Art Facilitation For Special Needs Populations Definitions And Teaching Insights:

Art Therapy And Psychotherapy Victoria D. Coleman, Phoebe Farris-Dufrene, 2014-07-16 As the world changes rapidly there exists a challenge to develop new conceptualizations paradigms definitions and strategies for surviving in an intensely competitive global community In response to these changes helping professionals must expand their knowledge of therapeutic approaches and re evaluate their philosophies and objectives in order to interact effectively with diverse populations Enabling therapists and educators an opportunity to embrace two modalities at once this text applies a combined approach to individual family and group counselling situations The authors contend that the use of artistic expression as an element of the counselling prescription transcends age race culture and gender in its effectiveness Hence art therapy blended with and enhanced by traditional psychotherapy lends itself naturally to the multifaceted clientele of the 21st century Presented first in this resource is a theoretical framework for art therapy and psychotherapy and a thorough review of the existing literature The authors then discuss integration of theory into practice through case studies complete with original client artwork The final chapters focus on other important issues including ethical and legal considerations multicultural concerns career development and further implications for the field Resources in Education ,2000-10

Special Needs, Community Music, and Adult Learning Gary McPherson, Graham F. Welch, 2018 Designed for music teachers students and scholars of music education as well as educational administrators and policy makers this fourth book in the set focuses on issues and topics that help to broaden conceptions of music and musical involvement while recognising that development occurs through many forms A critical appraisal of research in arts, health and wellbeing Stephen Clift, Gunter Kreutz, Stephen Pritchard, Michael Koon Boon Tan, Kai Lehtikainen, Andre De Quadros, Esther Coren, Kate Phillips, 2023-06-23 Visual Arts Research ,2004 Designing and Facilitating Workshops with Intentionality Tolulope Noah, 2025-06-25 Designing and Facilitating Workshops with Intentionality offers practical guidance tools and resources to assist practitioners in creating effective engaging workshops for adult learners Drawing from three key learning frameworks and the author's considerable expertise in facilitating workshops across both educational and corporate settings this book focuses on ten essential principles to consider when developing professional learning experiences Whether facilitating on site or virtually readers will gain a deeper understanding of how to design and facilitate workshops with an inclusive mindset thus creating meaningful active learning opportunities that result in greater involvement among participants and better feedback Guiding questions chapter takeaways and a compendium of additional online resources supply plentiful opportunities to further build and fine tune these skills Within these pages both new and seasoned facilitators will find inspiration encouragement and support as they craft professional learning experiences that ignite curiosity and spark growth in all learners Incarcerated Young People, Education and Social Justice Kitty te Riele, Tim Corcoran, Fiona MacDonald, Alison Baker, Julie White, 2023-03-31 This book foregrounds the provision of education for young people who have been remanded or sentenced into custody Both international conventions and national legislation and guidelines in many countries point to the right of children and young people to access education while they are incarcerated Moreover education is often seen as an important protective and rehabilitative factor However the conditions associated with incarceration generate particular challenges for enabling participation in education Bridging the fields of education and youth justice this book offers a social justice analysis through the lens of participatory parity the book brings together rare interviews with staff and young people in youth justice settings in Australia secondary data from these sites a suite of pertinent and frank reports and international scholarship Drawing on this rich set of material the book demonstrates not only the challenges but also the possibilities for education as a conduit for social justice in custodial youth justice The book will be of immediate relevance to governments and youth justice staff for meaningfully meeting their obligation of enabling children and young people in custody to benefit from education and of interest to scholars and researchers in education youth work and criminology

In the making: Digital fabrication and disability Ursula Kate Hurley, 2020-07-14 Digital fabrication combines virtual and material worlds transforming thoughts into things and things into data It fosters complex and varied communities while enabling the pursuit of unique individual outputs Current literature on digital fabrication concentrates on its technical and economic potential with little attention yet being paid to the fundamental questions of how the technology might affect our understanding of identity embodiment or creative processes Using case studies and experiences gained from ground breaking fieldwork In the Making explores these processes and their products from both cultural and aesthetic perspectives with emphasis on its human interactions not on technology Embracing the absence of established methodologies in their emerging area of investigation this volume offers a series of wide ranging and original interdisciplinary framings which arise from the materials themselves That very act of imagining of selecting and committing to an envisaged but not yet physically present product offers insights into needs and desires What is the story of that design How did it come to be The basic principles of digital fabrication the transformation from concept to physical entity offer intriguing possibilities for aesthetic and cultural readings particularly from the perspectives of disability Online open access maker communities mean that anyone with an internet connection and a desktop 3D printer is able to download and print a wide variety of replicable and customisable objects What might this mean for disabled people As digital fabrication technologies enter mainstream society In the making poses urgently applicable questions about presence existence and authenticity and begins to suggest how we might explore them
