The Scholar's Art Jerome McGann, 2006-05-15 For Jerome McGann the purpose of scholarship is to preserve and pass on cultural heritage a feat accomplished through discussion among scholars and interested nonspecialists In The Scholar's Art a collection of thirteen essays McGann both addresses and exemplifies that discussion and the vocation it supports Of particular interest to McGann is the demise of public discourse about poetry That poetry has become recondite is to his mind at once a problem for how scholars do their work and a general cultural emergency The Scholar's Art asks what could be gained by reimagining the way scholars have codified the literary and cultural history of the past two hundred years and goes on to provide a series of case studies that illustrate how scholarly method can help bring about such reimaginings McGann closes with a discussion of technology's ability to harness the reimagination of cultural memory and concludes with exemplary acts of critical reflection Astute observation from one of America's most bracing and original commentators on the place of literature in twenty first century culture The Scholar's Art proposes new ways cultural philological and technological to reimagine our literary past and future

A Broken Beauty Theodore L. Prescott, 2005 A Broken Beauty examines recent ideas about beauty and the human image in light of the Western Classical and Christian traditions of the human figure The book s five essays trace the historical fusion of Classical and Christian ideas about beauty as well as their rejection by much modern art provocatively suggesting that the difficulties encountered by the beautiful in modernity may be related to a loss of faith This volume culminates in a look at fifteen postmodern North American artists whose haunting pieces unite brokenness and beauty in a way that is uncommon within contemporary art These artists like the book s essayists find significance in beauty that is cultivated amidst the perennial human struggle for goodness meaning and dignity BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Renaissance in Italian Art (sculpture and Painting): Padua, Verona, Ferrara, Parma, Venice Selwyn Brinton,1898 Heidegger on Art and Art Works J.J. Kockelmans,2012-12-06 This book grew from a series of lectures presented in 1983 in the context of the Summer Program in Phenomenology at The Pennsylvania State University For these lectures I made use of notes and short essays which I had written between 1978 and 1982 during interdisciplinary seminars on Heidegger s later philosophy in general and on his philosophy of language and art in particular The participants in these seminars consisted of faculty members and graduate students concerned with the sciences the arts literature literary criticism art history art education and philosophy On both occasions I made a special effort to introduce those who did not yet have a specialized knowledge of Heidegger s philosophy to his later way of thinking In this effort I was guided by the conviction that we as a group had to aim for accuracy precision clarity faithfulness and depth while at the same time taking distance comparing Heidegger s views with ideas of other philosophers and thinkers and cultivat ing a proper sense of criticism Over the years it has become clear to me that among professional philoso phers literary critics scholars concerned with art history and art education and scientists from various disciplines there are many who are particularly interested in Heidegger s philosophy of art I have also become convinced that many of these dedicated scholars often have difficulty in understanding Heidegger s lectures on art and art works This is understandable Art Expressions Bruce Menzies,2019-11-22 Art Expressions visits some of the world s greatest artists and their paintings The book includes a brief two page biographical review of the artist and one or more of their famous art Each painting is accompanied by a one page explanation and devotional Over 450 pages Current Literature ,1892 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1898 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce,1898 Journal of the Society of Arts ,1898 Beauty in Context Wilfried van Damme,2021-11-01 This is the first study to survey the field of the anthropology of aesthetics which during the last few decades has emerged on the cross roads between anthropology and non Western art scholarship While critically examining the available literature thereby addressing such basic issues as the existence of aesthetic universals the author elaborates on a central thesis which concerns the relationship between aesthetic preference and sociocultural ideals Drawing on empirical data from several African cultures he demonstrates that varying notions of beauty are inspired by varying sociocultural ideals thus shedding light on the phenomenon of cultural relativism in aesthetic preference Emphasizing unity within diversity the systematic anthropological approach offered in this volume invites the reader to reconsider aesthetic preference from an empirical cross cultural and contextual perspective The Routledge Companion to Literature and Art Neil Murphy,W. Michelle Wang,Cheryl Julia Lee,2024-03-11 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Art explores the links between literature and visual art from classical ekphrasis through to contemporary experimental forms

The collection's engagement with diverse literary and cultural artifacts offers a comprehensive survey of the vibrant interrelationships that currently inform literary studies and the arts. Featuring four sections, the first part provides an overview of theoretical approaches to art and literature from philosophy and aesthetics through to cognitive neuroscience. Part two examines one of the most important intersections between text and image: the workings of ekphrasis across poetry, fiction, drama, comics, life and travel writing, and architectural treatises. Parts three and four consider intermedial crossings from antiquity to the present. The contributors examine the rich intermedial experiments that range from manuscript studies to infographics in graphic narratives, illuminating the vibrant ways in which texts have intersected with illustration, music, dance, architecture, painting, photography, media installations, and television. Throughout this dynamic collection of 37 chapters, the contributors evolve existing critical debates in innovative new directions. The volume will be a critical resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students as well as specialist scholars working in literary studies, philosophy of art, text and image studies, and visual culture. The Introduction and Chapters 10, 14, and 37 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY) 4.0 license.
