Kylie Stillman often uses the fore edge of books—the part that faces inward when a book is shelved—as her point of entry. She secures a stack of books to create her cutting block, and then carves out a bird, a branch, or a flower in a pot. The contrast of field between the plant and its container can be hypnotic. In Hanging Basket—Fieldstone Fern, the pot hangs on its three strands of chain from a trompe l'oeil hook Stillman has carved into the uppermost two volumes in a tall stack (p. 151).

Some artists specialize in flipping books inside out, which can turn the pages into a cylinder. By folding each successive page in on itself in exactly the same way, Yvette Hawkins creates jewel-like little sculptures. In her installation No Land in Particular, 2010, she arranges hundreds of cylinders into a dense landscape of orderly tree stumps, or perhaps they are new shoots, which then start climbing up the gallery wall, forming a DNA chain of literary creation (p. 80).

Arden Dylan sculpts the edges of paperbacks and then turns them inside out to create forms that look like smooth little orbs or ornaments or fruits. When hung together, they suggest a galaxy or a succulent garden. Dylan uses the same technique in The Order and the Chaos, a full set of these pieces on a board (p. 79).

American Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art: A catalogue of works by artists born before 1865 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Laretta Dimmick, Donna J. Hassler, 1999 Volume One This volume catalogues the distinguished and comprehensive collection of approximately 400 works of American sculpture by artists born before 1865 This publication includes an introduction on the history of the collection s formation particularly in the context of the Museum s early years of acquisitions and discusses the outstanding personalities involved Metropolitan Museum of Art website Encyclopedia of World Art: Supplement: World art in our time, 1983 Ancient Egypt Transformed Adela Oppenheim, Dorothea Arnold, Dieter Arnold, Kei Yamamoto, 2015-10-12 The Middle Kingdom ca 2030 1650 B C was a transformational period in ancient Egypt during which older artistic conventions cultural principles religious beliefs and political systems were revived and reimagined Ancient Egypt Transformed presents a comprehensive picture of the art of the Middle Kingdom arguably the least known of Egypt s three kingdoms and yet one that saw the creation of powerful compelling works rendered with great subtlety and sensitivity The book brings together nearly 300 diverse works including sculpture relief decoration stelae jewelry coffins funerary objects and personal possessions from the world s leading collections of Egyptian art Essays on architecture statuary tomb and temple relief decoration and stele explore how Middle Kingdom artists adapted forms and iconography of the Old Kingdom using existing conventions to create strikingly original works Twelve lavishly illustrated chapters each with a scholarly essay and entries on related objects begin with discussions of the distinctive art that arose in the south during the early Middle Kingdom the artistic developments that followed the return to Egypt s traditional capital in the north and the renewed construction of pyramid complexes Thematic chapters devoted to the pharaoh royal women the court and the vital role of family explore art created for different strata of Egyptian society while others provide insight into Egypt s expanding relations with foreign lands and the themes of Middle Kingdom literature The era s religious beliefs and practices such as the pilgrimage to Abydos are revealed through magnificent objects created for tombs chapels and temples Finally the book discusses Middle Kingdom archaeological sites including excavations undertaken by the Metropolitan Museum over a number of decades Written by an international team of respected Egyptologists and Middle Kingdom specialists the text provides recent scholarship and fresh insights making the book an authoritative resource Mutilation and Transformation Eric Varner,2004-06-01 The condemnation of memory inexorably altered the visual landscape of imperial Rome Representations of bad emperors such as Caligula Nero Domitian Commodus or Elagabalus were routinely reconfigured into likenesses of victorious successors or revered predecessors Alternatively portraits could be physically attacked and mutilated or even executed in effigy From the late first century B C until the fourth century A D the recycling and destruction of images of emperors empresses and other members of the imperial family occurred on a vast scale and often marked periods of violent political transition This volume catalogues and interprets the sculptural glyptic numismatic and epigraphic evidence for damnatio memoriae and ultimately reveals its praxis to be at the core of Roman cultural identity Educational Media Resources on Egypt University of Michigan. Audio-Visual Education Center,1977 A Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels James Hastings,2004-10 The purpose of this dictionary is to give an account of everything that relates to Christ His Person Life Work and Teaching It is in a sense complementary to the Dictionary of the Bible in which of course Christ has a great place But a dictionary of the Bible being occupied mainly with things biographical historical geographical or antiquarian does not give attention to the things of Christ sufficient for the needs of the preacher to whom Christ is everything This is first of all a preacher s dictionary The authors of the articles have been carefully chosen from among those scholars who are or have been themselves preachers And even when the articles have the same titles as articles in the Dictionary of the Bible they are written by new men and from a new standpoint It is thus a work which is quite distinct from and altogether independent of the Dictionary of the Bible It is called a Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels because it includes everything that the Gospels contain whether directly related to Christ or not Its range however is far greater than that of the Gospels It seeks to cover all that relates to Christ throughout the Bible and in the life and literature of the world There will be articles on the Patristic estimate of Jesus the Medieval estimate the Reformation and Modern estimates There will be articles on Christ in the Jewish writings and in the Muslim literature Much attention has been given to modern thought whether Christian or anti Christian Every aspect of modern life in so far as it touches or is touched by Christ is described under its proper title James Hastings 1852 1922 was a distinguished scholar and pastor He was founder and editor of the Expository Times and is also well known for editing the five volume Dictionary of the Bible as well as the Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics the Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels and the Dictionary of the Apostolic Church Chocolate Louis E. Grivetti,Howard-Yana Shapiro,2011-09-20 International Association of Culinary Professionals IACP 2010 Award Finalists in the Culinary History category Chocolate We all love it but how much do we really know about it In addition to pleasing palates since ancient times chocolate has played an integral role in culture society religion medicine and economic development across the Americas Africa Asia and Europe In 1998 the Chocolate History

