After the Massacre Robert S. Weddle, Juan Ángel de Oyarzún, 2007 Chronicles the Spanish expedition to punish the Taovaya Indians and their allies after the Mission Santa Cruz de San Saba was burned to the ground Spanish Missions of Texas Byron Browne, 2017 After the conquest of Mexico by Hernan Cortaes in the sixteenth century conquistadors and explorers poured into the territory of Nueva España The Franciscans followed in their wake but carved a different path through a harsh and often violent landscape That heritage can still be found across Texas behind weathered stone ruins and in the pews of ornate immaculately maintained naves From early structures in El Paso to later woodland sanctuaries in East Texas these missions anchored communities and in many cases still serve them today Author Byron Browne reconnoiters these iconic landmarks and their lasting legacy A Visual Catalog of Spanish Frontier Missions, 16th to 19th Centuries Robert H. Jackson, 2019-02-01 From the sixteenth to the early nineteenth centuries the Spanish Crown sponsored missions staffed by members of different Catholic missionary orders to evangelize the indigenous populations and engage in social engineering in line with royal policy The missionaries directed the construction of building complexes that included churches leaving behind an important historical and architectural legacy This visual catalog documents the surviving complexes on selected missions on the frontiers of Spanish America in what today is Mexico and parts of South America It also presents basic historical data on the mission communities including demographic data and documents damage to early mission buildings by the earthquakes of September 7 and September 19 2018 This Corner of Canaan Randolph B.
