Coup Brij V. Lal, Michael Pretes, 2008-12-01 May 19 2000 Fiji's democratically elected multiracial government is hijacked by a group of armed gunmen led by George Speight and held hostage for fifty days Suva the capital is torched and looted as Speight's supporters gather on the lawns of the parliamentary complex dancing cooking food celebrating the purported abrogation of the constitution that brought the People's Coalition government to power The country is plunged into darkness yet again enduring the pain of three coups in a period of just thirteen years The process of healing and reconciliation symbolised by the enactment of a new Constitution unanimously approved by Parliament and blessed by the powerful Great Council of Chiefs lies discarded as winds of ethnic chauvinism sweep through the countryside damaging the fragile fabric of multiculturalism that was carefully constructed by so many over many years The economy is on the brink of collapse investor confidence has vanished and the best and the brightest are seeking succour on other shores Fiji falls victim yet again to the prejudice and greed of a section of its people This book gathers together a handful of memoirs of those tragic events in Fiji They were written while the gun was still smoking personal anguished reactions of people from all walks of life concerned about a country they all love but deeply distressed by the developments there They are first reactions They will in time become essential building blocks for a larger interpretive framework of academic analysis about origins processes and impacts Straight from the heart these memoirs will be remembered as the people of Fiji and their friends elsewhere contemplate the wreckage and ruin brought about by that act of madness in the month of May 2000

Hamilton Literary Magazine ,1887 Christianity, Islam and Atheism William Kilpatrick,2012-09-26 For many Americans the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 was the first time they had considered Islam Were the terrorists motivated by the true dictates of their religion or had they hijacked Islam as well as the planes in a political cause unrelated to the teachings of Muhammad Christianity Islam and Atheism argues that Islam is a religion of conquest and subjugation and that in spite of 9 11 and thousands of other terrorist attacks throughout the world many in the

West still do not know or admit this because it conflicts with their multiculturalism and their belief in the equivalence of all cultures and religions To meet the challenge from Islam Christians need to know more about the important differences between Islam and Christianity yet many have been lulled into complacency by the misleading and largely unexamined assumption that the two religions are similar The time that Christians spend in pursuing common ground is time that Islamic activists will use to press their radical agenda In addition to challenging both the multicultural and common ground approaches William Kilpatrick also exposes the role played by atheists and secularists in advancing Islam Despite paying lip service to freedom radical secularists serve as enablers of radical Islam The civil liberties that the West enjoys are the fruit of Christian civilization Kilpatrick argues and only a reawakened Christianity can defend them against Islam's advance
