Arts for Change Beverly Naidus, 2009-04-01 Arts for Change presents strategies and theory for teaching socially engaged art with an historical and contemporary overview of the field The book features interviews with over thirty maverick artists faculty from colleges and universities in the United States Canada and Great Britain whose pedagogy is drawn from and informs activist arts practice The issues these teaching artists address are provocative and diverse Some came to this work through personal healing from injustice and trauma or by witnessing oppressions that became intolerable Many have taught for decades deeply influenced by social movements of the 1960s and 1970s yet because the work is controversial tenured positions are rare

Conversations with Bernard Malamud Bernard Malamud, 1991 During his teaching career Bernard Malamud taught both creative writing and literature courses and indicated that he almost never taught his own works since an author cannot dictate the total meaning of his work to a classroom He was consistently reluctant in interviews as well to explain his fiction He valued imaginative interpretations whether I agree with them or not He rejected the notion that there was a correct interpretation of his work

Aesthetics and Anthropology Ina-Maria Greverus, Ute Ritschel, 2009 Aesthetics and Anthropology is a collection of contributions by an international and interdisciplinary team of authors from the fields of anthropology performance studies curatorial studies and the arts The title refers to the paths that lead to the in between and the beyonds of aura and trace in the representation of life that is performed in aesthetic reflexivity Aesthetic reflexivity refers not only to the authors' attempts at an interdisciplinary encounter with one another but also to their encounter with the readers and with the recipients of an intended message in an aesthetic dialogue Our approach is innovative in that it looks upon aesthetics as a topos of the living We seek to capture the present discourse of ethnographic and aesthetic disciplinary turns with the intent of bringing them together in theory and practice Here academics and artists approach one another s respective forms of representation in a Gesamtkunstwerk of texts and images The book presents experimental approaches and interdisciplinary turns and hoped for interactions between anthropologists and artists and recipients of aesthetic encounters We believe this is presently the most innovative pathway to interdisciplinary encounters with aesthetics You the readers meet us the artists and authors of an aesthetic reflexivity Are we tricksters in an aesthetic turn toward performing life and reflecting performed lives in the in between

Where Heaven and Earth Meet W. Stoker, 2012-01-01 Art has always been important for religion or spirituality Secular art displayed in museums can also be spiritual and it is this art that is the subject of this book Many of the works of art produced by Wassily Kandinsky Mark Rothko Andy Warhol and Anselm Kiefer are spiritual in nature These works reveal their own spirituality which often has no connection to official religions Wessel Stoker demonstrates that these artists communicate religious insights through images and shows how they depict the relationship between heaven and earth between this world and a transcendent reality thus clearly drawing the contours of the spirituality these works evince 12
