Art History, Art Criticism, and Art Production: Case studies of seven selected sites, 1984 This study attempts to discover 1 the factors that generate support for a strong substantive art education program in a district's curriculum and 2 what factors influence the willingness and ability of school districts and teachers to carry out and maintain a discipline based art education that strives for balance among the historical critical and productive domains of the visual arts It uses case studies of seven sites Whitehall Ohio Hopkins Minnesota Palo Alto California Decatur and Champaign Illinois Brooklyn New York Milwaukee Wisconsin and Virginia Beach Virginia As a group the case studies illustrate the importance of support from school board members superintendents and principals of a written curriculum and of in service training They provide examples of school museum collaboration and dispel the notion that systematic instruction compromises or constrains individual creativity

The Whole Child Seamus Carey, 2003-06-18 The Whole Child is a beautifully written book combining classic philosophical themes like wonder and happiness with modern parenting virtues like courage compassion integrity and discipline Seamus Carey uses anecdotes from his own experience as a parent some amusing and some poignant to illustrate philosophical concepts The result is a rare work as valuable to the serious student of philosophy as it is to Carey's fellow parents Carey argues that parents need to rediscover the sense of wonder the ontological depth with which children experience life and offers suggestions for how this recovery might take place In so doing Carey uncovers standards and ideas for raising children that reach beyond those typically considered by the modern family

Art History, Art Criticism, and Art Production: Comparing the process of change across districts Milbrey Wallin McLaughlin, Margaret Ann Thomas, Michael Day, Rand Corporation, 1984 This report conveys the findings from a cross site analysis of seven school districts that were implementing a discipline based approach to visual arts education A discipline based approach incorporates four art disciplines in the classroom art history art criticism aesthetics and art production The study sought to identify the factors that generate support for a strong substantive art education program in a district's curriculum and what factors influence districts and teachers to maintain a discipline based art education program The study's findings suggest that to become academically respectable and support the factors necessary for change a visual arts program must have these basic characteristics an articulated conceptual base and a written sequential curriculum that reflects this base

Critical Gaming: Interactive History and Virtual Heritage Erik Champion, 2016-03-09 This book explains how designing playing and modifying computer games and understanding the theory behind them can strengthen the area of digital humanities This book aims to help digital humanities scholars understand both the issues and also advantages of game design as well as encouraging them to extend the field of computer game studies particularly in their teaching and research in the field of virtual heritage By looking at re-occurring issues in the design playtesting and interface of serious games and game based learning for cultural heritage and interactive history this book highlights the importance of visualisation and self learning in game studies and how this can intersect with digital humanities It also asks whether such theoretical concepts can be applied to practical learning situations It will be of particular interest to those who wish to investigate how games and virtual environments can be used in teaching and research to critique issues and topics in the humanities particularly in virtual heritage and interactive history

Plato and Levinas Tanja Staehler, 2009-09-11 Like Plato Emmanuel Levinas believed that ethics was the most fundamental philosophical discipline Levinas's approach to ethics begins in the encounter with the other as the most basic experience of responsibility He acknowledges the necessity to move beyond this initial dyadic encounter but has problems extending his approach to a larger dimension such as community To shed light on this dilemma Tanja Staehler examines broader dimensions which are linked to the political realm and the problems they pose for ethics Staehler demonstrates that both Plato and Levinas come to identify three realms as ambiguous the erotic the artistic and the political Staehler argues that these ambiguous dimensions can contribute to revealing the Other's vulnerability without diminishing the fundamental role of unambiguous ethical responsibility

Great Trials and the Law in the Historical Imagination Russell L. Dees, 2022-07-29

Great Trials and the Law in the Historical Imagination A Law and Humanities Approach introduces readers to the history of law and issues in historical legal and artistic interpretation by examining six well known historical trials through works of art that portray them Great Trials provides readers with an accessible non dogmatic introduction to the interdisciplinary law and humanities approach to law legal history and legal interpretation By examining how six famous notorious trials in Western history have been portrayed in six major works of art the book shows how issues of legal historical and artistic interpretation can become intertwined the different ways we embed law in narrative how we bring conscious and subconscious conceptions of history to our interpretation of law and how aesthetic predilections and moral commitments to the law may influence our views of history The book studies well known depictions of the trials of Socrates Cicero Jesus Thomas More the Salem witches and John Scopes and provides innovative analyses of those works The epilogue examines how historical methodology and historical imagination are crucial to both our understanding of the law and our aesthetic choices through various readings of Harper Lee s beloved character Atticus Finch The first book to employ a law and humanities approach to delve into the institution of the trial and what it means in different legal systems at different historical times this book will appeal to academics students and others with interests in legal history law and popular culture and law and the humanities

Aesthetics across Cultures Rosy Singh, 2023-12-18 This book critically examines the mutual illuminations between literature religion architecture films performative arts paintings woodworks memes and masks cutting across time and space Architecture is a good example where the eventual success of a project depends on the harmony between physical sciences and aesthetics design and planning knowledge of building material the local climate and awareness of cultural sensibilities This volume affirms that aesthetics and arts are deeply linked through existential issues of who I am The chapters in this volume present diverse discursive structures highlighting the in between spaces between various art forms and mediums such as Architecture literature and memory Kafka in SoHo Kafka and Bernhard Kirchner s woodcuts pictorial and stage representations of E T A Hoffmann Hesse s fairy tales translations of Pa catantra Nietzsche ritual arts and face masks martyrdom in La chanson de Roland Goethe and Hafiz Indian thought in Martin Buber Rhythms of the Third across cultures Dadaism and contemporary memes This book examines these sublime linkages in a comparative and interdisciplinary way Engaging and intersectional this volume will appeal to students and scholars of arts and aesthetics literature philosophy architecture sociology translation studies and readers who are interested in cultural intertextual intermedial and comparative studies

Cases and Maps Mark Coppenger, 2019-07-12 A dying man hires the services of a cannibal a customs official insults a world class sculptor a farmer complains that low flying bombers are killing his chickens two rock groups claim the same name a monkey takes a selfie and a minister with mail order credentials performs a wedding The resulting court cases and sixteen others serve to introduce a wide range of philosophical notions such as libertarianism speciesism and speech acts Next a subway employee draws a revolutionary map a mountain loses its name a strange cineplex puts people in each others movies the art museums of Madrid loom over neighboring buildings a nautical chart guides seamen into a Connecticut port and Jerusalem stands due north of the Mediterranean These maps twenty three in all whether real or imaginary introduce yet other philosophical notions such as pragmatism universals and paradigms Along the way in both sections we meet a wide range of thinkers from Plato to Aquinas to Hume to Kant to Searle The explanations and discussion questions are written from a Christian perspective inviting believers to join in the perennial dialogue with the conviction that if you don't have philosophical and theological positions sorted out then they will have you
