The Ethics of a Potential Urbanism Camillo Boano, 2016-11-25 The Ethics of a Potential Urbanism explores the possible and potential relevance of Giorgio Agamben's political thoughts and writings for the theory and the practice of architecture and urban design It sketches out the potentiality of Agamben's politics which can affect change in current architectural and design discourses The book investigates the possibility of an inoperative architecture as an ethical shift for a different practice just a little bit different but able to deactivate the sociospatial dispositive and mobilize a new theory and a new project for the urban now to come This particular reading from Agamben's oeuvre suggests a destituent mode of both thinking and practicing of architecture and urbanism that could possibly redeem them from their social emptiness cultural irrelevance economic reductionism and proto avant garde extravagance contributing to a renewed critical encounter with architecture's aesthetic political function

The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones, 2016 The first major history of the glamorous art biennial Biennials have proliferated across the globe since the end of the Cold War and have now stabilized at about 200 a year While this quintessentially contemporary form has significant roots in the world expositions of the 19th century Jones argues that the biennial is also the platform for an important new aesthetic shift Moving away from a focus on visual looking in the mid 20th century the art world today embraces experience art fairs give the feel of closeness and spaciousness crowds and they engage all our senses even taste Jones argues that the dominance of installation art and the simultaneous rise of biennials or recurring art fairs need to be examined as joint phenomena mutually reinforcing and linked to specific geo political and aesthetic conditions From the rise of tourism to the flows of art commerce Jones hatches a new way to track the development of international art fairs in nearly every corner of the globe from the early world fairs of London Paris Chicago and New York to art fairs proper in Venice Sao Paulo Havana Berlin Lyon and Beijing as well as Kassel s Documenta Whitney Biennial and more all explained through a rapidly evolving aesthetics of experience that has never until now been addressed in such a substantial way

Artists' Things Katie Scott, Hannah Williams, 2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau Francois Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vig e LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard s color box and Jacques Louis David s table Others survive only in paintings such as Jean Sim on Chardin s cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like Francois Lemoyne s sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau s pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists-things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available

Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt Alice Stevenson, 2025-01-16 Artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient Egypt Installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other Instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them Rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by Egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the Egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated Building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the British Museum in London the Egyptian Museum in Turin and the State Museum of Egyptian Art in Munich These are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions It ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research Praise for Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt This is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of Egyptian antiquities Offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and Egyptologists Stephanie Moser University of Southampton Archaeologist Alice Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient Egyptian art She challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration I look forward to such dialogue Kara Cooney UCLA
