ESSAY QUESTIONS

1. How well does our "First Past the Post" electoral system represent citizens' interests? What are the alternative electoral systems? Would they be better than our current system?
2. What forces have fostered regionalism and alienation in the Canadian context? Evaluate the effectiveness of policy interventions aimed at addressing these forces in your answer.
3. Canada is sometimes known as a "nation of immigrants," a land of "multiculturalism," and a place with welcoming immigration policies. Others argue Canada does not live up to these high praises. Which argument best reflects Canada's past and present? Draw on specific examples, like Canadian immigration policies, government responses to immigration incidents, etc.
4. The 1995 Quebec referendum was the culmination of unresolved tensions between Quebec and the rest of Canada, which are rooted in the historical foundations of our country. With the results from the 1980 referendum and the growing support for Quebec's independence in mind, how did Pierre Trudeau and successive Prime Ministers attempt to resolve these tensions through constitutional change, how successful were they, and what do you think is the underlying problem?
