Bernini Ephemeral and Preparatory Sculpture Genevieve Warwick,2025-04-29 Taking up questions of artists materials and technical processes currently at the vanguard of art historical scholarship this book studies the contiguity and interchange of workshop methods in the linked fabrication of both ephemeral and preparatory works by Bernini Genevieve Warwick argues that the ephemeral arts of ritual occasion acted as a locus of artistic experiment for the artist in many respects similar to his use of preparatory models to suggest that Bernini s artistry sprang from the fabric of ritual in both material and cultural terms From processional floats to court stage sets for the ritual occasions of church and state such ephemeral arts were largely made of wax clay papier m ch wood stucco and plaster assembled into scenographic ensembles with textiles canvas and paint Similarly Bernini s preparatory models for marble or bronze sculpture were of plaster and clay even mud and straw or wax and painted wood as plentiful and affordable materials that were readily available for use and reuse as required This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history and Renaissance studies

Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones,2013-12-16 In the first book of its kind art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats print sources CD ROMS documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results The book is divided into three sections Basic Information Formats Types of Websites and How to Find Them and How to Use Web Information Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art historical styles artists working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education writing about art problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art This title will be periodically updated

Material Bernini Evonne Levy,Carolina Mangone,2016-04-14 Bringing together established and emerging specialists in seventeenth century Italian sculpture Material Bernini is the first sustained examination of the conspicuous materiality of Bernini s work in sculpture architecture and paint The various essays demonstrate that material Bernini has always been tied whether theologically geologically politically or in terms of art theory to his immaterial twin Here immaterial Bernini and the historiography that sustains him is finally confronted by material Bernini Central to the volume are Bernini s works in clay a fragmentary record of a large body of preparatory works by a sculptor who denied any direct relation between sketches of any kind and final works Read together the essays call into question why those works in which Bernini s bodily relation to the material of his art is most evident his clay studies have been configured as a point of unmediated access to the artist s mind to his immaterial ideas This insight reveals a set of values and assumptions that have profoundly shaped Bernini studies from their inception and opens up new and compelling avenues of inquiry within a field that has long remained remarkably self enclosed

Copyright Office,1961 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December Looking for Lines Paul Akker,2025-10-01 Studies of Old Masters are often implicitly based on modern notions which do not necessarily tally with ideas contemporary with their art According to one such tacit assumption a work of art gains its status from the quality of the abstract pictorial composition made up of lines and colours Whether discussing a medieval altarpiece or a fresco by Raphael it is customary to relate its artistic value to the abstract formal language into which the figures or narratives are translated and not to the power of the visual illusion which is conjured up by the work of art Referring to the ideas of art historians critics and philosophers including Hogarth Caylus

Goethe Schnaase Burckhardt W Ifflin and Shearman this theoretically revolutionary study questions the historical validity of this view by tracking down its origins back to the eighteenth century and then following its evolution up to the present day Paying particular attention to the historiography of Mannerism it scrutinises the influence that this view has had on aesthetic judgments over the past three centuries A perfect companion for anyone engaged with aesthetics this book offers a valuable contribution to the discussion surrounding the principles and values in art history Guide to the Literature of Art History Etta Arntzen, Robert Rainwater, 1980 Renaissance Theory James Elkins, Robert Williams, 2008-04 Renaissance Theory presents an animated conversation among art historians about the optimal ways of conceptualizing Renaissance art and the links between Renaissance art and contemporary art and theory This is the first discussion of its kind involving not only questions within Renaissance scholarship but issues of concern to art historians and critics in all fields Organized as a virtual roundtable discussion the contributors discuss rifts and disagreements about how to understand the Renaissance and debate the principal texts and authors of the last thirty years who have sought to reconceptualize the period They then turn to the issue of the relation between modern art and the Renaissance Why do modern art historians and critics so seldom refer to the Renaissance Is the Renaissance our indispensable heritage or are we cut off from it by the revolution of modernism The volume includes an introduction by Rebecca Zorach and two final synoptic essays as well as contributions from some of the most prominent thinkers on Renaissance art including Stephen Campbell Michael Cole Frederika Jakobs Claire Farago and Matt Kavalier Music Curriculum Guides Harold Walton Arberg, 1964 Attending to Early Modern Women Susan Dwyer Amussen, Adele F. Seeff, 1998 This volume continues and amplifies a series of conversations initiated in 1990 at the conference Attending to Women in Early Modern England sponsored by the University of Maryland's Center for Renaissance and Baroque Studies on the College Park campus The volume celebrates the work of the almost 400 scholars who contributed as plenary speakers workshop leaders and participants to Attending to Early Modern Women held in April 1994 once again at the University of Maryland at College Park
