

Unit 1: 1491-1607

Directions: Answer the following questions in complete sentences using evidence from your text. Each answer must be accompanied by at least 1 page number reference to your evidence.

- Key Question 1.1: As native populations migrated and settled across the vast expanse of North America over time, how did they develop distinct and increasingly complex societies? In what ways did they adapt to and transform their diverse environments?

- Identifying Question 1: How did different native societies adapt to and transform their environments? What specific innovations and adaptations did they make in agriculture, resource use, and social structure?
- Supporting Question A: In what ways did the spread of maize cultivated from present-day Mexico continue into the present-day Americas Southwest and beyond support economic development, settlement, advanced irrigation, and social diversification among societies?
 - Supporting Question B: How did environmental factors in the Great Plains and the eastern Great Plains lead to development of largely mobile societies?
 - Supporting Question C: Why did nations in the Northeast, the Mississippi River Valley, and along the Atlantic seaboard develop toward agricultural and hunter-gatherer societies that favored the development of permanent villages?
 - Supporting Question D: What environmental issues enabled societies in the Northwest and present-day California to support themselves by hunting and gathering and to develop some settled communities? What role did their proximity to the ocean play in these societies?

- Key Question 1.2: What interventions and adaptations among societies across the Atlantic came about as a result of the Columbian Exchange?

- Identifying Question 2.1: What extensive demographic and social changes were triggered on both sides of the Atlantic after the arrival of Europeans in the Western Hemisphere in the 15th and 16th centuries?
- Supporting Question A: What drove European nations' efforts to explore and conquer the New World?
 - Supporting Question B: How did the Columbian Exchange stimulate European population growth and new sources of mineral wealth? In what ways did these changes facilitate the shift from feudalism to capitalism?
 - Supporting Question C: In what ways did maritime technological improvements and new organizational methods for conducting international business help drive change to economies in Europe and the Americas?
- Identifying Question 2.2: What significant demographic and social changes were triggered on both sides of the Atlantic after the Columbian Exchange and the development of the Spanish Empire in the Western Hemisphere?
- Supporting Question A: In what ways did the Spanish exploration and conquest of the Americas affect the Americas' societies?
 - Supporting Question B: How did the Spanish colonial economies affect native populations, in what practices existed and other resources?
 - Supporting Question C: Explain the introduction and evolution of African slavery into Spanish economies in the New World.
 - Supporting Question D: Analyze the development and evolution of the Spanish-ruled systems in their colonial empire.
- Identifying Question 2.3: How did contact among Europeans, Native Americans, and Africans result in significant social, cultural, and political changes on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean?
- Supporting Question A: How did mutual misunderstandings between Europeans and Native Americans define the early years of interaction and trade? In what ways did both groups adopt some useful aspects of each other's culture?
 - Supporting Question B: How did Native Americans attempt to defend their political sovereignty, economic prosperity, religious beliefs, and concepts of gender relations against European encroachments on Native Americans lands and increased labor demands?
 - Supporting Question C: In what ways did extended contact with Native Americans and Africans foster debate among European religious and political leaders about how non-Europeans should be treated? In what ways did these debates influence existing religious, cultural and racial justifications for the subjugation of Africans and Native Americans?