Group was formed by the University of California Davis and Mars Incorporated to document the fascinating story and history of chocolate This book features fifty seven essays representing research activities and contributions from more than 100 members of the group These contributors draw from their backgrounds in such diverse fields as anthropology archaeology biochemistry culinary arts gender studies engineering history linguistics nutrition and paleography The result is an unparalleled scholarly examination of chocolate beginning with ancient pre Columbian civilizations and ending with twenty first century reports Here is a sampling of some of the fascinating topics explored inside the book Ancient gods and Christian celebrations chocolate and religion Chocolate and the Boston smallpox epidemic of 1764 Chocolate pots reflections of cultures values and times Pirates prizes and profits cocoa and early American east coast trade Blood conflict and faith chocolate in the southeast and southwest borderlands of North America Chocolate in France evolution of a luxury product Development of concept maps and the chocolate research portal Not only does this book offer careful documentation it also features new and previously unpublished information and interpretations of chocolate history Moreover it offers a wealth of unusual and interesting facts and folklore about one of the world s favorite foods

The Art of Renaissance Venice

Norbert Huse,Wolfgang Wolters,1993-10-30 Norbert Huse and Wolfgang Wolters provide the first contemporary single volume survey of the three arts of Venice painting sculpture and architecture They offer an important counterbalance to the traditional orientation toward painting as the city s preeminent art by focusing on architecture as the essential Venetian artistic medium In the process they define the distinctly Venetian terms by which the city and culture should be understood Huse and Wolters begin their study with 1460 when Venice was one of the key powers of Italy and end their discussion with the death of Tintoretto in 1594 a period of waning international power Wolfgang Wolters outlines the city s development and present a typological survey of Venetian architecture A review of sculptors and their works follows Norbert Huse opens the next section on painting by describing the changed situation of painters at the end of the fifteenth century He explores the different forms and functions of Venetian paintings in three distinct periods With over three hundred illustrations and an exhaustive bibliography this volume successfully fills a gap in art historical scholarship From publisher s description

Sturgis' Illustrated Dictionary of Architecture and Building Russell Sturgis,Francis A. Davis,2013-03-27 Volume 1 of monumental 3 volume classic offers comprehensive and detailed coverage of architectural terms individuals and national styles Total in set over 100 photographs and more than 1 000 illustrations Bibliography Hellenistic Architectural Sculpture Pamela A. Webb,1996 Sculpted figural motifs were an important component of many buildings in the Hellenistic world and their frequent relegation to subsidiary status has until now left our knowledge of both Hellenistic architecture and sculpture incomplete In Hellenistic Architectural Sculpture Pamela A Webb examines the full range of figural embellishment from simple to complex on large monuments as well as on more obscure ones and in the major population centers as well as the smaller cities sanctuaries and isolated areas throughout western Anatolia and the Aegean islands In this book the first to focus specifically on the figural adornment of Hellenistic architecture Webb provides extensive information about the chronology and interpretation of figural motifs adorning religious civic commercial commemorative and domestic constructions She finds that figural sculptures adorn structures at every level from the ground to the roof and display a wide variety of motifs on such architectural elements as columns walls entablatures and pediments More than 130 illustrations of Hellenistic monuments temples altars cult buildings heroa theaters bouleuteria stoas gymnasia and houses and their sculptured adornment complement the author s descriptions and analyses The book features an extensive bibliography citing resources from the early nineteenth century to the most recent publications Journal of the American Institute for
