Familial Feeling Elahe Haschemi Yekani, 2020-12-07 This open access book discusses British literature as part of a network of global entangled modernities and shared aesthetic concerns departing from the retrospective model of a postcolonial writing back to the centre Accordingly the narrative strategies in the texts of early Black Atlantic authors like Equiano Sancho Wedderburn and Seacole and British canonical novelists such as Defoe Sterne Austen and Dickens are framed as entangled tonalities Via their engagement with discourses on slavery abolition and imperialism these texts shaped an understanding of national belonging as a form of familial feeling This study thus complicates the rise of the novel framework and British middle class identity formation from a transnational perspective combining approaches in narrative studies with postcolonial and queer theory Approaches to Teaching Nabokov's Lolita Zoran Kuzmanovich, Galya Diment, 2008 Widely considered one of the twentieth century's great novels Lolita maintains an established place on the concentrates on the novel's ethical quandries and introduces its textual intricacies Romantic Education in

Nineteenth-Century American Literature Monika Elbert, Lesley Ginsberg, 2014-12-05 American publishing in the long nineteenth century was flooded with readers primers teaching training manuals children's literature and popular periodicals aimed at families These publications attest to an abiding faith in the power of pedagogy that has its roots in transatlantic Romantic conceptions of pedagogy and literacy The essays in this collection examine the on going influence of Romanticism in the long nineteenth century on American thinking about education as depicted in literary texts in historical accounts of classroom dynamics or in pedagogical treatises They also point out that though this influence was generally progressive the benefits of this social change did not reach many parts of American society This book is therefore an important reference for scholars of Romantic studies American studies historical pedagogy and education Critical Companion to Jane Austen
