Vincent,James Mason,1858 Shaping Church Law Around the Year 1000 Greta Austin,2009 Drawing upon new manuscript discoveries the author shows how Burchard tried to create a new text that would address these problems He carefully selected and compiled canons from earlier collections and then went on to tamper systematically with the texts he had chosen By doing so he created a book of church law that appeared to be based on indisputable authority that was internally consistent and that was easy to apply through logical extrapolation to new cases The present study thus provides a window into the development of legal and theological reasoning in the medieval West and suggests that thanks to the work of ambitious bishops the flowering of law and theology began far earlier and for different reasons than scholars have heretofore supposed BOOK JACKET The Book of Days.
