The authors also reflect on the entwinement between the violation of women's rights and the degradation of the Earth which is usually described using feminine terms hence the designation Mother Earth. The three major religious traditions in Africa Christianity Islam and African Traditional Religions ATR are the lenses through which the authors discuss the interconnections between religion culture and ecological traditions. Peering through African eco feminist gender justice and gender inclusive lenses the authors foreground the importance of tapping into Africa's rich religious cultural resources as vital tools that can be utilised to address the ravaging ecological crisis.

Ngecha Carolyn P. Edwards, Beatrice Blyth Whiting, 2004-01-01 Ngecha is the monumental and intimate study of modernization and nationalization in rural Africa in the early years following Kenyan independence in 1963 as experienced by the people of Ngecha a village outside Nairobi. From 1968 to 1973 Ngecha was a research site of the Child Development Research Unit a team that brought together Kenyan and non Kenyan social scientists under the leadership of John Whiting and Beatrice Blyth Whiting. The study documents how families adapted to changing opportunities and conditions as their former colony became a modern nation and the key role that women played as agents of change as they became small scale cash crop farmers and entrepreneurs. Mothers modified the culture of their parents to meet the evolving national economy and they participated in the shift from an agrarian to a wage economy in ways that transformed their workloads and perceptions of isolation and individualism within and between households thereby challenging traditional family based morals and obligations. Their children in turn experienced evolving educational practices and achievement expectations. The elders faced new situations as well as new modes of treatment. Completing this valuable record of a nation in transition are the long term reassessments of the observations and conclusions of the research team and a description of Ngecha today as viewed by Kenyans who participated in the original study.

Salvation in African Christianity Rodney L. Reed, David K. Ngaruiya, 2023-10-31 What must I do to be saved? That question raised in the book of Acts by the Philippian jailer is a question for the ages. Yet what even does it mean to be saved? Is salvation for this life or the next? Is it purely spiritual or does it have physical and material implications? Can salvation be lost? Do we determine who will be saved or does God What role does Christ play in salvation Such are the seemingly unending questions soteriology strives to answer In this eighth volume from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology African theologians articulate their understanding of salvation and its widespread implications for life and practice in conversation with Scripture and the rich diversity of an African cultural context Salvation is examined from historical philosophical and theological lenses and scholars address topics as wide ranging as conversion ethnicity fertility poverty prosperity the Trinity exclusivism African Pentecostalism rural community eschatology wholeness and atonement It is a powerful exploration of the holistic nature of salvation as articulated in Scripture and understood by the African church      Critical Perspectives on Politics and Socio-Economic Development in Ghana ,2003-04-01 This volume provides a comprehensive and integrated analysis of Ghanaian politics economy and society outlining tensions dilemmas and prospects that the country has to contend with The chapters critically examine the performance and prospects of democratic institutions and processes responses to and impact of economic policies and programs and how culture intersects with the preceding developments to shape socio economic and political institutions and practices The collection is divided into four thematic sections Politics the State and Democratic Consolidation Economic Crisis and Neo Liberal Reforms Responses and Implications Indigenous Institutions and the Shaping of Development Culture Indigenous Knowledge and Development It combines rich recent empirical material with sophisticated theoretical analyses and brings unique interdisciplinary perspectives to bear on the issues examined Contributors include Bruce J Berman Joseph R A Ayee Wisdom J Tettey Senyo Adjibolosoo Korba P Puplampu Peter Arthur Edna D Djokoto Asem Kobena T Hanson Baffour K Takyi Isaac Addai Donald I Ray Louis Awanyo Charlotte Kesson Smith Henry M Codjoe George J Sefa Dei and Kwamena Kwansah Aidoo      Champion David Waweru,2013-09-30 Passion Dedication Commitment Resilience Imagine what you would accomplish if you exhibited these traits Champion will ignite your inner fire and inspire you to rise to tremendous levels of performance and accomplishment In an easy going conversational style the author weaves stories from his experience in the boxing ring to point you to the tremendous resources that lie within you Champion will also help you push past barriers develop resilience and propel you to heights you may never have thought yourself capable of      Durrani: Two Paths Ahead Shiraz Durrani,2023-05-04 The struggle between socialism and capitalism in Kenya has been long bitter and violent Capitalism won with the active support of USA and UK governments at the time of independence in 1963 Yet the original 1960 Kenya African National Union KANU Party was in favour of socialism It was Presidents Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Arap Moi who used violence to suppress those advocating socialism They used their power to massacre assassinate exile imprison and disappear people and created a state of terror to silence their opponents Capitalism became the unstated state policy Thus imperialism won and the aims of Mau Mau were brutally suppressed However the desire for socialism never died Resistance movements and opposition parties made socialism their aim reflecting peoples desire for justice equality and empowerment Many studies on Kenya focus on rather it opens up the academic disciplines to a whole new landscape of exploration into the biggest and most pressing questions animating the human experience      Developpement Et L'amenagement Des Peches Dans Les Petits Plans D'eau Marie Giasson, Jean-Louis Gaudet, 1989-01-01 In English and French
