David Marans

Publications in Ethnography 12

African Friends and Money Matters provides an introduction to the experiences of Westerners who travel and work in Africa. Africans have had as many frustrations relating to the Westerners in their midst. Each sees and manages money and other resources in very different ways, and these differences create many misunderstandings and frictions.

The author deals with everyday life in Africa. He first introduces the very different goals of African and Western economic systems and then presents many observations of African behaviors related to money matters. Explanatory comments are given that show how each one works out in real life. The illustrative tale and others' experiences with anecdotes from across the continent. Drawings by two African artists add further clarity to the text as they capture African and Westerners in authentic situations. The result is that the reader is able to make sense of customs that at first seem incomprehensible.

This book will be of interest to Westerners living, working, or traveling in sub-Saharan Africa: business, government, diplomatic, and Non-Governmental Organization personnel, religious workers, journalists, development sociologists, and others. The audience also includes professors and students in African studies. Africans will also be interested for what it reveals about Western culture and many of the significant ways Westerners react in Africa.

David Marans, Ph.D., has lived and worked in several countries in Africa since 1971. His earlier book, Peace Is Everything, examines the worldview and religious beliefs of the people in the Senegambian region of West Africa.

African Friends and Money Matters, Second Edition David E. Maranz, 2016-10-25 African Friends and Money Matters grew out of frustrations that Westerners experience when they travel and work in Africa Africans have just as many frustrations relating to Westerners in their midst Each manages money time and relationships in very different ways often creating friction and misunderstanding African Friends and Money Matters David E. Maranz, 2001 Discussion of the different goals of African and Western economic systems and ninety observations of African behaviors related to money matters and the frictions which can result when Westerners misunderstand The Global Healthcare Manager:

Competencies, Concepts, and Skills Michael Counte, Bernardo Ramirez, Daniel J. West, Jr., William Aaronson, 2018-12-10 Healthcare managers who take on assignments in North America and around the world must be equipped with the knowledge and tools to work effectively with the systems cultures governments and management teams of their new environments As the profile of the global healthcare manager grows so too does the need for future leaders to develop the skills and competencies necessary to achieve organizational success while improving the health of individuals and populations The Global Healthcare Manager Competencies Concepts and Skills provides a comprehensive overview of healthcare management and leadership in a global context with real world perspectives from a broad range of countries cultures and delivery settings Written for both students and practitioners the book addresses the growing diffusion of diverse managerial concepts theories and technologies across the world s health systems Today s global healthcare landscape requires managers to be effective leaders and change agents with the ability to achieve positive health outcomes while navigating a dynamic and increasingly complex environment The Global Healthcare Manager Competencies Concepts and Skills acknowledges this complexity and equips readers with the tools they need to meet and overcome their management challenges Instructor Resources Instructor s manual PowerPoint slides and a test bank Terrorist Diversion Oliver May, Paul Curwell, 2020-09-03 Many of the world s 40 000 International NGOs INGOs work in places where terrorist financing sanctions breaches and diversion are key risks Almost all of the top ten recipient countries of humanitarian aid alone in 2015 were high risk jurisdictions for example receiving more than 7bn between them When they feel safe to speak sector workers share sobering stories about what might have happened to some of this money As INGOs struggle to keep up with worsening humanitarian needs diversion risks and their complexity remain daunting The demands of internal stakeholders donors banks and regulators are diverse and even contradictory Public scrutiny has magnified but is not always well informed Institutional donors transfer ever more risk to implementing partners while some banks seek to avoid this business altogether pushing some NGOs outside the global banking system Looming over all of these converging pressures is a latticework of austere international sanctions and counter terror regimes It is no surprise that INGOs find themselves struggling to reconcile this complex set of expectations with their charitable missions Yet the consequences of failing to do so can be severe future funding is contingent on reputation and serious offences litter the regulatory landscape The implications of breaches can be existential for organisations and criminal for individuals Terrorist Diversion A Guide to Prevention and Detection for NGOs is an accessible pragmatic guide for international NGOs of all shapes and sizes Clearly explaining the nature of the challenge and setting out a programme to meet it it explores how it is possible for INGOs to manage these risks more effectively through their missions not in spite of them Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1986-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1955 British Museum. Dept. of Printed Books,1967 African Societies Lucy Mair,1974-09-12 In African Societies Lucy Mair unites the two main strands of anthropology teaching the discussion and illustration of the various analytical concepts used by anthropologists in the study of social systems and ethnography the detailed study of particular societies nowadays obtained by participant observation All societies discussed are in sub Saharan Africa This 1977 book will be of great use to students of social anthropology studying ethnography Presenting as it does brief ethnographic accounts of a wide variety of African societies as well as exemplifications and discussions of many theoretical concepts the book offers the reader quick and easy access to a large body of information which previously had to be mined from a large number of monographs Friendship, Descent, and Alliance in Africa Martine Guichard,Tilo Grätz,Youssof Diallo,2014 Friendship descent and alliance are basic forms of relatedness that have received unequal attention in social anthropology Offering new insights into the ways in which friendship is conceptualized and realized in various sub Saharan African settings the contributions to this volume depart from the recent tendency to study friendship in isolation from kinship In drawing attention to the complexity of the interactions between these two kinds of social relationships the book suggests that analyses of friendship in Western societies would also benefit from research that explores more systematically friendship in conjunction with kinship Martine Guichard is a Senior Researcher at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale She has conducted research in Benin and Cameroon on local political cultures ethnicity friendship and kinship Tilo Grätz is Vice Director for Research at the Centre of Modern Oriental Studies Berlin and an Associate Professor at the Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology Free University Berlin He has conducted research in West Africa and Central Europe on topics ranging from migration media local level politics to informal economies and friendship relations Youssof Diallo is a Lecturer in Anthropology and Cross Cultural Competencies at the German Armed Forces Command and Staff College in Hamburg He is an Associate Researcher at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology in Halle Saale He has carried out research on pastoral migrations ethnicity and joking relations in West Africa African Life and Customs Edward Wilmot Blyden,1988-12-01 Valenge Women E. Dora Earthy,2018-08-22 When first published in 1933 this monograph shed new light on the life of the Valenge women of Portuguese East Africa It discusses their social organisations family relationships education tribal customs and contains detailed information concerning initiation rites religion magic and sorcery The volume collects a large number of native texts rituals and formulae thereby converting oral tradition into material of great value not only to students of African ethnography but also to anthropologists more widely
