essential hurdle for all who practice the theatrical craft or want to study it theoretically This hurdle can be considered one of the foundations of theatre science and of the relationship between technique politics and ethics This book tells the story of a revolution in the work of the actor in the early and mid 20th century a period in which the focus of theatrical interest shifted from the emotions to the body The actor's body became a tool for purveying a dynamic set of actions which often transformed the very actor himself This new centrality of the body also drew attention to those places in which the body is central the gym the boxing ring and the circus with its trapezes and tightropes became together with the stage laboratories for the theatre Thus in addition to the reformers of the theatre the pages of this book are filled with boxers acrobats gymnasts and wrestlers pursuers of an utopia the actor who flies Collective Creation in Contemporary Performance Kathryn Mederos

Syssoyeva, 2013-08-28 This edited volume situates its contemporary practice in the tradition which emerged at the beginning of the twentieth century Collective Creation in Contemporary Performance examines collective and devised theatre practices internationally and demonstrates the prevalence breadth and significance of modern collective creation The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners Franc Chamberlain, Bernadette Sweeney, 2020-08-16 The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners collects the outstanding biographical and production overviews of key theatre practitioners first featured in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks Each of the chapters is written by an expert on a particular figure from Stanislavsky and Brecht to Laban and Decroux and places their work in its social and historical context Summaries and analyses of their key productions indicate how each practitioner's theoretical approaches to performance and the performer were manifested in practice All 22 practitioners from the original series are represented with this volume covering those born after 1915 This is the definitive first step for students scholars and practitioners hoping to acquaint themselves with the leading names in performance or deepen their knowledge of these seminal figures

Voices from Within: Grotowski's Polish Collaborators Paul Allain, Grzegorz Ziółkowski, 2015-01-01 Voices from Within Grotowski's Polish Collaborators brings together for the first time in English the distinctive voices of renowned director Jerzy Grotowski's Polish colleagues providing a rare insight into different areas of their research and work Through conversations recollections journal entries images working notes and other testimonies the collection opens up a range of perspectives on this changing practice both within and beyond the theatre from the actors artists designers producers administrators and investigators who co created it The book spans the full period of Grotowski's career from the theatre of productions phase through paratheatre and Theatre of Sources to the final phase of Art as vehicle following his emigration from Poland What emerges from these narratives is a genuinely collaborative endeavour that as Grotowski himself comments within in a note distributed with the Laboratory Theatre's touring productions is often mistakenly associated with his name and his name alone Voices from Within makes an important contribution to international understanding of this work by offering a multi vocal insiders account of the collective and individual searches uncertainties discoveries and experiences that accompanied many of Grotowski's long time creative partnerships. This title is available in paperback and as an Open Access ebook.

A Performance Cosmology Judie Christie, Richard Gough, Daniel Peter Watt, 2013-03-07 Exploring thirty years of work by The Centre for Performance Research CPR. A Performance Cosmology explores the future challenges of performance and theatre through a diverse and fascinating series of interviews, testimonies and perspectives from leading international theatre practitioners and academics. Contributors include Philip Auslander, Rustom Bharucha, Tim Etchells, Jane Goodall, Guillermo Gomez-Pena, Jon McKenzie, Claire MacDonald, Susan Melrose, Alphonso Lingis, Richard Schechner, Rebecca Schneider, Edward Scheer and Freddie Rokem. A Performance Cosmology is structured as a travelogue through a matrix of strategic imaginary interdisciplinary field stations. This innovative framework enables readings which disrupt linearity and afford different forms of thematic engagement. The resulting volume opens entirely new vistas on the old, new and as yet unimagined worlds of performance.

Twentieth Century Actor Training Alison Hodge, 2000. THE SECOND EDITION OF THIS TITLE ENTITLED ACTOR TRAINING IS NOW AVAILABLE. Actor training is arguably the central phenomenon of twentieth century theatre making. Here for the first time the theories, training exercises and productions of fourteen directors are analysed in a single volume, each one written by a leading expert. The practitioners included are Stella Adler, Bertolt Brecht, Joseph Chaikin, Jacques Copeau, Joan Littlewood, Vsevolod Meyerhold, Konstantin Stanislavsky, Eugenio Barba, Peter Brook, Michael Chekhov, Jerzy Grotowski, Sanford Meisner, Wlodimierz Staniewski, Lee Strasberg. Each chapter provides a unique account of specific training exercises and an analysis of their relationship to the practitioners' theoretical and aesthetic concerns. The collection examines the relationship between actor training and production and considers how directly the actor training relates to performance. With detailed accounts of the principles, exercises and their application to many of the landmark productions of the past hundred years, this book will be invaluable to students, teachers, practitioners and academics alike.

The Unwritten Grotowski Kris Salata, 2013-05-07. This book gives a new view on the legacy of Jerzy Grotowski, 1933-1999, one of the central and yet misunderstood figures who shaped 20th century theatre, focusing on his least known last phase of work on ancient songs and the craft of the performer. Salata posits Grotowski's work as philosophical practice and more particularly as practical research in the phenomenology of being, arguing that Grotowski's departure from theatrical productions and thus critical consideration resulted from his uncompromising pursuit of one central problem: What does it mean to reveal oneself? The very question that drove his stage directing work. The book demonstrates that the answer led him through the path of gradually stripping the theatrical phenomenon down to its most elemental aspect, which shows itself through the craft of the performer as a non-representational event. This particular quality, released at the heights of the art of the performer, is referred to as aliveness or true liveness. In this study, in order to shift scholarly focus onto something that has always fascinated great theatre practitioners including Stanislavski and Grotowski and of which academic scholarship has limited grasp, Salata's theoretical analysis of aliveness reaches out to phenomenology and a broad range of post structural philosophy and critical theory through which Grotowski s project is portrayed as philosophical practice
