Modelling and Intelligent Optimisation of Production Scheduling in VCIM Systems Son Duy Dao,2017-12-27 This thesis reports on an innovative production scheduling model for virtual computer integrated manufacturing VCIM systems It also describes a robust genetic algorithm for production scheduling in VCIM systems The model which is the most comprehensive of its kind to date is not only capable of supporting collaborative shipment scheduling and handling multiple product orders simultaneously but also helps cope with multiple objective functions under uncertainties In turn the genetic algorithm characterised by an innovative algorithm structure chromosome encoding crossover and mutation is capable of searching for optimal suboptimal solutions to the complex optimisation problem in the VCIM production scheduling model described Lastly the effectiveness of the proposed approach is verified in a comprehensive case study Legal Protection and Sustainability of Chinese Investments in Africa Xiuli Han,2022-08-26 This book attempts to illustrate the whole picture of international investment rule of law between China and African countries and find the way forward through combining theory and practice It is a book by a Chinese professor based on her long term research experience in the international investment law field and her African field work in person Its main feature is its well balanced thinking on the structure of investment international rule of law It should be the most comprehensive research on the international investment rule of law between China and African countries With the increase of Chinese investment in Africa various discussions and viewpoints on Chinese investment in Africa have become striking The purpose of this book is to explore systematically the protection and sustainability of Chinese investment under the concept and framework of the international investment rule of law so as to serve the sustainable development of Africa and China For the purpose of this book great importance is attached to the idea of the international rule of law and the international investment law with the function of rule of law is adhered to The conclusion of this book is that China should take proactive steps to protect Chinese investment in Africa and regulate Chinese overseas investors and their investments in addition to complying with the laws in the host states and thus make them conducive to African and Chinese sustainable development however the most significant issue is that China Africa investment relations should be regulated by the evolving and specific international investment rule of law and the China Africa international investment rule of law should conform to normative in form support common sustainable development in value and reflect the social reality of China and Africa For both researchers and students it is an approach to understand international investment rule of law from a perspective of China and Africa For those who are interested in China and Africa it is a useful reference book

The Globalization of Legal Education Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law
