Muslim Communities in North America Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,Jane I. Smith,1994-01-01 This book provides a look at Muslim life and institutions forming in North America It considers the range of Islamic life in North America with its different racial ethnic and cultural identities customs and religious orientations Issues of acculturation ethnicity orthodoxy and the changing roles of women are brought into focus The authors provide insight into the lives of recent immigrants who are asking what is Islamically appropriate in a non Muslim environment Contrasts are drawn between Sunni and Shi i groups and attention is given to the activities of some Sufi organizations The growing Islamic community among African American Muslims is examined including the followers of Warith Deen Muhammed and the sectarians identified with black power such as the Nation of Islam Darul Islam and the Five Percenters The authors document the challenges and issues that American Muslims face such as prejudice and racism pressure from overseas Muslims dress and education the influence of Islamic revivalism on the development of the community in this country and the maintenance of Muslim identity amidst the pressure for assimilation

The Art of Mystical Narrative Eitan P. Fishbane,2018 In the study of Judaism the Zohar has captivated the minds of interpreters for over seven centuries and continues to entrance readers in the modern day Yet despite these centuries of study very little attention has been devoted to the literary dimensions of the text The Art of Mystical Narrative argues that the Zohar story must be understood first and foremost as a work of the fictional imagination

Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg,2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such

A Two-Colored Brocade Annemarie Schimmel,2014-02-01 Annemarie Schimmel one of the world s foremost authorities on Persian literature provides a comprehensive introduction to the complicated and highly sophisticated system of rhetoric and imagery used by the poets of Iran Ottoman Turkey and Muslim India She shows that these images have been used and refined over the centuries and reflect the changing conditions in the Muslim world According to Schimmel Persian poetry does not aim to be spontaneous in spirit or highly personal in form Instead it is rooted in conventions and rules of prosody rhymes and verbal instrumentation Ideally every verse should be like a precious stone perfectly formed and multifaceted and convey the dynamic relationship between everyday reality and the transcendental Persian poetry Schimmel explains is more similar to medieval European verse than Western poetry as it has been written since the Romantic period The characteristic verse form is the ghazal a set of rhyming couplets which serves as a vehicle for shrouding in conventional tropes the poet s real intentions Because Persian poetry is neither narrative nor dramatic in its overall form its strength lies in an architectonic design each precisely expressed image is carefully fitted into a pattern of linked figures of speech Schimmel shows that at its heart Persian poetry transforms the world into a web of symbols embedded in Islamic culture

Hegel's Philosophy of the Historical Religions Bart Labuschagne,Timo Slootweg,2012-04-19 The chapters in this book offer an in depth and profound overview of Hegel s daring many faceted philosophical interpretations of the multifarious and dialectically interrelated historical religions including the Islam and the revealed religion of Christianity Catholicism and Protestantism

volume focuses on the interplay between metaphor making and mysticism and sheds new light on the power of the metaphorical and creative dimensions of the mystical for the twenty first century It explores the ways a variety of mystical writers deal with metaphor and image by bringing together chapters from interdisciplinary vantage points theological philosophical historical artistic and literary The book touches on a range of historical and contemporary figures including Jalal al Din al Rumi John of Ruusbroec Hadewijch John Scottus Eriugena and Edward Abbey In reviewing the place of metaphor in mystical texts both Christian and Islamic the contributions reflect on the hard and difficult places both metaphor and mysticism can bring us to They explore contemporary artists engagement with the mystical and how these open up new ways of reimagining our present moving us beyond static categories such as religion versus secular and Christianity versus Islam Overall the book highlights the potential of mysticism to push us beyond comfortable spaces and associations and considers the language and images used to do so

History as Prelude Joseph V. Montville, 2011-01-01 This collection of essays by seven highly respected scholars is a straightforward narrative of real world intellectual commercial spiritual philosophical scientific esthetic creative engagement among Jews Muslims and some Christians in daily life in Spain and around the Mediterranean History as Prelude is a major contribution to the Israeli Arab peace process because it undermines in fact blows away the efforts of propagandists who serve governments or political movements to negate the reality of the Arab Jewish relationship in the medieval Mediterranean The contributors in unassuming well researched scholarship have erected a wall protecting historical reality from distortion providing irrefutable and often delightful examples of creative coexistence
