to provide a "bulb check", when the system is turned on, but should go out after the engine is started. If light fails to come on with the system turned on, it could indicate a burned-out bulb, or a blown instrument lamp fuse or a defective electric choke fuse circuit. Have the system repaired if light does not come on during check.
