The Role of Leadership Educators Kathy L. Guthrie, Daniel M. Jenkins, 2018-02-01 Leadership as a discipline leadership education as a field and leadership educator as a profession are still in their infancy and rapidly evolving As professionals in higher education we are constantly asked to provide opportunities for students to learn leadership whether that is inside or outside of the classroom However very little if any professional development occurs in how to create such learning opportunities This book provides resources for leadership educators in three sections The first section sets the stage for leadership education and the professional work of leadership educators culminating with a variety of professional development resources for leadership educators The second section introduces a leadership learning framework provides characteristics and examples of strong leadership programs and assessment practices and describes the transformative practice of leadership education The third and final section offers specific instructional and assessment strategies ranging from discussion case study and reflection to team based and service learning to self assessments role play simulation and games to fulfill learning outcomes

The Senior International Officer as Change Agent John D. Heyl, Fiona J. H. Hunter, 2023-07-03 Published by Distributed by Stylus This new edition reflects the dramatic changes that have taken place across the world in higher education in the decade since it first was published and addresses how they specifically impact international education and inform the role of senior international officer SIO today Declining public investment in higher education and a negative political climate have increasingly led to the commercialization of international education activities and the expectation they should pay for themselves by levying fees or seeking outside funding In addition today's international education leadership faces several contradictory realities While inexorable trends in globalization continue to stimulate higher levels of participation in international study and exchange its impacts such as increased migration global terrorism and the populist resistance they have provoked are shifting institutional priorities from those of greater openness and global understanding to those of profitability and security Facing these issues and the global competition for student talent at a time of declining enrollments the impacts of technology the increasing diversity on campus pressures to partner across borders changing emphases in institutional mission and the expectations of both parents and students in gaining a global perspective during university studies it s clear that the key issue facing SIOs is managing change as colleges and universities seek to strengthen professionalize and centralize or in some cases decentralize their international offices
