Red de Escuelas de Excelencia ,2000 Ciudadanías, educación y juventudes Cristóbal Villalobos,María Jesús Morel,Ernesto Treviño,2021-11-20 Ciudadanas educacion y juventudes Investigaciones y debates para el Chile del futuro es un libro que busca recopilar evidencia sobre la construcción de la

ciudadana y juvenil en Chile y América Latina promover discusiones respecto del rol de la escuela en la formación ciudadana y potenciar el debate sobre los desafíos económicos, sociales, culturales y ambientales que vivimos actualmente y que vivirán las próximas generaciones en este globalizado mundo. A través de 15 capítulos además de 6 relatos de jóvenes de distintos lugares, identidades y organizaciones del país, el libro busca profundizar en un tópico poco considerado por el sistema escolar y la investigación social: la relación entre ciudadana, escuela y juventudes. En contraste con las visiones que han restringido el tema de la ciudadana a discusiones curriculares o a análisis normativos de lo que la juventud debiese ser, el libro se desarrolla desde una definición amplia de las ciudadanas y la juventud, es considerando como un eje central de trabajo la pluralidad de miradas, enfoques conceptuales, sujetos de investigación y metodologías. En términos de su organización, el libro está estructurado en tres grandes dimensiones. La primera sección se focaliza en las actitudes cívicas, explorando cómo actitudes identitarias de las juventudes como la orientación sexual, los prejuicios de género, la etnicidad o la nacionalidad impactan en la vida escolar. La segunda sección se apunta al conocimiento cívico, analizando el rol de los profesores en la formación ciudadana, las políticas públicas sobre la materia, las brechas de conocimiento ciudadano existentes y los factores familiares y escolares que podrían potenciar este conocimiento. Finalmente, la tercera sección profundiza en las acciones ciudadanas, estudiando las protestas juveniles, secundarias, las formas de organización juvenil escolar, las acciones socioambientales o la percepción de los jóvenes sobre la participación política dentro o fuera de la escuela. Concebido como un trabajo colectivo, Ciudadanas, Educación y Juventudes: Investigaciones y debates para el Chile del futuro reúne a más de 50 investigadores e investigadoras especializados en ámbitos tan diversos como el currículo escolar, la sociología, la psicología, la historia, las ciencias ambientales o la ciencia política para promover un debate intergeneracional y activar discusiones centrales en las próximas décadas en el país en un momento que puede considerarse como clave para el futuro de nuestra sociedad.

La Soledad De La Noche Juan Cáceres Chamorro, 2012-06-14. Hace 51 años nací un niño para sufrir el desamor de su padre desde muy temprana edad, soporté la crueldad de su propio padre y de la sociedad, sufrí abuso físico y sexualmente, pasó prácticamente su niñez atrapada en la miseria y del hambre ignorada por la sociedad donde vivía con sus padres y con sus hermanos. Eso le dio la fuerza para luchar y salir adelante. No pudo estudiar porque era pobre y solo sin que nadie le ayudara salió solo desde la soledad de la noche buscando conquistar el mundo con el sueño hecho pedazo, pero llegó a donde un día solo llegar salió adelante caminando de frente sin mirar atrás. El alma de un niño desafiando a su destino y llegó el mundo le abrió sus brazos y en él se refugió.

Gravyland Stephen Parks, 2010-03-26. In Gravyland Parks chronicles the history of an urban university writing program and its attempt to develop politically progressive literacy partnerships with the surrounding community while having to work within and against a traditional educational and cultural landscape He details the experience of Temple University's New City Writing program from its beginning as a small institute with one program at a local public school to a multifaceted organization supported by large multiyear grants and establishing partnerships across the diverse neighborhoods of Philadelphia The author describes classrooms where the community takes a seat and becomes part of the conversation a conversation that readers of Gravyland share through the inclusion of a selection of passages produced by community writers published by New City Community Press While Parks celebrates classroom success in generating knowledge through dialogue with the larger community he also highlights many of the obstacles the organizers of the New City Writing program faced The author shows that writing alliances between universities and communities are possible but they must take into account the institutional economic and political pressures that accompany such partnerships Blending the theoretical and practical lessons learned Parks elucidates New City Writing's effort to offer a new model of education one in which the voice of the professor must share space with the voices of the community and one in which students come to understand that the right to sit in a classroom is the result not just of nationalist war but of peaceful civil disobedience of community struggles to gain self recognition and of collective efforts to seek social justice
