Feminism as Life's Work Mary K. Trigg, 2014-06-23 With suffrage secured in 1920 feminists faced the challenge of how to keep their momentum going As the center of the movement shrank a small self appointed vanguard of modern women carried the cause forward in life and work Feminism as Life's Work profiles four of these women the author Inez Haynes Irwin the historian Mary Ritter Beard the activist Doris Stevens and Lorine Pruette a psychologist Their life stories told here in full for the first time embody the changes of the first four decades of the twentieth century and complicate what we know of the period Through these women's intertwined stories Mary Trigg traces the changing nature of the women's movement across turbulent decades rent by world war revolution global depression and the rise of fascism Criticizing the standard division of feminist activism as a series of historical waves Trigg exposes how Irwin Beard Stevens and Pruette helped push the U S feminist movement to victory and continued to propel it forward from the 1920s to the 1960s decades not included in the wave model At a time widely viewed as the doldrums of feminism the women in this book were in fact taking the cause to new sites the National Women's Party sexuality and relations with men marriage and work and financial independence In their utopian efforts to reshape work sexual relations and marriage modern feminists ran headlong into the harsh realities of male power the sexual double standard the demands of motherhood and gendered social structures In Feminism as Life's Work Irwin Beard Stevens and Pruette emerge as the heirs of the suffrage movement guardians of a long feminist tradition and catalysts of the belief in equality and difference Theirs is a story of courage application and perseverance a story that revisits the bleak and lonely years of the U S women's movement and emerges with a fresh perspective of the history of this pivotal era

Warflower: A True Story of Family, Service, and Life in Alaska Robert Stark, 2022-06-01 Bob Stark had no plans after high school With his brother locked away in the only maximum security prison in Alaska his mom working overtime at the local grocery store and his bad habits getting worse he saw no hope for the future Until the Army recruiter came to school offering an escape Bob envisioned romantic adventures in Italy life saving missions in Africa and friendships built on tough times he wanted to be an honorable dependable and brave man all of the things he was not He signed the papers and five days after graduation was sent out After basic training and airborne school Bob is stationed in Italy where his eighteen year old dreams of travel and romance are cut short when his unit is ordered to parachute into Northern Iraq He spends the next year in Iraq learning more than he could have ever imagined Four and a half years later after two deployments and a long list of life lessons Bob leaves Fort Campbell Kentucky on a road trip west with the hopes of falling in love with the country he fought for Along the way he reunites with family and friends from his happy go lucky mother in Arizona who talks to her incarcerated husband on the phone whenever she is not at work to his foul mouthed grandmother in Idaho who wears one glove and drinks beer with ice all day long until finally reuniting with his high school sweetheart in Las Vegas Bob begins a new chapter of self discovery and acceptance that just may allow him to be the man he always wanted to be Warflower is a coming of age story about family traditions brotherhood and one boy's journey into manhood without a father to teach him

The History and Life Stories of European Women in the Arts Milena Gammaitoni, 2022-03-30 Offering historical identity fortified by the presence of women belonging to the various areas of creative and intellectual life this book allows readers to understand greater contexts of their identity The history of female artists is an indicator of how social identity was erased from the historiography which asserted itself in nineteenth century Europe Analysis of the biographical pathways traced here reveals how women in the Middle Ages and beyond have been active protagonists of the arts received reviews as well as had an authoritative role as the esteemed and attentive witnesses of the society around them Reconstruction of social relationships intellectual and creative production as well as of the life stories of some of Europe's most important female artists foregrounds this omission and highlights their extraordinary nature The different stories contained in this book narrate the lives and works of Hildegard von Bingen Francesca Caccini Mary Wollstonecraft George Sand Lou Andreas Salom and Elke Mascha Blankenburg By reinforcing the awareness of social and historical origins the informed reader is better equipped to tackle their futures and build up their personalities

Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera, 2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of chronic stress than others how societal stereotypes unconsciously feed into our daily interactions with other people what role evolution might have played in the formation of our social habits what light the practices of sign language might shed on our brain's basic capacity for language how children internalize the violence they experience from others and hundreds of other tales of the women who dug deep into the structures of the human mind to uncover layer by layer the answers to millennia old questions of what humans are and why they behave as they do The Routledge History of Women in Europe since 1700

Deborah Simonton, 2006-04-27 The Routledge History of Women in Europe since 1700 is a landmark publication that provides the most coherent overview of woman's role and place in western Europe spanning the era from the beginning of the eighteenth century until the twentieth century In this collection of essays leading women's historians counter the notion of national histories and provide the insight and perspective of a European approach Important intellectual political and economic developments have not respected national boundaries nor has the story of women's past or the interplay of gender and culture The interaction between women ideology and female agency the way women engaged with patriarchal and gendered structures and systems and the way women carved out their identities and spaces within these informs the writing in this book For any student of women's studies or European history The Routledge History of Women in Europe since 1700 will prove an informative addition to their studies Best Reading ... a Priced and Classified Bibliography ... of the More Important Publications ..., 1882

Finding Her in History Rosemary Papa, 2017-06-16 This monograph was cultivated from the AERA SIG Women in Education 2016 address and delivers a brief review of his story in terms of the lack of her story being included through three parallel lines 1 historical documents on formation of the family and work in and outside the home from the Paleolithic era 2 the development of traditional religions and the subjugation of women beginning with the conniving seductress Eve and 3 the discussion of major wars and the nation state policies produced throughout history with impacts on girls and women as well the precarious health of the planet This brief review of his story reveals the continued exclusion of her story with the example of Willystine Goodsell a historian ironically erased from history in education The premise that subjugation of women and children as lesser than males has been supported both in the name of protecting them and in shaming them The combined ubiquitous effects of disequilibrium created by mankind in wars religions education social capital economics and politics have ensured his story is the one recorded This monograph suggests a more balanced approach to the written her his story requires inclusion of all the population and the secular educating of especially girls and women The Terror of History Teofilo F. Ruiz, 2011-09-06 A reflection on the diverse ways Western humanity has attempted to escape its frightening history This book reflects on Western humanity's efforts to escape from history and its terrors from the existential condition and natural disasters to the endless succession of wars and other man made catastrophes Drawing on historical episodes ranging from antiquity to the recent past and combining them with literary examples and personal reflections Teofilo Ruiz explores the embrace of religious experiences the pursuit of worldly success and pleasures and the quest for beauty and knowledge as three primary responses to the individual and collective nightmares of history. The result is a profound meditation on how men and women in Western society sought and still seek to make meaning of the world and its disturbing history. In chapters that range widely across Western history and culture, The Terror of History takes up religion, the material world, and the world of art and knowledge. Religion and the World to Come examines orthodox and heterodox forms of spirituality, apocalyptic movements, mysticism, supernatural beliefs, and many forms of esotericism, including magic, alchemy, astrology, and witchcraft. The World of Matter and the Senses considers material riches, festivals, and carnivals, sports, sex, and utopian communities. Finally, The Lure of Beauty and Knowledge looks at cultural productions of all sorts, from art to scholarship. Combining astonishing historical breadth with a personal and accessible narrative style, The Terror of History is a moving testimony to the incredibly diverse ways humans have sought to cope with their frightening history.
