Around the World in 80 Days (Illustrated) Adriel Brandt,2023-06-21 Travel around the world with the perpetually unruffled Phileas Fogg and his stalwart French valet Passepartout in this new update of the classic novel s original English translation 150 years after its publication Laugh at the ironic jibes and the bumbling Detective Fix gasp at the high adventure and perilous misadventures and feel the thrill of haste and ingenuity but no longer wince at badly aged language and harmful stereotypes This gentle modernization changes only as much as necessary and retains everything that has made this novel an immortal classic Genuinely funny and duly iconic Jules Verne s greatest classic will hopefully continue to inspire and delight readers for another 150 years The humble adjustments of this edition are meant to benefit this happy legacy Never read it before Have fond memories of reading it as a young un when Cowboys Indians was an innocent game for white children to play It s a genuine delight to experience freshly or again but spend a few dollars on this edition instead of reading the free version from 1873 and avoid the racist stereotypes This new edition offers Unique postage stamp illustrations at the top of every chapter Corrected editorial and translation errors New historical context and factual trivia Adjusted language and an entire lack of racial slurs Enriched locations with more accurate descriptions Improved and corrected geography and chronology Real historical poetry and references Trans man Mr Fogg All the above with period accurate Vernian diction
