Feminist Art in Resistance Elif Dastarlı, F. Melis Cin, 2023-02-11 This book provides a thorough interdisciplinary analysis of the ways in which artists have engaged with political and feminist grassroots movements to characterise a new direction in the production of feminist art The authors conceptualise feminist art in Turkey through the lens of feminist philosophy by offering a historical analysis of how feminism and art interacts analysing emerging feminist artwork and exploring the ways in which feminist art as a form opens alternative political spaces of social collectivities and dissent to address epistemic injustices The book also explores how the global art and feminist movements particularly in Europe have manifested themselves in the art scenery of Turkey and argues that feminist art has transformed into a form of political and protest art which challenges the hegemonic masculinity dominating the aesthetic debates and political sphere It is an invaluable reading for students and scholars of sociology of art gender studies and political sociology

The Public Life of Cinema Toby Lee, 2020-11-10 Is culture a luxury In this era of austerity the value of the arts has been a topic of heated debate in Greece where the country's economic troubles have led to drastic cuts in public funding and much contention over the significance of cultural institutions and government funded arts initiatives At issue in these debates are larger questions regarding the very notions of publicness hierarchies of value and functions of the state that structure collective life Beginning with the Thessaloniki International Film Festival How to Be Public tracks this turbulence as it unfolded in the Greek film world in the early years of the crisis Investigating the different forms of citizenship and collectivity being negotiated in cinema's social spaces this book considers how the arts and cultural production may illuminate the changing conditions of and possibilities for public and collective life in the neoliberal era
