Boon, Erica Gelser, 2019-04-27 This essay collection studies the Apocalypse and the end of the world as these themes occupied the minds of biblical scholars theologians and ordinary people in Antiquity the Middle Ages and Early Modernity It opens with an innovative series of studies on Gendering the Apocalypse devoted to the texts and contexts of the apocalyptic through the lens of gender A second section of essays studies the more traditional problem of Apocalyptic Theory and Exegesis with a focus on authors such as Augustine of Hippo and Joachim of Fiore A final series of essays extends the thematic scope to The Eschaton in Political Liturgical and Literary Contexts In these essays scholars of history theology and literature create a dialogue that considers how fear of the end of the world among the most pervasive emotions in human experience underlies a great part of Western cultural production A Treatise of the Sibyls, so highly celebrated, as well by the ancient heathens, as the holy fathers of the Church ... Englished by J. D. (J. Davies.). David BLONDEL,1661 The Casa del Deán Penny C. Morrill,2023-09-15 The Casa del De n in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tom s de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del De n presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tom s de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyphic traditions with pre Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tom s s erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del De n mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning

Christianity, Empire, and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M. Schott,2013-04-23 In Christianity Empire and the Making of Religion in Late Antiquity Jeremy M Schott examines the ways in which conflicts between Christian and pagan intellectuals over religious ethnic and cultural identity contributed to the transformation of Roman imperial rhetoric and ideology in the early fourth century C E During this turbulent period which began with Diocletian s persecution of the Christians and ended with Constantine s assumption of sole rule and the consolidation of a new Christian empire Christian apologists and anti Christian polemicists launched a number of literary salvos in a battle for the minds and souls of the empire Schott focuses on the works of the Platonist philosopher and anti Christian polemicist Porphyry of Tyre and his Christian respondents the Latin rhetorician Lactantius Eusebius bishop of Caesarea and the emperor Constantine Previous scholarship has tended to narrate the Christianization of the empire in terms of a new religion s penetration and conquest of classical culture and society The present work in contrast seeks to suspend the static essentializing conceptualizations of religious identity that lie behind many studies of social and political change in late antiquity in order to investigate the processes through which Christian and pagan identities were constructed Drawing on the insights of postcolonial discourse analysis Schott argues that the production of Christian identity and in turn the construction of a Christian imperial discourse were intimately and inseparably linked to the broader politics of Roman imperialism Historic Magazine and Notes and

Milton Timmons,2003-02 Visit the author s website at www.miltontimmons.com Heretofore it has required years of study access to many rare books and superhuman effort to cut through the nearly impenetrable prose of these ancient books Now all the hard work has been done for you in this easy to read summary The project began during the course of collecting background material for a novel about the origins of Christianity when it soon became apparent that reliable information was very scarce Perhaps half the books that shaped Western concepts of religion have ceased to exist Many were destroyed as heretical after the early ecumenical councils closed the biblical canon in the fourth century others have simply turned to dust The oldest biblical manuscripts in existence are the Dead Sea Scrolls which go back to approximately 100 B C E And the oldest Christian manuscripts are those found in the Gnostic library of Nag Hammadi in Egypt written in the fourth century C E But they don t contain any of the canonical books All other information comes to us via copies of copies Before invention of the printing press in 1450 all replication was by hand which allowed countless variations to creep into texts Especially after translation into multiple languages many stories evolved into a wide spectrum of versions Which is the true version It is impossible to say The aim of this volume is to be concise rather than exhaustive thus making available to general readers the main sources of Judeo Christian thought without the distraction of scholarly disputes For the benefit of those who may question the interpretation of certain documents or who wish more information about original sources a selected bibliography is included It should be remembered that the books in this volume were written by very primitive people who were trying to make sense of the world with the only information they had But even in those days most of these authors were not considered educated by their Greek and Roman contemporaries Moreover the Jewish and Christian leaders who created the biblical canon rejected the majority of these documents as products of overheated imagination So there are times when descriptions necessarily become a bit whimsical Always however the goal has been to cover the author s main points while eliminating only the extraneous Even though many of these books did not end up in any authorized Bible they have nevertheless been extremely influential in the evolution of religious traditions To this day sermons theological doctrines and Sunday school lessons are still based on these extra canonical sources Where did medieval artists get the idea for all those paintings about the Assumption of the Virgin There s nothing in the Bible about any such event How do Catholics justify their doctrine that Mary remained a virgin all her life even though the Bible says Jesus had several brothers and sisters Where did Dante Alighieri get his concepts about the levels of hell Where did John Milton get the plot for his story about Lucifer the fallen angel The documents contained in this book are where those ideas and a myriad others all came from

The Invention of the Inspired Text John C. Poirier, 2021-02-25 John C Poirier examines the theopneustic nature of the Scripture as a response to the view that inspiration lies at the heart of most contemporary Christian theology In contrast to the traditional rendering of the Greek word theopneustos as God inspired in 2 Tim 3 16 Poirier argues that a close look at first and second century uses of theopneustos reveals that the traditional inspirationist understanding of the term did not arise until the time of Origen in the early third century CE and that in every pre Origen use of theopneustos the word instead means life giving Poirier thus conducts a detailed investigation of theopneustos as it appears in the fifth Sibylline Oracle the Testament of Abraham Vettius Valens Pseudo Plutarch Placita Philosophorum and Pseudo Phocylides all of whom understand the word to mean life giving He also studies the use of the cognate term theopnous in Numenius the Corpus Hermeticum on an inscription at the Great Sphinx of Giza and on an inscription at a nymphaeum at Laodicea on the Lycus Poirier argues that a rendering of life giving also fits better within the context of 2 Tim 3 16 and that this meaning survived late enough to figure in a fifth century work by Nonnus of Panopolis He further traces the pre Origen use of theopneustos among the Church Fathers Poirier concludes by addressing the implication of rethinking the traditional understanding of Scripture stressing that the lack of God inspired scripture ultimately does not affect the truth status of the gospel as preached by the apostles
